Judge Council Sentences Bryan the Mur derer Upon Submission to Murder in Second Degree.

The attention of the court was taken up a large part of the day yesterday with the trial of the civil case of Meredith vs the Seaboard Air Line. The case was for damages on account of the delay in the shipment of freight on the part of the rallway from Charlotte to this city. The damages asked for were $580. 'The plaintiff was non saited and gave notice of appeal.

Mr R A Nunn, attorney for John Hen Raleigh, Nov 25 .- Among the callers ry Bryan, the fratricide, appeared before at the office of Governor Aycock today the judge and stated that the defendant desired to aubmit to the charge of murwas Mr John H. Cutler, of Asheder in the second degree instead of havville, formerly of Maine, who was just ing a jury trial as he had formerly reback from a visit to that State. He told quested. The Judge heard the arguthe Governor that the Maine people ment by the lawyers for the defense and were delighted with the speeches the also gave Bryan a chance to make a Governor made there in September, and that as a result a number of them are coming to North Carolina. One family showed that the murder was premedita-

Testimony of the mayor and police was that Bryan's character was bad. He had been arrested several times and was a mischlef maker at all times.

In sentencing the prisoner, Judge Council told him that he did well to submit to second degree murder which however unpleasant the consequences are in all their beauty of bloom. The that were attendant upon a crime of day was greatly enjoyed here; by the that nature it was immensely better than putting fate in hands of a jury that would almost certainly convict him of murder in the first degree for which the

He sentenced Bryan to twenty-five way it was a great day here, and the good conduct and that alone he might be able to cut short the full term of his im would be executed to its full extent.

Bryan was to have been given a jury trial today.

Yesterday he played a brilliant game and desperate'y endeavored to win. Twice he tried for goals from placement without success and finally by a brilliant run outside of his own line, he succeeded in scoring what was thought to be the winning touchdown. Time and again he was thrown hard and was thought to be down and out, and once an effort was made by his own men to induce him to retire from the game, but he braced up and finished the contest. He was the mainstey of his team, as Council was for Virginia, and played the most spectacular and brilliant individual game ever seen here.
