RALEIGH.

A & M College Said to be Crowded
Death of Veteran at Soldiers' Home.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 28.—The bank of Mt Airy was chartered today with $109,000 capital authorized and $25,000 subscribed by W J Byerly, A E Smith, Jesse H Prather, J A Tokeley and others.

Mrs Francis Adams, a seamstress of this city who is 79 years old and spent all her life here just enjoyed the privilege of seeing the city market for the first time yesterday, although it was erected almost 50 years ago. The only reason that she gives is that she never had time to walk around town.

Postmaster Bailey of the Raleigh post office, who is paymaster for the rural free delivery carriers in all parts of the State, says there are now exactly 698 in active service.

The noted Selma connection case of Corporatiga Comalston vs Atlantic Coast Line was to be argued next week but by consent the hearing is postponed until November 9th. The case involves the right of the Commission to compel the A C L to have passenger trains connect with the Southern at Selma.

In Wake Superior Court an order is made continuing the case against V E McBea and K S Finch for conspiracy against the State in the receivership litigation involving the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad. The continuance is by consent.

W H Adkins, an old soldier from Wayne county, died at the Soldiers Home early this morning. He had been in the Home only about two months and was a member of Company G, 18th regiment. An old wound and paralysis therefrom were the cause of the death.

President Winston of the A & M College announces that there are 41 of the senior class back at work and all is moving along smoothly. The College is greatly crowded for room, over twenty applicants for admission having already been refused and announcement is made that no other students from foreign countries or other states will be received to the exclusion of North Carolina boys. In future the faculty will review the work of every student each month and all who are not progressing satisfactorily will be sent home.

Mrs Mary L Wilson, of Charlotte died at the home of her son in law, Mr Chas E Johnson, early last night and the remains were carried to Charlotte this afternoon, leaving here at 2:30 o'clock. The deceased was in her ninetieth year and was the relict of the late Joseph Harvey Wilson. She had been seriously ill but a few days.

A New Commander

St Petersburg, Sept 28.—Although an official announcement to the effect is not expected immediately, since it will require some little time to get Russia's second army in the field, the designation of Grand Duke Nicholas Nicolaievitch, the inspector general of cavalry, as commander in chief, is regarded as practically settled.

Grand Duke Nicholas is regarded as being extremely well fitted for this great responsibility. He has youth and an iron constitution, but above all resolution and untiring energy. With these qualifications, whatever he lacks in military experience and ability as a strategist can be supplied by placing at his disposal the most able military advisers of the Russian army.

Battle in Progress.

St. Petersburg, Sept 28.—It is expected here that the battle of Mukden will occur to the east and northeast of that city between Foo Choo and Sia King. The Japanese are marching toward the former point along the good roads from Yen Tai. The Russians according to the dispatches received, have a front 24 miles in length, between Liao river and points north of Sia King. Kuroki's main body was on the left on Yen Tai Saturday last.

AN IMPORTANT TRANSACTION.

The Old Bishop Factory Purchased By Pepsi-Cola Company.

An important real estate deal was made yesterday whereby the old Bishop factory on the corner of Hancock and Johnson streets which has long been idle will again be the scene of busy activity.

The Pepsi Cola Company purchased it and will at once make arrangements for the more extensive manufacture of Pepsi Cola.

The building at present comprises 7,000 square feet and the area will be increased so as to make 15,000 square feet either by the addition of another story or increase of floor space. They will also build an addition to adjoin Johnson street.

Aside from the larger manufacture of Pepsi Cola syrup they will equip the factory with an up to date bottling establishment for the purpose of putting up bottled carbonated Pepsi Cola. This phase of the business (recently begun has shown a popularity which at the start assures the company of a wonderful success.

Within three months auxiliary plants will be started at Richmond, Norfolk and many other southern cities for making the bottled Pepsi Cola. As the demand grows plants will be started in every southern city.
There is every reason to believe that this plan will be necessary for the prompt filling of orders for this popular drink.

THE DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

First Stamp Speech of the Campaign Delivered by Dr B F Dixon.

There was a good attendance at the Court house last night to hear Dr B F Dixon discuss political topics. Mr Dixon is not unknown in New Bern and whenever he speaks his audience is sure to be interested and edified.

Mr Ernest Green presided at the meeting and introduced the speaker who began his remarks with a few pleasantries stating that he believed he could speak to a better advantage if he were to preach the gospel for them he knew he would be giving the people what they needed; however he believed that he was talking gospel truth and he knew that all true Democrats would agree with him.

As he was beginning his speech the convicts in the jail tuned up and seemed to annoy him. He remarked that possibly if the music wasn't intended for the special benefit of the meeting that it was started as an opposition attraction by the republicans.

His opening argument was a defence of the State administration against the violent attacks of the republicans as to the extravagant manner with which the affairs had been handled. He produced figures to prove his claim that the administration had been as economical as was consistent with good government. He said the Republicans were pleased to compare Gov Aycock's administration with that of Gov Vance—not that of Gov Russell.

Some figures were given on the pension question showing that the confederate soldier had been given more consideration than by any other administration and that to date the pensioners of the State had received $1,600,000 and the apportionment of pension moneys had been based upon a system of reasonable increase year by year and that the men who nobly sustained the cause of the south throughout the war were not forgotten in their weakness and infirmity. The soldiers home had been established and was comfortably supported out of the treasury of the State.

The interests of the children was the next subject for discussion. (The needs of better and longer school years had been realized and granted more by the Democratic party under Gov Aycock's administration than any governor before him. He said that Gov Aycock had done more for the cause of education and incidentally for the children than any other governor.

The Republican party maintains that the negroes and colored schools have received more recognition than the whites that more money was being expended on them by the democrats of the present regime than ever before. This argument he met successfully with figures to show the difference between the appropriations for white and colored schools.

He spoke of the condition of the State when Governor Aycock took the oath of office. Of the scandals that existed in the penitentiary and other parts of the public service.

A brilliant allusion given out was "The Republican party can never change its skin or its spots either. It has a record that no man even the lowest would be proud of.

He made a satirical reference to the Republican candidate, Mr Harris, who recently came to this State from Maine and knew nothing, whatever of the needs of the State. In fact he had no idea of being elected or that any of his tickets would be elected by that they would promote discord in the ranks of the Democratic party.

He dwelt sometimes on the condition of the State and then talked shily on the national issues leading in splendid language the character and ability of Judge Parker. The speech was frequently applauded and greatly appreciated.

Judge Furgerson's Charge.

At the beginning of the Wake County Superior Court for the trial of criminal cases this week, Judge Furgerson gave the grand jury an address that was timely, strong and necessary. He put great emphasis on the fact that immorality must be checked by the action of grand juries and that they must make their investigation thorough. He had special reference to the existence of houses of ill fame. He said that the owners of the houses as well as the proprietors of the resorts should be indicted.

The charge is able and suggests a popular campaign against these nuisances which, it is hoped will be taken up in every county and pursued until they are abolished.
