IMPORTANT CASE

Involving Constitutionality of Corporation Commission,

Facts From Truckers Eastern Carolina. Republicans Don't Think Blackburn Controls

All Patronage Declines Special Mastership.

Raleigh, Nov 18.—Prof W F Massey has accepted an invitation to deliver an address January 12th before the board of agriculture of New Jersey on the development of the trucking industry of North Carolina. He will go to the eastern part of the State soon and make an inspection, using the facts gathered in his address.

Some of the Republicans are smiling at the statements that Spencer Blackburn is to control all the North Carolina political patronage. They say he will very probably control it in the 5th district, but not elsewhere. They admit that in case of a dispute he may be called in as a referee. They do not doubt that he and State chairman Rollins will pull together.

Today the Methodist Orphanage here received $400, the proceeds of the sale of land in Alabama bequeathed by a Mr. Cross. The orphanage is nearly ready for occupancy, though there is no heating plant. A temporary plant will be installed for this winter. It seems to be very hard to get a good one. Everybody recommends some particular plant and proves that all other plants are absolutely worthless.

Before Judge Farnell today there was a hearing of the case of the Southern railway against the Greensboro Coal & Ice Company and the corporation commission. It came before him on the report of standing master Shepherd, who found as to the facts, that the refusal of the railway to place certain cars of coal on the side track at the company's ice plant was cause $146 of demurrage was unpaid, and that had this been paid the car would have been delivered on the side track. The case is very interesting indeed. The railway is endeavoring to test the constitutionality of the entire act creating a commission and it denies the right of the latter to take any action whatever regarding freights from any point without the State to any point within it. E J Justice appeared for the Ice & Coal Company, Richard H Battle for the corporation commission and F H Beabee, William A Henderson and J O Northrop for the Southern railway.

Eugene S Martin declines to serve as a special master in the matter of the suit of Jacobs against the Fayetteville & Wilmington Steamship Co. Martin was appointed Wednesday by Judge Farnell.

Not long since your correspondent suggested to the Anti-Saloon people that they would find some valuable information in Record Book No 10 in the office of Revenue Collector. A member of the league was here today and quickly found that two men in his county had paid the $20 government tax. This is prima facie evidence; that they are selling whiskey and violating the Watta laws. One man in the county was caught and had to pay $3000 and was also closed up.

Prof Graven has secured a number of mezzo tints and carbon pictures from a Philadelphia Art firm which will be used to hang in the rooms of the new Graded School. They are copies of paintings by the old masters and are themselves pictures of great merit. They will make a fine adornment.

The Exact Thing Required for Constipation.

"As a certain purgative and stomach purifier Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets seem to be the exact thing required, strong enough for the most robust, yet mild enough and safe for children and without that terrible griping so common to most purgatives," says R S Webster & Co., Uxora, Ontario, Canada. For sale by all Druggists.

News in a Nutshell.

The nurses of the American Red Cross Society have returned from Japan. Their duties performed in the hospitals there have won the highest praise from the surgeons of Japan.

The House of Representatives defeated the bill to abolish capital punishment, 158 to 88 in Vermont.

Mary M. Rodgers, of Bennington, Vt., convicted for the murder of her husband, must hang.

Judge Alton B. Parker, recent Democratic candidate for President has opened a law office in New York.

Commander Booth-Tucker, who for the past eight and a half years has been at the head of the Salvation Army in this country, sailed for Europe.

The trial of Nan Patterson, the actress for the murder of Cesar Young, the bookmaker, was begun in New York.

Admiral Goodrich has been cabled orders to hold his squadron at Panama. A resolution demanding the presence of the vessels, is believed threatening. At the State Department it is stated that the conspirators' evident purpose was to seize the Government and get the portion of the $10,000,000 paid the republic by the United States, which still remains unexpended.

SHORT PASSING EVENTS.

Seed cotton sold on the local market yesterday at 24 cents.

Eugene Tucker, a student of the Graded School has shown a remarkable proficiency as an artist. He has had no teacher in painting and recently undertook to copy a Holland scene. He made a very creditable picture and it is an effort of which he may well be proud. He shows great promise of attaining note as an artist.

There were sales on the local cotton market yesterday at 92 1/2 to 95. Sixty sales were sold.

Mr William Dunn is the owner of a fine automobile of the runabout pattern. It is propelled by electricity and made by the Pope Motor Car Works at Indianapolis. It is known as the Waverly Motor Car.

The Forepaugh and Sells circus did not exhibit at Greenville at all yesterday but went direct to Tarboro where their last performance of the season is given today. The Sells Bros portion is to be sold.

Local merchants could hardly handle their retail trade on Thursday, circus day. Some stores were so crowded that the clerks could not wait upon customers fast enough to suit the buyers.

Hackburn and Willitt shipped between 300 and 500 baskets of lettuce on the steamer Nense last night.

The condition of Frank Abbott continues to improve. His physician and friends are hopeful for his recovery.

Hardy Bryant, the negro who was shot by his brother, "Big Eph," Thursday evening, is reported as improving and may recover.

Mayor Ellis issued orders to the police to bring all bar room loafers into court. If they have no visible means of support he will endeavor to find something for them to do. He is waging relentless war on all who are voluntarily idle.

Brushes body and brain, strengthens, soothes, cures while you sleep. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. Keep you well, keeps you well, 35 cents. Tea or Tablets. F S Duffy.

The remarkable low temperatures continue, and for more than a week the range has been in the thirties, with ice formed on low places several days and heavy frosts the other mornings. Yesterday the low temperature was 24 degrees.

Soldier Duffy has sufficiently recovered from his illness to attend to his duties as State's prosecutor and was at court today. He was suffering from an acute attack of kidney trouble and experienced much pain.—Kinston Free Press 19th.

The telegraphic dispatches report that J. W. Nicholson, inspector of steamboat boilers at the port of Howland, has been suspended. Mr Nicholson was chief engineer of the steamer Nense for several years and is well known in this city.

The revival meetings at the First Baptist church are developing great interest under the direction of the pastor Rev O C Cox. He will preach a sermon to young men tomorrow (Sunday) night instead of tonight as previously announced.

Girls expect remedies to work miracle in a day's time. Beautifying changes come slow. Keep on taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 'Twill make the face fair and blooming, 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. F S Duffy.

A very pleasant phlegm by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and produce no griping or other unpleasant effects. Sold by all Druggists.

Needed Time to Think. Beerholm Tree tells that recently, while playing golf, he had a particularly silent and stupid looking caddy, who followed close at his heels without saying a word. But since silence sometimes speaks louder than words the actor was nervous and, after a particularly bad drive which seemed to demand an apology, exclaimed, "Did you ever see a worse player on these links?" The caddy said nothing. A still worse drive from the next tee called forth the same query, followed by the same silence. Finally, "I say, did you ever see a worse player?" The caddy stared silently for a few moments. "I heard what ye said richt enough," he at last slowly replied. "I'm just thinking."

Famous Japanese Warrior.

During the present war in the far east no one of the military leaders has won more fame than has General Baron Oku, head of Japan's Second Army, now operating against Kurapatkin.

At the beginning of hostilities in Manchuria General Oku commanded the army investing Port Arthur and showed masterly skill in landing his forces on the Regent's Sword peninsula. He cut the railway communication between Port Arthur and the Russian headquarters at Liaoyang, seized Kinchau and captured Nanchan hill in one of the bloodiest charges in the history of warfare.

In the recent battles in Manchuria he has been facing Kurapatkin's right wing and more than held his own against the terrific onslaughts of the flower of Russia's soldiery. General Oku first won fame in the Japanese rebellion of 1877, when his defense of the castle of Kumamoto was considered masterly. He also distinguished himself in the Chino-Japanese war of ten years ago.

Swimming For Soldiers.

Many valuable lives would certainly be saved annually if swimming formed a portion of the national curriculum for soldiers. During the bathing season, there were several fatal accidents to soldiers whose lives would have been saved could they have swum a few yards. During the South African war there was a case of a retreating detachment which could not fetch a boat from the other side on an unfordable stream, although no enemy but the water offered opposition. A couple of fair swimmers could have performed the service with ease, and the river being narrow, the little command would have been ferried over before the pursuing Boers arrived on the scene.—London Globe.

The World's Mail Service.

The aggregate annual letter and newspaper mail of the world amounts to 22,500,000,000 pieces, of which 8,500,000,000 go through the United States mails. We have 75,000 postoffices and 800,000 miles of postal routes, with a yearly travel over them amounting to 500,000,000 miles. The service costs over $150,000,000 a year. The receipts now almost equal the expenditures and have doubled in the last ten years. In 1890 the total receipts were $8,000,000, which was considered an extraordinary sum. But for $22,000,000 spent in establishing the rural free delivery, which now serves one-seventh of the population of the United States, the postoffice would be self-sustaining.—Hancock.

Member of Congress—Do you know your sermon on covetousness last Sunday grievously offended and disgusted Brother Pierce?

The Rev. Mr. Mowatt Lightly—Aha! I shall have to tell my wife that—it's a good one on her. She contended all the way home from church that morning that there wasn't a man in the audience who paid the slightest attention to the sermon.—Chicago Tribune.
