GERMANY'S IMPERIALISM.

Baltimore Sun.

Herr Bebel finds in the vast expense caused by the prolonged rebellion of the natives in Southwest Africa a text for bitter speeches against the "world-power" idea that has animated the German Government for some time past.

Germany is having an experience like our own, her navy making it impossible to balance expenditure with income. Chancellor von Buelow's answer to the Socialist leader is that the expense of the navy is a trifle to a country like Germany, where over twice as much is spent for drink.

The Key That Unlocks the Door to Long Living.

The men of eighty five and ninety years of age are not the rotund well fed, but thin, spare men who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age, will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to cleanse and invigorate his stomach and regulate his liver and bowels.

He-I don't think your brother Jorh likes me. She-Oh, I'm sure he does. Why, he told me today you were a regular brick; he went further, in fact, and said you were a regular gold brick.

An Emergency Medicine.

For sprains, bruises, burns, scalds and similar injuries, there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It soothes the wound and not only gives instant relief from pain, but causes the parts to heal in about one third the time required by the usual treatment.

Planable. Jessie-Jack, why do doughnuts always have holes in the middle? Jack (wistfully)-I s'pose 'cause if they had 'em on the outside nobody'd know they were them.

"She said I was a regular Venus de Milo." "Yes; she told me that you had just no arms at all."-Houston Post.

A Costly Mistake

Blisters are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be wrong if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills for Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Headache, Liver or Bowel troubles. They cure gently yet thoroughly.

A Possibility.

He-If you don't intend to break your engagement with me why do you allow young Richman to make you such valuable presents? She-My father advised me to accept them. He-He said? Why? She-He said that if I married you they might come to hand.

THE JOURNAL'S CORRECTION. The late issue of the Journal contained an error in the name of the proprietor. The correct name is Charles L. Stevens.

THE PEOPLE ALL

Some words are being used in every one's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found who will deny that NEWBORN'S HERPESICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPESICIDE means a destroyer or killer of "Herpes."

HUMOR OF THE HOUR

An In-law Relation. There is a certain small lady in Washington who has distinct and original ideas of her own. Not long ago the governess who presides over the nursery destinies of this young lady and her even younger sister informed them that their parents were soon to celebrate their tenth wedding anniversary, and the tots accordingly began to "save up" for a present.

Mr. Bug-Yes, that's the great Bug in it. He was the first to discover that insect powder is good to eat.

A Question of Courts.

The evidence being taken before Special Master George Green in the Admiralty Proceedings of the Board of Councils, the case of the "Helen" for injuries to the crew of the "Helen" was concluded on Tuesday, and the case decided by Judge Parker in an opinion on the question of jurisdiction, which was read by Mr. W. W. Clark, attorney for the crew of the "Helen."

"MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME"

The story of the Origin of This Famous Old Song. The song "My Old Kentucky Home" was written by Stephen Collins Foster, a resident of Pennsylvania, while he and his sister were on a visit to Judge John Rowan, a short distance east of Bardonia, Ky. One beautiful morning while the slaves were at work in the corn field and the sun was shining with a mighty splendor on the waving grass, first giving it the color of a light red, then changing it to a golden hue, there was seated upon a bench in front of the Rowan homestead two young people, a brother and a sister. High up in the tree was a mocking bird warbling its sweet notes.

"The sun shines bright in the old Kentucky home, 'tis summer, the daisies are gay; The corn top's rise, and the meadow's in the bloom. While the birds make music all the day."

"The negroes had laid down their axes and axes, the little tots had placed themselves behind the large sheltering trees, while the old black women were peeping around the corner of the house. The faithful old horse dog never took his eyes off the young singers. Everything was still; not even the stirring of the leaves seemed to break the wonderful silence. Again the brother and sister took hold of the remaining notes and sang in sweet accents:

"Weep no more, my lady; oh, weep no more today; We'll sing a song for the old Kentucky home, For our old Kentucky home far away. 'A few more days to tote the weary load, No matter, 'twill never be light, A few more days till we tetter on the road, Then, my old Kentucky home, good night."

"The negroes had laid down their axes and axes, the little tots had placed themselves behind the large sheltering trees, while the old black women were peeping around the corner of the house. The faithful old horse dog never took his eyes off the young singers. Everything was still; not even the stirring of the leaves seemed to break the wonderful silence. Again the brother and sister took hold of the remaining notes and sang in sweet accents:

"I was studying once in Berlin," he continued to the students, "and we were drilled in some of the great oratorical charges of Napoleon, and the one of the finest discourses in the world. I had never sung a note in my life and refrained from taking part because I was afraid of putting the others out of pitch."

"After three rehearsals he came to me, saying, 'Young man, why do you not sing?' 'Oh, I replied, 'I cannot sing a note and would only put the others out.' 'Bah!' returned the great man. 'In the chorus your voice will be grand. I have missed it already and shall look for you at the next rehearsal.' 'So, you see,' he said, 'that when we work together every one counts, and the man who does not take part is either overdone or lazy, both very bad faults.'-Success Magazine.

OLD SOUTHERN REMEDIES. What is one man's food is another man's poison, but it is wonderful how an old southerner that the following remedies will benefit seven out of ten persons: For cholera try buttermilk. It will kill desire for whisky. Why will greatly relieve dropsy. Calomel applied to cuts or sores relieves pain and heals wounds. Not too much and don't get wet. Keroline will cure sore throat. Constipation should try it. Take a tablespoonful at a time. Hold nose. Nothing head in cold water every morning will prevent one from taking cold easily. Retain constipation by tea applied between shoulders and back of head will stop bleeding of the nose. Balsam apple applied to dog bite will cure it. Keep out of cold in all directions. Onions will turn black where contagious diseases exist and disinfect the room.

A Guaranteed Cure For Piles. Rubbing, Bleeding, Swelling or Protruding Piles. Don't get relief unless you use FARGO OINTMENT. It is necessary to use a mixture of low long standing. It is a cure. If your druggist hasn't it send him to please and it will be forwarded post paid by Fargo Medicine Co., Duluth, Minn.

Grip Quickly Racked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of a grippe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. B. Eggleston of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints a-tingle, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip. These Tablets promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold or attack of the grip. For sale by F. S. Duffy.

Paid to Disappear Music. J. S. Duss, the bandmaster, was disturbed in his office by the entrance of a man who wished a position in the orchestra. Mr. Duss was in need of men, but when the surrounding air became charged with the visitor's alcoholic breath he declared that there were no vacancies. The applicant insisted, however, that a date be fixed when it would be advisable for him to call again in regard to any prospective opening. He received no encouragement. Next day a friend of the disappointed applicant interceded and received the report: "Men in my employ disperse music. When it is desired to fill a hall with the aroma of a brewery it is cheaper to open a keg of beer than to have it tooted through an expensive horn at artists' rates."-Brooklyn Eagle.

The Japanese Mint. One of the earliest western institutions established in Japan was the Imperial Mint at Osaka, and it has been one of the most successful and useful. In the convention which was signed at Yeddo in 1868 between the representatives of the Japanese government and those of the foreign powers the establishment of a mint was stipulated. The Japanese government purchased from the British government a mint which had been established at Hongkong, but which the latter had resolved to discontinue. The mint is now managed entirely by Japanese.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS.

Forty million bottles of August Flower sold in the United States since its introduction! And the demand for it is still growing! Isn't that a fine showing of success? Don't it prove that August Flower has had unflinching success in the cure of indigestion, and dyspepsia - the two greatest enemies of health and happiness? Does it not afford the evidence that August Flower is a sure specific for all stomach and intestinal disorders - that it has proved itself the best of all liver regulators? August Flower has a matchless record of over thirty-five years in curing the ailing millions of those distressing complaints - a success that is becoming wider in its scope every day, at home and abroad, as the fame of August Flower spreads. Trial bottles 25c; regular size 75c. For sale by all druggists. F. S. Duffy.
