"My little son, a boy of five, broke out with an itching rash. Three doctors prescribed for him, but he kept getting worse until we could not dress him any more. They finally advised She to try a certain medical college, but its treatment did not do any good. At the time I was induced to try Cuticura the time I was induced to try Cuticura Remedies he was so bad that I had to cut his hair off and put the Caticura Ointment on him on bandages, as it was impossible to touch him with the bare hand. There was not one square inch of skin on his whole body that was not affected. He was one mass of sores. The bandages used to stick to his skin and in removing them it used to take the skin off with them, and the screams from the poor child were heart-break-ing. I began to think that he would never get well, but after the second application of Cuticura Ointment I began to see signs of improvement, application of Cuticura Ointment I began to see signs of improvement, and with the third and fourth applica-tions the sores commenced to dry up. His skin peeled off tweaty times, but it finally yielded to the treatment. I used the Cuticura Resolvent for his blood, and now I can say that he is entirely cured, and a stronger and healthier boy you never saw than he is to-day." The Youthful Artist

Young artists and the parents of routhful prodigles will be interested in Mr. C. D. Gibson's brief and direct advice in Collier's for October 15. Mr. Gibson says:

"Beginners are worried needlessly over the quality of paper and ink to be or having only stayed their hunger in used. It is only necessary that one should be white and the other black.
