A COLD BLOODED MURDER.

Lenoir County Again The Scene of a Horrible Tragedy.

The dark criminal record of Lenoir county has been made darker and bloodier by a seemingly unprovoked murder committed four miles south of Kinston last Saturday night. The story of the affair which was given to the Journal by a gentleman from Kinston was as follows:

Three men, P. B. Worley and his sons Clem and F. T. Worley, were riding in a buggy to their home having been to Kinston. They stopped to open a stock gate and one of the boys got out and after opening the gate went to speak to the occupants of a buggy which had been driven up. The men were Ed. Waters and a man named Williams. Worley said, "I'll speak to you but I won't speak to that ——— with you he's a ——— coward."

Waters got out to resent the insult and the two came together and Waters was beaten, he got away from the man who pursued him and caught up with Waters and continued his beating. Worley was joined by his brother and when Waters saw that he was to be attacked by two he pulled his revolver and shot into the air twice to frighten them away. He broke away the second time and tried to escape them but the brothers kept after him and caught him a third time. Waters then emptied his revolver shooting on the ground. The brothers attacked him stabbed and beat him and left him with his neck broken as a consequence of his treatment. The father of the two men endeavored to join the fray, with his sons but was prevented by the man Williams.

The three men concerned in the murder were arrested yesterday. The people of Kinston were much excited over the affair and doubtless would have done violence to the men had they been caught on Sunday.

The trouble is said to be the result of a grudge which was a trivial circumstance happening at a dance at Worley's house a year ago. At that time one of the Worleys and Waters had a fight and Waters whipped Worley. There has been bad blood between them ever since.

UNITED STATES COURT CONVENES

The Federal Tribunal Begins Its Proceedings For The Spring Term.

The Spring term of the United States court began yesterday. The business to be transacted is large and the sessions will undoubtedly last the entire week. A few cases will be continued but it is expected that most of them will be heard.

Marshal; J. C. Dockery, J. T. Sharp, Deputy Marshals; W. G. Poole, J. F. Miller, and John B. Koonce; George Green, Clerk. E. W. Bryan, Cryer.

The bond of George Green, clerk of court was presented and approved; J. W. Bryan was appointed bailiff for the present term and was sworn in.

AN AWFUL SKIN DISEASE

Sores Covered Neck and Cheeks— Itched Day and Night— Nothing Did Me Any Good—Was Growing Worse.

CURED BY CUTICURA AT COST OF $4.50

Miss Nellie Vander Wiele, of Lakeside, N. Y., writing under date of April 18, 1904, says: "I do wish you would publish this letter in the newspapers, so that others suffering as I have may see it and be helped. I suffered for many months with an awful skin disease, sores covering my ears, neck, and cheeks. Scabs would form and they would swell, and itched day and night. Then they would break open and bleed and matter run out. I had tried many different remedies, but none of them did me any good. I was growing worse when I tried the Cuticura Remedies. The first application helped me, and when I had used two cakes of Cuticura Soap, three boxes of Cuticura Ointment, and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, I was completely cured."

TORTURING, DISFIGURING Humours, Eczemas, Itchings, and Chafings Cured by Cuticura

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalded head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter, and salt rheum,—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are such stand proven beyond all doubt by the testimony of the civilized world.
