Cases Against Rogers and Sorrell To Be Pressed.

Professor Potat to Presidency Wake Forest. Found Amendment After Legislature Adjourned. Visiting Syrian Colonies. Increase Capital Stock.

Raleigh, N. C. June 23--The Trustees of Wake Forest College were in session last night until a very late hour, and at midnight they accepted the resignation of Dr. Charles E. Taylor as president and made him financial agent, electing Prof. William L. Potat to succeed him. Dr. Taylor has been at the head of the college for twenty-one years and had been connected with it for thirty-five. President Potat is only 46 years old and graduated at Wake Forest twenty-four years ago, immediately becoming a tutor. The college is in splendid financial condition and has an endowment amounting to about $300,000 all well invested mainly in mortgages.

Solicitor Armistead Jones says that he will press for trial in July of the cases against Rowan Rogers and Sorrell on the charge of embezzlement. The grand jury will act on their case as soon as it meets no doubt, the date of its meeting being July 10th.

State Auditor Dixon goes to Wake Forest Tuesday and speaks at Masonic barbecue. He goes to Asheville July 5th, to deliver the address at the joint meeting of the North Carolina and Virginia Press Associations as the representative of Governor Glenn who will be in New York.

It is learned that the amendment to the pension law allowing county boards to put on the roll persons having over $500 worth of property who they think cannot make a living, was brought about by one member of the legislature who desired the law to apply to a particular case, a veteran in his county. The state officials actually did not know of the amendment until after the legislature had adjourned.

Permission is granted to the Raleigh & Southport Railway Company for an increase of its capital stock from $150,000 to $650,000, the Secretary of State having been notified by President John A. Mills and Secretary S. P. Ricks that the directors had voted in favor of such an increase.

The Guilford Leather Manufacturing Company of Greensboro is authorized to increase its capital stock from $100,000 to $100,000.

Father Kasar, who is from Aleppo, which is the capital of Syria is in North Carolina visiting the Syrians who are becoming quite numerous in this state, there being colonies of them at Wilmington, Charlotte, Raleigh and many other points. They come from Mount Lebanon and are known as Maronites. Their language is Arabic and in this Father Kasar addresses them, he being a very cultivated man who speaks many languages. These people have a church of their own at Charleston. Father Kasar says the language is very rich and that for our word rose, for example there are no less than sixty words in Arabic.

Death of Well Known Mason.

Special to Journal, Raleigh N. C. June 23--William Simpson for 25 years Grand Treasurer of the grand lodge of Masons died this evening at his home here after having been bed ridden nearly 2 years. He was 77 years of age and was a native of New York City. He was in the Confederate service. His funeral will be conducted Sunday by the Grand Lodge which will come here from the Oxford orphanage where it celebrates St. John's day tomorrow.

Rumor Russian Army is Retreating.

St. Petersburg, June 23.--News from the battlefield is exceedingly meagre. A press telegram of Tuesday's date speaks of a "rear guard action," and there are rumors in the city that the Russian army is retreating; but the latest dispatches received from Lieutenant-General Linovitch bearing the same date, declared briefly that the Japanese advance had ceased. It is probable that the Russian advanced lines are crossing the railroad and will continue their retirement more or less hurriedly in order to avoid being flanked and pocketed until the positions at Sipinghai are reached. The main forces seemingly are not yet in collision.

Boy Wrecks Century Flyer.

Cleveland, June 23.--A fourteen year old boy threw the switch that wrecked the Twentieth Century train. Detectives who have been working on the case are convinced the boy opened the switch, and hope to clear up the mystery in a short time. The incident begins Monday.

THE EXCURSION TO WILMINGTON.

Four Hundred People Spent the Day Pleasantly Thursday. A Hot Finish.

The excursion to Wilmington under the direction of Thomas S. Knight which took place Thursday, was well patronized by both white and colored people. The train was composed of seven coaches four being the colored and three for the whites. The accommodations in this line were good and there was but very little crowding. The train left New Bern at 8 o'clock in the morning and was about 3 1/2 hours on the road; the return trip was made in four hours. The journey was as it always has been on any road more or less unpleasant on account of the cinders and dust.

The day at Wilmington was very pleasantly spent by trips to the beach and other places of amusement and many persons availed themselves of the opportunity of transacting business. The day was not oppressively hot but there was no occasion for any extra wraps.

The manager, Thomas S. Knight is doing the public a great service in the conducting of these excursions and great credit is due him for this excellent idea. He should not be held responsible in anyway for the disorder that occurs on the trains occasionally.

Perhaps more of this disorder existed on the returning train Thursday night than ever before. Everybody knows that there is always an element which always takes advantage of these cheap excursions who can not endure the journey unless they are making some kind of disturbance. They have booze to help them in their boisterous proceedings. The actions of this particular crowd were disgraceful. The windows of the cars were broken by flying missiles, there was shooting and loud, profane and boisterous talking such as might be heard in any bar room bourse.

To cap the climax there was a bloody fight. In justice to one of the parties to the unfortunate affair, W. T. Holton, the Journal will explain that his part was not of his choosing. The fight occurred in the car while the train was at Pollocksville. Hall the other man, was much the worse for liquor and was flourishing a knife and pistol in too close proximity to people's heads. In trying to protect others from danger Holton seemed to have angered Hall and the fight ensued. It was short but Hall's face was worse than a weather map when Holton was through with him. It was a merited rebuke, as Hall had been of a quarrelsome nature during the entire time of the journey home.

Whatever pleasure the participants in the disorderly scenes that were constantly being enacted they should know that their conduct has injured an honest and industrious man's business by their rowdiness.

It will wash and not rub off. This complexion all envy me. It is no secret so I'll tell. Take thou Rocky Mountain Tea. Sold by F. S. Duffy.

Marriage of Rev. J. S. Thomas.

The following item from the Montgomery, (Ala.) Advertiser 21st, will be read with interest by the many friends of Mr. Thomas in this city:

Miss Maggie Kennedy, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Kennedy, was married to Rev. John Stanley Thomas of Sanford, Fla., yesterday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the residence of her uncle, Mr. Henry Irwin, 2 South Jackson street.

The wedding was peculiarly pretty and impressive in that the ceremony was performed by Rev. Fred D. Thomas, brother to the groom, of College Park, Ga. The ceremony was quietly solemnized. Only a few intimate friends and members of the family were present.

The Irwin home was beautifully decorated with ferns, smilax and cut flowers and in the double parlors, the ceremony was performed.

Mr. Shepard Bryan a prominent young attorney of Atlanta, acted as best man and presents were numerous and handsome. The bride wore an attractive travelling costume of blue masselin tulle with hand embroidery trimmings. Light refreshments were served.

Immediately after the ceremony, the young couple left for Jacksonville, Fla., where they will spend their honeymoon.

Mrs. Thomas was one of Montgomery's best known and most popular young women and the bridegroom is well remembered here as the first pastor of the Highland Park Presbyterian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will be at home at Sanford, Fla.
