OLD NEWSPAPERS 15 cents per 100 for sale at Journal office.

The Phenomenal Growth of One of New Bern's Leading Merchants, and the Way They Succeeded.

You can remember five years ago, when this firm occupied a small store across the street, with scarcely no stock, but with a sure foundation of honest goods at honest prices, for instance the same gold filled watches you had to then pay $25 to $30 for, they sell for $10 to $15 also you paid $1.50 for cleaning your watch, or a main-spring, they put the price at $1.00, also you had to pay 25 cents for a hand or glass; they put the price at 10 cents each, and we have abundant evidence that they now stand between the old high prices and the public today. Under the careful management of J. O. Baxter this business has grown to be one of the largest in Eastern North Carolina of its kind, because of an appreciative public, of fine goods at lowest consistent prices.

The groceries in the wagon were scattered around considerably and the wheel damaged but there was no injury to driver or horse.

The throwing of flour over people at the carnival is the limit. It is not only dangerous but ruinous to clothes. The confetti is bad enough, but the flour throwing ought to be stopped at once.

In spite of the cloudy and damp weather there was a large number out last night to look on and visit the several attractions offered by the carnival people.
