APPROACHING CEREMONIES.

Of Governor's Inauguration Being Determined.

Death at Soldiers' Home. Sentiment Favors Reformatory. Opinions on Liquor and Divorce Legislation. Kinston's Mall Delivery. Mills Lumber Co's. Debt
Schedules

At the Capitol today a good deal was going on. Outside the vast front workmen were building the platform for the inauguration ceremonies, which if the weather is favorable will be held outdoors. Inside the rotunda was being electrically arranged and also decorated, so there was plenty of stir. The very cold weather of course is a drawback, this morning being about the coldest of the winter.

At the Soldiers' Home yesterday afternoon one of the inmates, H. P. Tharrington, died very suddenly. He was at the church services, which ended at 6 o'clock and an hour and a half later was sitting in a chair in his room, talking to his roommate when suddenly he fell over and died in a moment.

Chairman T. B. Womack of the Code Commission says the second volume will be completed by the public printer tomorrow. It is a small volume as compared with the first one.

In an interview with Representative Winborne of the House regarding important matters he said that the sentiment there is in favor of a reformatory for young criminals is very strong. It is learned from the head of the Kings Daughters of North Carolina that the Order is entirely willing to give to the State the site presented to the Order for a reformatory at Lakeview, Moore county.
This site was presented to the Kings Daughters last spring, and the location is very fine.

Representative Winborne was asked what seemed to be the opinion in regard to liquor legislation and replied that it seemed to be to allow the Wills Law to remain in force, merely curing a few defects in it, as that law appears to have a very large measure of public favor, and Democratic opposition to it has become very small. In response to an inquiry about what would be done in regard to divorces, Mr. Winborne said there were a good many views on that question and said that while some members warmly favored a sweeping law, limiting divorces to biblical grounds, some wanted the open door. He expressed the opinion that whatever bill was passed it would be a sort of compromise and that there would be nearly a hard fight on the divorce question. Some members are heard to say that they want anybody who desires a divorce to have one.

Examinations have been held at Kinston for Free Delivery Mail Carriers.
There will be three of them and they will begin work at 6:30 a. m. and end at 5 p. m., unusual hours, but made necessary by the way the mails arrive. There will be a delivery to the whole town as late as 8 p. m.

It is learned at the U. S. Marshal's office that while directly after the Wills Law went into effect there was a great falling off in business, that now the latter is back at about the old amount.
It is said by the officers that for a while the law would report the location of flood distilleries and that one sheriff told the deputy marshal that if he saw a still in operation he would report it.

A Midnight Marriage.

The Henry F. Willard Co., presented to a large audience at the new Masonic Theatre the favorite society drama entitled "A Midnight Marriage." The play was supported by Mr. Chas.
Peruchi a talented comedian who has already delighted more than one New Bern audience, supported not to say enthused by the dainty and popular little comedienne, Mabel Gypson. The parts taken by both stars were well received and the others of the troupe did well.
The company will appear tonight in the new play "A Romance Above the O-ke."

Fire on Barn Street

The fire department was called out Monday morning at about 3 o'clock on account of the burning of the lodge building of the Good Samaritan a local colored order.
The building was located near the corner of Barn and New streets, had been built over twenty years and belonged to the order.
Numerous efforts were made to save the paraphernalia and books of the lodge, but were of little avail. Everything being about a complete loss, which will approximate $1,200.

SHORT PASSING EVENTS.

Remember the exhibition of pictures at the Graded School each afternoon from 1:30 to 4:30 o'clock.

A ladies polka-dotted belt was picked up in the theatre Saturday night. The owner can obtain the property by calling at this office.

Sheriff Lon Taylor, of Jones county, was in the city yesterday and settled with the State for Jones county's taxes for the year 1904.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Centenary church will hold a meeting in the church parlors this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Mr. J. Leo Burrus has accepted a position with the Old Dominion Steamship Company at Norfolk, and left for that city last evening. He will be Purser on their steamer Hampton. Mr.
Burrus' many friends in New Bern wish him success in his new position.

The Journal takes pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of several convenient desk calendars through the courtesy of Mr. John Timberlake. The calendars advertise the Fidelity Mutual Insurance Company, represented in New Bern by Mr. Timberlake.

Some fine trout were offered on this market yesterday. They were of the speckled variety and were in good demand, going at fancy prices. The writer was on New River a few days ago and learned that trout were scarcer than usual, and were rated higher than ever before.

The latest proposition for a petition to the General Assembly from this good old City of Elms, is one to grant an election to forbid the sale of cigarettes, cigars and tobacco. Certain good citizens who are opposed to the proposed dispensary, say that instead of compromising with evil influences, that they are in the fight to the finish, and expect to antagonize the sale and use of any and everything that does not contribute to the upbuilding of the physical and moral condition of man.

Attention has several times been called to the nuisance of persons clinging to the steps of the cars on the A. C.
L. road entering this city. It's a great big nuisance and should be abated. A few nights ago it was noticed that several persons who desired to get off at the A. & N. C. station had great difficulty in doing so, several ladies being compelled to remain until the other station was reached. Of course it's all right to remain on the train until one arrives at the proper station, but in New Bern all the hack drivers congregate at the A. & N. C., and one can scarcely be persuaded to go elsewhere for a passenger. The night in question was very rainy, the ladies referred to had no escort and they would have been compelled to wade around indefinitely had it not been for a gentleman who knew the custom of the hack drivers and who had forethought enough to alight and procure a conveyance in time.

Farmers, Wake Up and Organize!

At the county meeting of farmers last Saturday the First township did not send a delegation.

If you have not already organized meet next Saturday at 12 o'clock at Vanceboro and organize. We must stand together now, or fall together.
We can by being thoroughly in touch with the Protective Association, thwart the speculators' plans and tide over this iniquitous slump in our staple product. No farmer can afford to be indifferent at this time. They are moving all over the cotton belt, and a joint action with all concerned will surely bring the needed change. Meet and elect a chairman, secretary and executive committee. Your chairman is to be a member of the county executive committee and should be a man fully alive to the situation.

I will meet you if possible at Vanceboro next Saturday at 12 o'clock and hope every farmer in the township and your best business men of Vanceboro will meet and study the situation and act in concert. You will see from the New Bern Journal what our action was at the county meeting. And let the county, State and whole South act together and a victory will be ours for years to come.

Yours for union,
D. LANE.

C. C. Henderson Dead.

It is with deep regret that we chronicle the death of our young friend, Mr. C.
C. Henderson, Jr., who died at his father's residence near Pataokeville this morning, January 4th, of pneumonia. He was just in the prime of young manhood, being about 15 years old. He was the eldest son of Mr. M. L. Henderson.
He loved father, mother, and brother and a host of friends and relatives to mention his untimely death.

To the bereaved family we extend our heart felt sympathy, and point them to the Lamb of God who taketh away the sin of the world.

We mourn not for those who have no hope
For our departed friend But trust his spirit is in our God Who doeth all things well.

Written by his friend and neighbor F. H. FOX,
Jan. 10, 1905.

CUTICURA

Soap, Ointment and Pills the World's Greatest Skin Cures.

PRICE THE SET $1

Complete Treatment for Every Humour, from Pimples to Scrofula.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalded head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants and the anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter, and salt rheum, all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy, have made them the standard skin cures and humour remedies of the civilized world.

The grandest testimonial that can be offered the Cuticura remedies is their world-wide sale, due to the personal recommendations of those who have used them. From a small beginning in the simplest form, against prejudice and opposition, against mounted hosts, countless rivals, and trade indifference, Cuticura remedies have become the greatest curatives of their time, and, in fact, of all time, for nowhere in the history of medicine is to be found another approaching them in popularity and sale. In every clime and with every people they have met with the same reception. The confines of the earth are the only limits to their growth. They have conquered the world.

LEGISLATIVE BILLS INTRODUCED

Severe Penalties for Violations of Law —Barbers Must All Use Clean Towels—No Dead Beating Railways.

Raleigh, Jan. 9.—In the Senate today bills were introduced to punish more severely attempted felonious assault upon females; to amend the charter of Salem by permitting it to issue bonds to ten per cent of the total valuation of real and personal property.
Representative Stronach, of Wake, introduced a novel bill in the House, making it a misdemeanor for any merchant to make false representation about his goods, either oral or in advertisements. Harrison introduced the most amusing bill of the session, this to make it a misdemeanor for customers to use soiled towels on customers, or to neglect to cleanse shaving utensils after each shave.
Other bills introduced in the House were to make the minimum amount of fourth-class pensions $20 annually, the amount being now only $14; and to put the offence of dead-beating on railway trains within the jurisdiction of magistrates.
