A Lung Node.
In a village in Maryland an old doctor on shaving himself on Sunday prior to church time made a slight cut with the razor on the extreme end of his nose. Quickly calling to his wife, says the Philadelphia Ledger, he asked her if she had any court plaster in the house.
"You will find some in my sewing basket," she said.
The doctor soon had the cut covered. At church in assisting with the collection he noticed every one smile as he passed the plate, and some of the younger people laughed outright. Very much annoyed, he asked one of his assistants if there was anything wrong with his appearance.
"Well, I should say there was," answered the assistant. "What is that upon your nose?"
"Court plaster."
"No," said his friend; "it is the label from a spool of cotton. It says, 'Warranted 200 yards.'"
"They 'Never Have Time.'"
Here and there and everywhere are to be found the man and the woman who "never have time."
If you are one of those who "never have time," change your ways. Try this: Make up each day a schedule of what you shall do at each hour and do not budge from the schedule. It will surprise you to find how readily you can dispose of a task within a certain hour. It is the feeling that you must that will force you to do it. Let each item on the schedule be regarded as an inviolate engagement with yourself and do not let the business of one item cut into the time set for the next. These definite engagements with yourself will enable you to have time for work, reading, writing, calling, church-going and recreation.
Do not stop to think it over. You will forget about it if you delay. Try the plan at once.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"Isabella Color."
"Isabella color" has been described as a dingy whitish yellow. The origin of the term is certainly an odd one, if either of the generally given explanations is correct. According to one story, Isabella, daughter of Philip II, and wife of the Archduke Albert, vowed not to change her linen till Ostend was taken. Most unfortunately for the royal lady the siege lasted for three years. The supposed color of the archduchess' linen at the end of this trying ordeal is said to have become the fashion. The other explanation is a similar one, but the story is made to relate to Queen Isabella of Spain and the siege of Granada. When we consider the length of time penitential hair shirts were worn in the middle ages, the legend is not so wildly improbable as would at first appear.—London Tit-Bits.

Dr. John Brown's "Toast."
The celebrated Englishman Dr. John Brown, who founded the "Brunonian" system of medicine, was, in addition to being an exceedingly clever physician, a somewhat witty personage. For many years he paid his attentions to a certain lady without meeting with the success he desired, during which time he was accustomed to propose her health in company when called on for a toast. Being observed one day to omit the usual tribute, a gentleman present reminded him that he had forgotten to toast his character.
"Why, indeed," said the doctor, "I find it all in vain. Since I have toasted her so many years and still cannot make her Brown, I am resolved to toast her no longer."

A Bear and a Log Jam.
A big log jam that on one occasion blocked an Illinois river was broken in a peculiar manner. The log jam was noticed by one of the rivermen prowling around the skids and later was observed crawling over the piled up timber. Gradually brain worked his way down to the key log and attacked it frantically. Instantly the mass of logs broke. The bear was crushed to pieces. Later it was learned that the key log was filled with honey.

The Bright Side.
"I should think you'd feel awfully and over your quarrel with Mrs. Scaddaworth after all these years."
"Yes, I do. Still there's one pleasant thing about it. Her children are growing up and will soon begin to get married. Of course, after what has happened, I'll not have to give them any wedding presents."—Chicago Tribune.

Sleeping.
A Scotch domestic, after telling his scholars the story of Aspidochelone and Sappho, asked them, "Why does not God strike everybody dead that tells a lie?" After a long silence one little fellow exclaimed, "Because there wouldn't be nobody left."

SPOKE TO TAMMANY

Governor Glenn Makes the Principal Address Before That Organization.

Orders for Disbanding of Beaufort Naval Reserve. Policeman Rogers Trial Set for Monday. Dockery's Condition a Matter of Difference of Doctors Opinions.

Raleigh, July 4.—Governor Glenn, who spoke tonight in New York City making the principal address before the Tammany Society, will tomorrow go to Albany, to see the Governor of New York and will have a talk with him about the proposed attempt of certain stockholders, in New York City to induce that State to sue North Carolina to recover principal and interest on the special tax bonds. The Governor has already written a very strong letter regarding this matter and his attitude is very firm indeed. His action in having the conference with the Governor of New York will of course have the hearty approval of the people of this State.

Orders have been issued for the disbandment of the Division of Naval Reserves at Beaufort. It seems, from what officers say that it will not be surprising if other divisions are disbanded. The reason given is that there is so little to do, no opportunity to take a cruise or anything of that kind that interest becomes very languid. The Divisions to the northward make cruises every year and there is much doing.

Next Monday is the time now set for the preliminary hearing of policeman Rogers for shooting John C. Dockery. One of Dockery's physicians has informed the trial justice that Dockery will really not be out of danger, until the bullets, two of which are in his body are extracted. Another physician remarked last Sunday, that it might not be necessary to extract the bullet.

Deputy revenue collectors returned today from the southern part of this county here, near Fuquay Spring they seized a hundred gallon illicit distillery. This had been in operation only two days before they seized it.

Your correspondent, paid a visit to the textile department of the Agricultural and Mechanical College and found Prof. Wilson who is in charge, very busy. The equipment is to be made very complete, $5,000 having been appropriated by the Legislature for this purpose. Among the machinery will be a set of combers, for preparing cotton to be made into fine yarns; spinning frames; six additional looms for fine work; a dozen hand looms for use in teaching designing and weaving in the early stages; machinery for drying and drying works, sizing etc, various finishing machinery and mule spinning machinery, the latter being English, as it is no longer made in this country. Last term there were 41 students in this department, and the attendance and interests were fairly satisfactory, the equipment being then incomplete. Next term 100 students can be taken.

The sheriff says that Will Adams, the negro murderer, who is to be hanged here this month will probably be executed within the jail itself. This will be the first execution ever held in the jail. Heretofore they have been held within the jail yard. The old gallows and its enclosure have been torn down and carried away. It will cost very little to build a gallows in the jail corridor and then it can be kept for use at any time.

Compelled to Show His Hand.
There was an incident in the court room during the argument for the continuance of the Dewey case which the Journal did not mention yesterday morning and which was quite suggestive. In their strenuous efforts to play upon the leniency of the court the defense showed their hand better than they meant.

While ex-Gov. Aycock was arguing for the continuance, Solicitor Moore asked him if, in case the bill of particulars was given would be willing that the case should go on, he replied that he would not, because he could have no time in which to consider the bill. The incident showed the desperation to which the defense is driven and how they are moving earth, heaven and the other places to gain their end.

A Pet From The Philippines.
Mr. Ben Hurst received by express Monday, a curious specimen of the national flag. It was a Mexican hair-shirt but it came all the way from the Philippine Islands and it is a very healthy little animal and without a good pet, the way we give love the keeping of Mrs. Kelly, and over the INDEPENDENCE DAY.

A Rousing And Enjoyable Time. Three Hundred Set Down to the Tables.

Fourth of July broke yesterday morning clear and hot. Old Sol put in a couple of tons of coal and did his best to give us a hot time. The heat continued until about four o'clock in the evening and clouds came on the face of the sky and made considerable difference in the temperature. It was a welcome change. The day was also heralded by the small boy, and he began business as soon as it was light and kept it up until it ceased to be fun which was not until night's dusky curtain dropped its restful mantle over the tired earth and long after that.

There was a good crowd of people from out of town. A great many drove in from Pamlico and Jones counties and came on the trains from all directions. There was a large delegation of colored people who seemed to enjoy themselves at their usual haunts.

The dinner was the next consideration and it was an event that certainly met the expectations of the most sanguine and it surpassed most of them. It was a feast got up in the real old North State hospitality and reflected great credit on the Daughters of the Confederacy and their able assistants. There was an abundance of refreshments, most appetizing. A pleasing feature about it all was that the ladies were so numerous who attended the Veterans that there was no want but it was anticipated. Another pleasant part of the dinner was the furnishing of bottled Pepsi-Cola by the generous manufacturer. The liquid and food refreshments were of a very soothing and satisfying nature, and much appreciated in this hot weather. The ladies are to be congratulated for their magnificent spread.

The after dinner speeches were an unlooked for treat. In addition to the brilliant and masterful orations of New Bern's own sons, we had the honor to listen to the extinguished citizens of our State, ex-governor Aycock, Judge Jones and Solicitor Larry I. Moore.

The addresses were of course on patriotic subjects and breathed of undying love, first for State and Southland, and not less for the glorious and united country.

The speakers were Congressman C. R. Thomas, who spoke with much eloquent fervor on the subject "The Confederate Soldier." Mr. Mark Stevenson spoke in his usual pleasing and humorous style on the subject which admits of no end of praise: "The Women of the South." Hon. O. H. Guion made a most beautiful and impassioned address on "Re-united Nation." The speech of Governor Aycock was in usual happy and fascinating manner. Mr. S. M. Brinson preceded Governor Aycock and paid a just and very handsome tribute to the local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy. Judge Jones expressed with feeling and tenderness his love for the old South and though he said his years would not allow of him to actively participate in the war his heart and soul was with the side of the "lost cause." Hon. Larry I. Moore spoke eloquently of the bravery of the defeated South, her pluck and energy. Her determination to regain her prestige against terrible odds. The meeting adjourned with the memories of the most pleasant reunion in the history of the order.

The Races.
A large and interested crowd gathered on the river bank on East Front St. to witness the aquatic sports. There were a good number of entries for each race and the excitement was very noticeable. The naphtha launch race was the first and great interest centered in it as the naphtha launch as a racer is something of a novelty.

There were nine starters. The launch owned by Mr. D. W. Bailey did not finish.
We give the time of the first three boats and will publish a tabulated score tomorrow. On account of lack of wind it was impossible to have the sailing race. It will occur Friday evening. Distance of race was 3 miles.
