Gattis-Kilgo Trial Looks Long Lasting.

Death of Senator Ellington. Prospective Increase State Revenues. Applicants Seek Admission to Hospital. Enlargement of Female Ward.

Raleigh, June 14.—Many persons appear to have an idea that the notable case of Gattis against Kilgo, now on trial here for the fourth time will be disposed of finally, but one of the leading attorneys when asked about the matter said: "No indeed, the case is not nearly as much ended as it was five years ago. At this trial it has entered upon new and untried lines. Whichever way it goes there will be an appeal. I can see no end in sight."

Adjutant General Robertson and Quartermaster General Macon have arranged all the details of the encampments of the National Guard and these are to be on a more complete plan than any heretofore held.

Today the directors of the hospital for the insane here met and arranged for the beginning of work on the new female ward which will be a wing extending westward from the old south wing and will be built on exactly the same plan as the main building, which Superintendent McKee says is one of the best constructed buildings in North Carolina, only two excelling it, the one being the State Capitol and George Vanderbilt's house. The cost of the plan had to be reduced, as labor has greatly increased in cost as compared with last November when the plans were made. Superintendent McKee says that while masons then received $1.75 per day they now get $3.00 and carpenters wages have advanced from $1.50 to $2.50.

There are now 112 applications for admission to the hospital on file, 92 for females alone. The building is now crowded. The wing will give quarters for 166 women, by assigning two to a room. The health of the hospital patients has been remarkable, only one death having occurred this year, that of a man, of consumption.

State Auditor Dixon when asked if he thought there would be an increase of the State revenue this year said that he believed there would be as property is increasing in value, and the new law has placed in the hands of the corporation commission the collection of the income tax; with very much better machinery for listing and collecting. The striking out of what was known as the merchants' purchase tax will reduce the tax increases of course, this purchase tax having yielded last year $26,000. Dr. Dixon says it was never a just tax and ought not to have been imposed. There are no new subjects of taxation, the list having been very closely looked after. Taxes in this State are lower than elsewhere, as was shown by a case in which a Vance county man found that in settling an estate he had to pay on a thousand dollars worth of property in Mecklenburg, Va., $51 while in Vance county, this State, the amount would have been only $6.50.

Last night State Senator J. C. Ellington died very suddenly of heart disease at his home here. His health has been poor for a year or more, but his death unexpected. He is a native of Johnston and his father was a Baptist Minister at Clayton. He served gallantly throughout the Civil War and served several terms as State Librarian. He had a severe attack of pneumonia during the last session of the legislature. He was a devoted member of the Baptist church at which the funeral was held this afternoon, Rev. Dr. W. C. Tyree and Rev. Dr. R. T. Vann officiating. The remains were taken to Clayton for burial.

Feel Impending Doom.

The feeling of impending doom in the minds of many victims of Bright's disease and diabetes has been changed to thankfulness by the benefit derived from taking Foley's Kidney Cure. It will cure incipient Bright's disease and diabetes and even in the worst cases gives comfort and relief. Slight disorders are cured in a few days. "I had diabetes in its worst form," writes Marion Lee of Dunsmuir, Ind. "I tried eight physicians without relief. Only three bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made me a well man." For sale by Davis Pharmacy.

A NOBLE EFFORT.

Colored Citizens Will Endeavor to Rebuild Their Graded Schools.

The colored people are making vigorous and worthy efforts for the rebuilding of a graded school to take the place of the building burned last winter. They realize that the loss of a suitable place for school purposes is and they have begun energetically to work to raise the sum of $1,000 for the purpose.

They have met with a good deal of encouragement from the most prominent members of the race and hope to secure enough in a short time to make the building an assured thing.

At an entertainment given in the opera house the other night the sum of $14.60 was secured for this purpose. They plan to raise a great part of the money among themselves by entertainments and different forms of amusements.

They will thankfully receive any gifts of money for this worthy enterprise and respectfully solicit the same from those who are disposed to give.

THE LAW ON SALE OF DRUGS.

A Clear Statement of Restrictions Regulating It.

The last Legislature of North Carolina, passed an act making it unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to sell by retail, or give away any cocaine, opium or morphine except upon the written prescription of a reputable practicing physician, which prescription shall not be refilled unless so directed by the attending physician.

The above is the reason why druggists refuse to sell the medicines named as the penalty is fine and imprisonment so do not ask your druggist for these remedies unless you have complied with the law and obtained a prescription.

Bell-Saunders.

The marriage of Miss Sunye C. Sanders and Mr. William LeRoy Bell was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents at Beaufort, N. C. It was an unusually pretty, though quiet wedding. Rev. H. M. Eure officiating, in the presence of the friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

The decorations were beautiful in green and white. In the bay window where the ceremony was performed was placed three large pointed arches covered with a profusion of white roses and cape jessamines. From the main arch to the door of the room were white ribbons held by Misses Ruby and Beesie Sabiston, and forming an aisle the length of the ribbons were standing Misses Corine and Nellie Bell, Rose Felton, Maud Davis, Mable Chadwick Mrs. Hugh C. Jones, Mrs. C. Maxwell and Miss Grace Mason, all in white. The flower girl, little Miss Annie Duncan and the ring bearer, Rudolph Sanders, nephew of the bride entered the room at the wedding march was played by Miss Lucy Davis on the piano accompanied by Mr. M. Leslie Davis on the violin, next came the maid of honor, Miss Charlotte Sanders, sister of the bride wearing a costume of white silk; the bride, clad in a going away gown of two toned blue and brown taffeta, entered the room with her father, followed by the groom and his brother, Mr. Chas. Bell, as best man. Mrs. W. A. Sanders, sister of the bride, gowned in pearl gray crepe dechine and Mrs. Seth Gibbs in black silk ushered the guests into the room. During the ceremony Mr. Davis and Miss Davis played in their usual charming and graceful manner the entrancing air from O, Promise Me.

Miss Sanders is popular among her many friends at Beaufort and Mr. Bell is a business man of this city, he has a position with the C. S. Hollister Grocery Store. At 4 o'clock the bridal party left for Morehead City on a private launch and arrived in this city on the afternoon train. Mr. and Mrs. Bell will reside here and are at home to their friends at the home of Miss Alice Duffy on George St.

STRAWBERRY CULTURE

Plan of A. & N. C. Company to Encourage the Growth of Small Fruit.

The Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad is making an effort to promote the culture of strawberries along the line of its road. There are large areas of land, especially east of New Bern—particularly in the Havelock and Newport sections, that are said to be splendidly adapted to berry culture. To encourage farmers to put these lands into berries, the railroad is offering to furnish this fall, free of charge, plants to those having lands adapted to the growth of berries and who are willing to carefully cultivate the plants that they set out. This affords an opportunity for our farmers and truck growers to make an experiment in berry culture cheap.

There is no reason why berries should not be raised in this section quite as profitably as on the line of the Wilmington & Weldon road. The soil is said by experts to be quite as well adapted and the seasons are fully as early (and near the coast much earlier). There is evident need for greater diversity in our trucking industry and this offers an opportunity that it is to be hoped many of our truckers will take advantage.

Those wishing plants would write at once to Mr. F. L. Merritt, land and industrial agent, Goldboro, N. C., stating the number of plants wanted and the area of land proposed to be cultivated in berries.

Three Physicians treated him without Success.

W. L. Yancy, Paducah, Ky., writes: "I had a severe case of kidney disease and three of the best physicians in Kentucky treated me without success. I then took Foley's Kidney Cure. The first bottle gave immediate relief, and three bottles cured me permanently. I gladly recommend this wonderful remedy." Sold by Davis Pharmacy.

Hose Reel Test Race.

The hose reel race team had a test race on Middle street last night to determine the position of the runners. The distance of the course was 200 yards. Following is the result of the race: 1st heat, 22 seconds, Sperling Thomas, 2nd heat, George Harrington; 3rd heat Turney Gaskill. The race on Friday night will be with the hose reel.

More Fighting Reported.

London, June 14.—The astonishing news has just been received in telegrams from Manchuria that severe fighting has been resumed on the Russian left, which has been compelled to give way before the Japanese advance. It is considered in official circles in St. Petersburg that a general engagement has begun, although one theory is that Oyama seeks to emphasize his position before peace negotiations get under way. The gravity of the situation has caused profound misgivings.

Wire Grass.

June 14.
All farm work is progressing finely. A new boarder at Rev. J. R. Jennetts. It is a genuine little democrat, a boy.

The planting of the cow pea and laying by corn is the order of the day with our farmers.

The very low temperature in the weather last week was a set back to cotton.

Mr. J. T. Norris will soon begin the erection of a neat and commodious dwelling near the Sanders and Norris Mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffin Dudley and son, Master Leton, attended service at Harlow's Sunday.

Rev. W. A. Filand filled his regular appointment at the M. E. Church, Tuttle's Grove Saturday night, delivering an able sermon to a large and seemingly interested congregation.

Our farmers at this place are not an exception, as to the loss sustained on the present Irish potato crop. While the yield of potatoes per acre was large, the net receipts of sales were: "Well I told you so in the Spring when the acreage was being increased 15 per cent, that it would be another cotton scrape."

Mr. Thos. Dudley went to Richmond, Va., last week and returned accompanied by Mrs. Sarah Dudley, his wife, who has been in the hospital at that place for about two months. We are pleased to inform her many friends that she underwent a very successful operation and returned home much improved in health.

Mr. E. H. Wilson of Wildwood, a travelling agent for the White Mountain, was a caller at our session last week.
