JUST SO.

After Election Remark Expecting Roosevelt's Election.

Republicans Got 2,000 in Wilkes. Other Political Features of Election and Prophecies.

Leave For Trip to Mexico. Pas tor Re-signs.

Raleigh, Nov. 10.—Everybody took the election very quietly here. As one prominent man remarked there were no headaches or heartaches last night or this morning. Governor Aycock returned from Goldsboro this morning. He said that while he expected Roosevelt to be elected he expected Parker to carry New York state and certainly did not expect a slump like this one. When asked what he thought of North Carolina he replied: "She's all right. There is nothing the matter with North Carolina. You can always count on her to turn out all right."

One prominent man said he expected the next president to be a socialist, and a few minutes after this was said a telegram came to your correspondent from a Chicago paper, ordering the vote given Eugene Debs, socialist, for president, in North Carolina.

One of the happiest men was deputy U S Marshal Sharp of Wilson county who came in this morning, all smiles, and said: "My town, Kim City, gave 140 votes for Roosevelt, the first time such a thing ever happened. All were cast by white men. No negro attempted to register and not one was around the polls."

Glenn, nominee for Governor, will run away ahead of Parker in the voting, while Roosevelt will run away ahead of Harris, the Republican nominee for Governor. Some Democrats voted for Roosevelt, and he got a lot of the independent votes, mill operatives, etc.

The Republicans were quite jubilant at the 2,000 majority they got in Wilkes, and at the hundred majority they got in Stanley. Telegrams to State chairman Simmons this morning said Dare had elected Etherage Democrat, to the House by about 50 majority, but that the county ticket was doubtful. The Republicans carried Sampson, of course aided by their friends the Populists by 500 majority. They claim it by 800. Gates county went Democratic by 900 and Columbus by 800 to 750.

Dr and Mrs D H Abbott left today for Mexico, to be absent a month, traveling through that country with the rail way commissioners of the various States, who have left St Louis on a special train for this tour. None of the corporation commissioners of this State make this trip, strange to say. They miss a most delightful tour of a wonderful country. It is a pity for them to miss such an opportunity.

The Supreme court today took up the docket of appeals from the 11th district. Among the attorneys present are O B Watson, Clement Masly, R P Taylor, Oxford, William B Rodman of Charlotte.

Now that the election is over people will settle down to business and there will be some news in the Capitol. A lot of people don't want to talk much about politics. One man was asked if Cleveland had been nominated would he have been elected and said yes, with a whoop while another, a very prominent man said in reply to the same question that Cleveland would have shared the fate of Parker, and intimated that Bryan was the only man who could be a winner. One man said the real trouble was that the Democratic National managers were second class men, and that Gorman was the only first class man among them, while the Republicans are putting in the very ablest men they can possibly find.

Rev M W Butler, for five years pastor of the Christian church here has resigned to become Editor of the Young People's Worker, and Secretary of the Sunday School department of the Southern Christian Church.

THE STATE ELECTIONS

Returns on Congressmen And Majority Vote Conflicting.

The Journal had specials from the western section of the State yesterday, mostly on the Congressional results.

In the tenth district Gudgeer received a majority over Ewart of 1160, against a majority of 187 in 1902.

In the fifth, W W Kitchen's majority over Reynolds was given at 2,000 to 4,000, against 8 803 in 1902.

In the ninth Webb's majority is estimated at over 3,000, in 1902 it was 5,500.

In the eighth, the latest last night from Charlotte was that democrats claimed Newland's election by 288 majority. Blackburn's friends claim that these figures are not correct, and that Blackburn is elected. The vote is very close but official count is expected to give it to Newland. In 1902 the district was democratic by 1,433. Chairman Simmons claims Democratic majority in North Carolina is 50,000.

AFTER THE CYCLONE.

The Post Mortem and Inquest of the Great Political Killing.

Again the people have spoken and the Powers that were continue to be the Powers that are. In the words of the immortal Nelson, "we have met the enemy and we are theirs." The election was quiet, but the effect it produced was not conducive to the most pleasurable thoughts among those who represented the minority party. It was a signal that the like of which has not occurred since U S Grant defeated Horace Greeley over 20 years ago.

Every Northern State gave Roosevelt an enormous majority; even the States which were thought to be doubtful and consequently to have a Democratic leaning came out bold and flatfooted for the opposing party. There was an increase in the Republican Congressional representation in almost every State.

The result in New York was the most surprising. With many things to favor Democracy in that State especially the election of the State ticket, it was a rude jolt to have it give Roosevelt the phenomenal majority of 185,000. It had been the fear among many leading politicians of the Republican party of that State that their candidate, Higgins would lose even if the State did carry for Roosevelt. And although he did run he had his ticket he was elected by the magnificent majority of 85,000. So it was in other States where it seemed that Democracy had a clench in view of disensions among the Republicans. Those States in every case either held their own or gave increased majorities. Notable among those States were Michigan, Ohio, Illinois, Wisconsin and Indiana. They not only gave a very large vote to Roosevelt but elected their State ticket by handsome majorities.

In North Carolina the result shows the apathy that has existed all through the campaign. In some districts the vote suffered very materially by the stay at home element. In others the fairy tale of prosperity had considerable influence as was seen in increased votes of the Republican party. The latter cause and the Watts bill incident are attributed to be the causes of the defection in the usually large Democratic majorities given in this State.

Coming down to the more local part of the campaign, we must say that the Democratic party did splendidly in the support of their ticket. The third congressional district returned Hon. C. R. Thomas to the National House of Representatives by the very substantial majority of 5000 votes over his opponent, Judge W B O B Robinson. He is to be congratulated for his remarkable campaign. He ran ahead of his ticket in all the counties of the district.

Messrs Ward and Arrendell, candidates for the State Senate also made a brilliant canvass and received practically the unanimous vote of their party in Craven, Carteret, Jones, Onslow, Lenoir, Duplin and Greene counties.

It was an election that was a record breaker in announcing the result at an early hour. As early as 8 o'clock telegrams began to come and they occurred at frequent intervals.

It was plain to see from the contents of the dispatches that the hope of Parker winning was a fiction one. The local members of the party gathered at the Court House to hear the returns and hope against hope until about 10 o'clock and then some waited until later to get how bad the rout would be.

The Journal was unable to secure entirely accurate figures on the result in this county and district. The canvassing board will meet at the Court House today at which meeting the figures will be corrected and made official. We will publish the result tomorrow.

TWO GREATEST MENAGERIES UNITED.

Rarest Wild Beasts With Interesting Histories

No one competent to express an opinion of the subject ever questioned the claim that Adam Forepaugh's menagerie contained the biggest and rarest collection of wild beasts ever moved by rail or rail with that of Sells Brothers such a close second in cost and magnitude as to make the rivalry between them highly interesting. From Madison Square Garden, New York, to Melbourne, Australia, the surpassing result of combining these two travelling zoological gardens is well known. It may be incidentally mentioned that in the last named city value and interest were added to this living aggregation by the purchase there of the enormous tiger-forming a notable feature of its public zoological garden. One of these terrible creatures was shot seven times with a Winchester, at close range, in Maysville, Ky, in the effort to rescue a foot-hold keeper from its massive jaws. Some idea of its strength and vitality may be gathered from the fact that it still lives, with four balls in its body, three others having passed entirely through it. Among the recent additions are to be seen the extra ordinary and unprecedented number of fourteen-year-old, full grown Polar Bears, a single specimen of which was heretofore been regarded as an exceptionally rare feature.

Another ponderous amphibious attraction is the biggest known living Nil Hippopotamus, who, since the Sells Brothers bought him and his late mate, twenty five years ago, has grown from a blessed baby of five hundred weight to tip the scales at four tons, and strange to relate, though naturally a tender tropical creature, has become acclimated to live long and prosper in water whose temperature would just suit the fourteen Polar Bears. The double herds of biggest, littlet and brightest elephants—whose united ages it has been computed would reach from the beginning of the first great pyramid to the completion of the last skyscraper—the Sultan droves of giganitic and sacred camels and dromedaries, the great double dens filled with an intercontinental congress of splendid specimens of everything worth seeing that roars, chatters, collis, crushes, ravages, rambles, runs or flies, will also be here on November 17th, and you will have a full hour in which to inspect them and enjoy the popular promise concert by Prof Merrick's fine military and aerie band, before the brilliant circus and Hippodromatic performances are announced.
