New Bern, N. C., June 14, 1905.

AMERICA LEADS THE NATIONS FOR HUMANITY.

The position of this Nation's stand for peace in the war between Russia and Japan, and its initiative action in coming strongly forward and showing the reasons why the war should cease, is truly American in every way, and marks the high courage and humanity which have been the ennobling characteristics of our people.

While the President stands promi nently forward in the matter of seek ing a peace basis, so as to end the war in the far east, it must not be forgotten or overlooked, that the expressed sentiment of the American people has been along the same line, therefore the United States stands desirous of peace. In speaking of the attitude of this minutes three or four times a day in county and its President, compared May or June, will do good twice as did exhibit of specimens of work from with that taken by European nations. quickly as it did in January, and nearly the work shop and the different room with that taken by European nations, quickly as it did in January, and nearly the Baron D'Estournelles de Constant, an eminent Frenchman gives the folcatarrh. lowing in an interview:

"The United States has again given one dollar, and consists of a neat inhesitating Europe a wholesome exam-ple. All Europe ardently desired peace yet allowed the war to go on without comprehending what immense service it could render the beligerents in taking the initiative for peace, which be procured, if desired, for fifty cents.
