REPUBLICANISM IMPAIRED

Congressman Thomas Delivers a Stirring Address.

The Career of the Republican Presidential Candidate Laid Bare to the Eyes of the Voting

Public A Splendid Effort and a Good Result.

There was a little disappointment shown at the Court House last evening, when Judge W. S. O. Robinson, who was scheduled to engage in joint debate with Hon. O. R. Thomas was not present. It was expected that he would not be present at the meeting to speak. He was expected to be here, but late yesterday afternoon Mr. O. R. Hill received a telegram to the effect that on account of sickness the judge was unable to come down. A good sized number, however, was gathered to hear New Bern's brilliant son.

Hon. O. R. Thomas, pay his respects to the Republican party's candidate. Mr. Ernest Green introduced the speaker and announced also the circumstance of the absence of Judge Robinson. Mr. Thomas expressed the hope that he would be given the opportunity of meeting Judge Robinson here.

He liked the idea of having a joint political discussion for the reason that the two sides were given to contrast or compare the merits of the parties involved. Of the long list of places prepared where these debates were to be held, Judge Robinson had appeared at just four of them. More than a dozen appointments having been missed by the Republican candidate.

There was a time in the history of the world, said the speaker, when the great army of Philistines gathered to defend the army of Israel, when the giant champion defied the forces of the Lord and at that time there was one man, a mere youth, whose well directed weapon caused the discomfiture of the hosts of the enemy by the death of the champion in the intrepid and valiant leader, Alton B. Parker, the Democratic party have found a David who will hurl to death the Goliath Roosevelt.

He paid a compliment to his political opponent by calling him clever but he represents the principles and interests of the Republican party and being that he can not be any better than they are.

This is not a campaign of personalities. Nor are the personal characteristics of the candidates to be considered. The question in this campaign is the fair and square discussion of the principles that each party stands for. Men make the party, the nation and the issues. Men constitute the state and after the vital interests are considered the kind of men who have been chosen as party standard bearers ought to be given a little attention.

Speaking of the Democratic Convention at Greensboro, he made a comparison between the great assembly of 8,000 members of the Democratic party and the Republican convention which he described as a crowd of federal office holders interested in but one thing and that being to continue their party in power.

He said he was not criticizing the Republican party of yesterday, the party of McKinley, but we are fighting Rooseveltism.

Judge W. P. Bynum, a prominent Republican of this State said of his own party in North Carolina: "If Federal office holders continue to control in this State, no self respecting man can take part in politics."

The two National conventions were then compared. The Chicago convention was spoken of as a cut and dried affair which bore the mark of Rooseveltism in every spot. They merely went through the form of nomination in order to seek submission to the high potentate's desire. At St. Louis a few days later was gathered the brains of the nation.

Black headache is caused by a disorder of condition of the stomach and is quickly cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by all druggists.

EATON, the Leading Jeweler.

Established 1868.

determined upon methods to put the affairs of the country on a better basis.

It was a time when masterful minds like those of William J. Bryan and Grover Cleveland united in the choice of Alton B. Parker to represent the principles of Democracy. Parker was spoken of as a man who has united the factions of the party by his wise and prudent conduct his inspiring words and sterling worth. He had secured the support of the independent press of New York, which is a powerful factor for any candidate, and the best and most conservative business men favor the judicious and well balanced character of Alton B. Parker to the fiery and impetuous personality of Theodore Roosevelt.

Roosevelt's attitude toward the South was dwelt on to some extent; the fact that negro delegates were allowed upon the floor and given equal privileges with the white delegates at the Chicago convention. His conduct in the Minnie Cox matter at Indianapolis and the Drum appointments at Charleston were given due attention. It has been Roosevelt's steady and determined purpose to shame and humiliate the south at every opportunity. The waving of the bloody shirt was a favorite pastime with him. He said that had McKinley been president these insults would not have been made. But the race question has been revived in Rooseveltism.

He discussed the tariff at considerable length, showed the shallow nature of all the boasting talk of prosperity and how panics were instituted and fed on the principles maintained by the Republican party.

The speech was attentively listened to for a space of nearly two hours.

OYSTER LAW VIOLATORS

Virginia State Board Fisheries Will Protect Oyster Industry From Ruin.

Virginia Pilot 27th.

At the meeting yesterday of the state board of fisheries the oyster situation in its entirety was gone over, there having been quite a discussion regarding the depredations of the oyster laws which threaten to cripple if not eventually kill the industry unless the legislature correct the abuses. Drastic action will likely be recommended to eradicate the evil.

From time to time there have come reports of violations of the oyster laws—that is, the taking of the oysters from the natural rocks out of season and before the young bivalves have had a chance to mature.

It has been alleged that certain parties who lease rocks inside the Baylor survey go out of their territory and take the young oysters, which are brought to Norfolk and other places and sold, and that when the police boats approach the violators scurry back to the lease grounds so that it is difficult for the officers to secure convictions.

A number of local packers appeared before the board and made complaint regarding the violations, stating that the supplies have been greatly reduced and that the quality of the oysters has been greatly impaired. Some of the packers, it has been stated, have been fined by the inspectors for purchasing the oysters under size.

The meeting between the board and packers was entirely harmonious. Nothing was given out regarding the steps to be taken by the board looking to stopping the violations, but it is understood that the attention of the legislature will be called to the serious state of affairs. The board was frank in stating that it would like to see the oyster laws enforced, and the packers urged legislation.

Iris at New Masonic Theatre.

Regarding "Iris," Mr. Pinner's strong problem play, in which L. J. Rodriguez presents Jeanne Towler for an engagement Monday night at the New Masonic Theatre as the star, a stern reviewer of the drama has concluded that neither man or woman could be worse for seeing the piece, as it is a warning against self-indulgence, sordidness and luxury, which fairly burns itself into one's memory. "Iris" has been more talked about, probably, than any dramatic production that has been seen in the United States for many years. It is said to be unlike any of Mr. Pinner's other plays, in that it is probably too true to life. Seats can be reserved at Waters, Friday morning.

MASON—POWERS.

Go to the Oaks Meat Market for the best Canned Meats.

The State fair for the colored people in progress this week in Raleigh is said to be very successful. The attendance is good and all exhibits there are of a high order of excellence.

Attention is called to the advertisements of local merchants in the columns of the Journal. Remember the local merchant is entitled to first consideration by every citizen who intends buying goods of any kind.

Everything seems to favor the liquor seller. The Raleigh dispensary had a big run of business during Fair week, the weather being hot and dry, and productive of an unsatisfying thirst for beer. If it had not been hot, it would have been cold enough for whiskey.

When once liberated within your system, it produces a most wonderful effect. It's worth one's last dollar to feel the pleasure of life that comes by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. F. S. Duffy.
