TO PROTECT EAST-ERN CAROLINA

What Winborne Says His Bill Will Do.
Inspection Law Bill. Coldest Day of Season.

Raleigh, Jan. 25.—In an interview with representative Winborne, the introducer of the bill to amend the Constitution so that after each race, white and black had been provided with four month schools, there may be discrimination, he said that while everybody really favored the amendment some were afraid to change the present status of things, thinking it in politics. That his amendment was very different from the ones proposed heretofore, giving white taxes for white schools and negro taxes for negro schools. It was nothing of that kind. He declared that unless something of this kind were done, the Democrats will lose eastern North Carolina. Out of the white voters in that section of the State in the last election, the Democrats got only three in five, while the Republicans fell off a third as compared with what it was four years ago, a great proportion of the whites simply staying away from the polls. He says that all through the eastern part of the State that white voters are waiting to see what the legislature would do on liquor and public school questions. He says that some of the people, he finds, want to defer to Northern sentiment, but there is nothing of this. Only three other States in the union have in their constitution such a provision regarding education as North Carolina now has.

Today the legislative committee of the State Firemen's Association met with Insurance Commissioner Young and Messrs Alex. Webb, and A. W. McAllister, representing respectively the North Carolina Home and the Greensboro group of four fire insurance companies. There were present J. D. McNeill, the president of the State Association and also the President of the National Association and chiefs F. N. Taylor of Greensboro, H. T. Day of Tarboro, A. H. Borden of Salisbury and C. C. Cooper of Reidsville, Walter Woolcott of Raleigh, W. M. Orr, of Charlotte. The committee is preparing amendments of the inspection and building laws, the purpose being to enforce the State law, which city and town authorities are ignoring. President McNeill spoke of the bill introduced in congress by the Pennsylvania representative to put all fire insurance matters under Federal supervision and said he was bitterly opposing this and said that he was going all over the United States making a fight against it as he regards it to be a dangerous measure.

This was the coldest day of the year, the temperature ranging under 12 degrees above zero with a very high wind last night it was quite severe.

Today the bondholders of the State Agricultural Society which conducts the State fair met here and arranged for the refunding of the $20,000 of bonds. These have borne 6 per cent interest, but are refunded at four. During the past six years, while Joseph E. Pogue, has been secretary, he has paid to the bondholders no less than $18,000, besides paying $1,000 of floating debt, all this having been done from the profits of the fairs. It is a remarkable piece of work. When he became Secretary six years ago the bonds were not saleable at over 50c on the dollar, while now none are for sale, being held as a valuable security.

A charter is granted the Bank of Southern Pine, capital stock $10,000.

BUSY WITH BILLS.

Jones and Craven Counties Have Bills Introduced.

Many Petitions on Divorce Matter—Married Women's Bill Falls—Squabble Over Treasurer Lacy's Relief Bill.—Relief for County Commissioners.

Special to Journal.
Raleigh, Jan. 25.—In Senate, petitions for repeal of all divorce laws came in from various religious bodies. Quakers commended anti-jug law. Bills were introduced to change time of holding court in 14th District; to amend act establishing graded schools at Hendersonville; to allow railroads to give passes to newspapers to pay for advertisements; to amend law preventing fire waste; to give illegitimate children right to inherit equally from their mother.

There was long discussion on the special order of Ward's bill allowing married women to make contracts although they were unmarried. Bill failed to pass by vote 20 to 23.

Bill regulating salaries of Judges was made special order for tomorrow. Bill to relieve board of agriculture to contribute to current expenses of Agricultural and Mechanical College was made special order for next Thursday. Bill allowing married women right to contract, which had failed to pass was at the last moment reconsidered and made special order for Friday.

In House were received reports from various State departments, showing number and salaries of clerks and employees. Bill was introduced by McNinch, to amend divorce law. Many memorials were presented against divorce laws, as asking for law against fraudulent obtaining goods.

The feature of the day was argument on bill to repeal one passed yesterday giving State Treasurer Lacy relief by saying him $374, which he paid State that amount having been stolen from him by Clerk William H. Marlow. A bill was introduced today by William after members had failed to be allowed to have their names go on a roll call vote. And some feeling ran high; Democrats in many cases joining with Republicans. Williams bill passed its second reading, on roll vote, 73 to 34 many members explaining their votes, and they passed third reading the large vote for creating surprise, and excitement, on both sides of House.

The House passed the bill relieving county commissioners from penalties for failure to audit accounts, as required by law. Bills were introduced to provide for partition of mineral interests, when they have been separated from land; to provide lien for purchase money of timber by mortgage; for State Reformatory; to repeal charter of the Carolina and Tennessee railroads; to appoint Magistrates in Jones county and regulate primary elections in Craven; to create county of Lee.

CZAR ESCAPES TO CRIMEA

Reports of Wrecking Palace Grand Duke Bergina.

London, Jan. 25.—An express arriving this morning says a dispatch from Moscow states the strikers in St. Petersburg have wrecked the palace of the Grand Duke Bergina. The czar is now reported hiding in Livadia, Crimea.

St. Petersburg, January 24.—Indications are that street fighting and open resistance to the government by the population will soon cease. Both are completely hopeless and there is nothing to be gained. Fresh sacrifices, however, and heroic martyr-like attempts to overthrow the existing regime will be abandoned in the reverse of the truth. They will grow and multiply throughout the empire. It is probable it will soon include unscrupulous and other violent forms of public demonstration to wreck vengeance on corrupt reforms and neutralization of their conditions.

MERCHANTS PURCHASE TAX

Uselessness Deduction of Committee To Strike From Revenue List.

Special to Journal.
Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 25.—The Senate and House committees on Finance are continuing their deliberations on the bill to amend the Merchants Purchase Tax. It is in accordance with a special recommendation of the State Auditor. The committee having passed the bill for a second

SOUTHERN PLANTERS CONVENTION

Great Meeting at New Orleans to Discuss Questions of Vital Importance

The Southern Interstate Cotton Convention now in session at New Orleans is composed of the representative business men and planters of the South. Probably never before was there so notable a body of southern men gathered in New Orleans to discuss matters so vital to their interests. The daily papers state that the first session of the convention closes with a unanimous declaration that the paramount question with the southern farmer was the reduction of acreage and the use of commercial fertilizers. It is estimated that 1,000 planters and business men interested in the production of cotton are present at the convention. Mr. M. D. Lane who represents Craven county at the convention telegraphed the Journal yesterday as follows:

We (the North Carolina delegation) arrived here safely. The southern farmers and business men are largely and only represented and a warm and enthusiastic convention is in session. I have hope for a solid organization. The North Carolina delegates in front rank are making formidable appearance.

It's bound to take place next Wednesday night.

Notice of Sale of Land
