Affidavits of Fire-Proof Safes.

Cincinnati, O., April 15, 1903.
J. Baum Safe & Lock Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.
Gentlemen:—Please enter our order for a No. 10 safe at once and get it out as soon as possible.
We are now located in the Blymyer Building on Main St., and are getting in shape for business. Everything in our establishment in the Pike Building was destroyed by the fire, and the only thing which was left was our iron safe which we bought of you. We at first were of the belief that everything in the safe would be in ashes, as the safe was on the top floor, fell six stories and was in the hottest part of the fire, but to our surprise the books were found to be in as perfect condition as preceding the fire and could be used again if it were not that they had a musty smell from the fire. We will send you one of the books as soon as we have it recopied, as a testimonial of what your safe will do, and we will write you up a testimonial of any description you may desire, for we can not say too much of the way the safe stood the fire. Yours Very Truly,

THE CATHOLIC TELEGRAPH PUBLISHING CO.,
L. A. EILERSON, Business Manager.

P. S.—We sell the J Baum Safe and Lock Company's Safes, one of the best safes on the market. They succeeded in winning the Gold Medal at World's Fair, St. Louis, 1904.
We have them in stock, weighing from 475 lbs to 2,000 lbs.

CONFEW FOR HACKS.

State's Capital Institutes Law For Quiet Nights.

Revenue Collector Makes Several Captures. Warning Against Registry Company of New York. Saloon Men Not Getting Many Signatures. State Charters Granted.

Raleigh, July 14.—The streets are now hackless after 9 p. m. and the voice of the hackmen is no longer heard in the land, at least so far as Raleigh is concerned. The new ordinance is a strictly enforced.

Torrents of rain fell yesterday and deepened the impression that the cotton crop is to be a short one.

Governor Glenn will return to Raleigh next Monday, private secretary Glenn announces. His stay at Atlantic City has proved very restful to him.

Deputy Revenue Collector, W. G. Pool last night captured a hundred and ninety gallon illicit distillery south of here, also 2,500 gallons of beer, fourteen fermenters, etc. No moonshiners were around but the still had been in operation only half an hour before the officers made their dash upon it.

Insurance Commissioner Young is issuing a warning against the International Registry Company of New York, saying that sometime ago he gave warning against it and now finds that it is trying to do an under ground business, and is endeavoring to issue policies of the Union Casualty and Surety Company of St. Louis, though the latter has not been doing business since January 1, 1904. The method of the International Company seems to be to flood North Carolina with proposals of agents, to pay them heavy commissions for securing business. It seems that a good many men are inclined to jump at the offer the company makes. Not only will they be swindled if they take this course but they will also be prosecuted by the commissioner for unlawfully doing business for a blacklisted company.

The Audubon Society through its special agent, John R. Upchurch, is after the boys here who rob birds nests and arrests have been made. The Society is watching very closely its great work of bird protection.

The Interstate Cooperation Company of New York has domesticated itself in this state and will have a plant at Bellhaven. Under the new law companies chartered in other states do not, strictly speaking domesticate themselves here but have to pay tax before doing business. The right of trial in the courts before they are domesticated is not denied them, this having been the great defect in the first domestication law known as the Craig law.

Clerk George W. Norwood of the office of the Secretary of State is sick with fever at his home here.

The promoters of the movement for an election here on the saloon question are not getting a great many signatures. A friend of the dispensary said he did not care if the matter came to a vote or not, in fact would probably prefer if a vote was taken as he felt confident the dispensary would win out by an even larger majority than it had almost two years ago.

The State charters the Swannona Chemical Company of Marion, capital stock $10,000 to make all sorts of fruit extracts and to have a remarkably wide variety of other powers. Another charter is granted a Durham phono graph supply company, capital stock $10,000.

Torrents of rain fell yesterday and today. The July rainfall was heavy here. The Commissioner of Agriculture says damage is being done to all crops, a great deal of it in some sections, more in the east than elsewhere.

The effect upon cotton is bad, as shedding and running to weed are two of the results.

United States Marshal, H. C. Dockery is sick at his home here with a bilious attack and also suffering some pain in one leg which he wrenched last Sunday while getting on a street car.

It will bring rich, red blood, firm flesh and muscle. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. Taken this month, keeps you well all summer. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. For sale by F. S. Duffy.

WAKE COUNTY COURT.

Interfering Cases. No Defense of Rogers and Sorrell. Women Indicted for Selling Liquor. Women Brought Up.

Raleigh, July 14.—It had been expected that there would be a fight in the embrocary case against Rogers and Sorrell, but really no defense was made. After the men had pleaded not guilty, the jury was empaneled and then the State introduced its evidence, among the witnesses being Marcom and King who were on the jury in the Gattis-Kilgo. Some other witnesses were examined and then counsel for Rogers and Sorrell told the judge they had no objection to his instructing the jury to return a verdict of guilty. The jury was then charged by the judge that if it believed the evidence it had nothing to do but return a verdict of guilty and this it did after having retired for a few minutes in each case, the cases against the two men being separate.

Judge Allen called in the grand jury and said he had issued subpoenas for all the jurors except Marcom and King, who had already been summoned, in order that every juror who was on the list in the Gattis-Kilgo case could go before the grand jury tomorrow morning and be examined. He said he desired the grand jury to find out every fact obtainable in regard to the entire matter, and that if more witnesses were found to be necessary he would at once issue subpoenas for them.

General William P. Roberts presence here is as a witness in the murder case against Raymond B. Bynum, the slayer of Deacon James H. Alford. The general thought that this case was set for Friday, but it does not come up until Monday. After the murderer had led from Raleigh to Gates county and was arrested there. General saw him and talked with him and hence is summoned in the case.

The lobby of the Superior court room today was dotted with women from the Henderson district, who are indicted for selling whiskey, beer and other stimulants there. These people have had Federal licenses and it is said to have always shown a fine contempt of the State laws on the subject. With the women were a lot of beer followers. One woman sat down and spoke to nobody, but wept steadily. In the Superior court the case of the State vs J W Robinson of Johnson county came up. Two years ago he was convicted in two cases, at Leesburg of taking laborers to Georgia to work on the Seaboard Air Line between Atlanta and Birmingham, he then being employed on that road. He was convicted in both cases and fined $200 in each, this being the limit, or twice the amount of the tax which is required for license as an immigrant agent in each county. In one case Robinson paid but in the other he appealed and the Supreme court threw out the latter case saying that the one fine covered the two. Now he is being tried on the charge of taking laborers from Wake county.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Consistency, Thou Art a Jewel!
There are a great many good laws on the statute books, as well as a great many that are of no use whatever, but still the legislative bodies keep grinding out more to the confusion of an already over-law burdened people.

Laws are sometimes made to satisfy some mad and again are made for the convenience of one or more persons, let the effect be never so detrimental to others. But as a rule, the enforcement of laws is not so popular or as easily accomplished as the making of them.

Among the good laws is the one forbidding vagrancy, yet this law is seldom enforced, because, perforce it is a little difficult to do so, in that it requires work to determine whether a man is a vagrant or not. So, the idlers are left by themselves to breed vice, crime, as witness, the fighting, cutting and shooting that has been going on in New Bern lately.

Another good law, is the one forbidding cruelty to animals. Yet this law is openly violated right here in New Bern every hour in the day, and but little is said about it. And why? Because there are a few old plugs around town that are of the value to sell, but are just strong enough to earn their owner a dime or two a day above their keep. Blind, lame or emaciated, these horses are sometimes driven as long as they are able to draw a hack or tray.

Of all laws, those of sanitation are of the utmost importance to an urban community, and should be rigidly enforced. Are they enforced in New Bern? The condition of the docks, reeking with putrid garbage filth, sack lots and alleys, and the filthy, nasty slush on lower Middle street, doesn't look like it.

But there are laws enforced. Sometimes a huckster is pulled for setting a package of vegetables an inch or so beyond the limit on the sidewalk. A boy is caught riding a bicycle along the sidewalk and he too, falls beneath the strong arm of the law. Should a merchant be so indiscreet as to sell a customer or a few peanuts to a child, a few minutes before the legal line of opening his place of business, then he too offends the majority of the law and must suffer accordingly.

It is all right to enforce the laws, but better had they never been enacted if they are to be disregarded, but there is a consistency to be observed. The way the laws are usually enforced reminds one of punishing a man and releasing a convict.

A NERVOUS SCOUNDREL.

A Fellow Arrested in New York Who Used The Name of New Bern Young Lady.

A number of telegrams were received Thursday night and yesterday from New York daily papers endeavoring to get information of one Fred E. Carlton who was arrested in Brooklyn, N. Y., on the charge of swindling. He was also under suspicion of having poisoned two former wives. He stated to the police that he had corresponded with a young lady, Miss L. P. Scott of New Bern, N. C.

The papers found the name and address of the young lady among his effects and to complete the story they telegraphed to Miss Scott to know to what extent his story was true. Miss Lillian Scott, who lives with Mr. Alexander Brinkley, at 165 Broad street is the young lady upon whom the unpleasant notoriety has been cast. The Journal reporter called at her home yesterday and got from her an absolute denial of any knowledge of Fred E. Carlton not having remembered to have ever heard his name before and she is at a loss to know how he came by her name unless it was through a magazine as she had at one time sent an answer to a puzzle published in the magazine. The fellow had all the nerve that was necessary and why he should use the name of Miss Scott is a mystery.

SIX MONTHS IN JAIL.

Sentence Imposed Upon Rogers and Sorrell in Embrocary Case.

Special to Journal.

Raleigh, N. C. July 14.—Judge Allen in response to pleas for mercy for Rogers and Sorrell imposed a sentence of six months in jail. Their attorneys at once made first appeal for reduction of the sentence and the judge said he would take this under advisement. Rogers broke down for the first time and wept as he was taken back to jail and Sorrell looked extremely sad. Neither will tell anything. The grand jury will continue its investigation tomorrow. It is understood it will summon several lawyers as witnesses, Judge Allen having given it a free hand. The evidence is taken stenographically.

If you cannot eat, sleep or work, feel mean, cross and ugly, take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea this month. A tonic for the sick. There is no remedy equal to it. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. For sale by F. S. Duffy.

WEATHER MAN ADVANCED.

C. F. Von Herman Raleigh Station Offered Post Station at Baltimore.

Special to Journal.
Raleigh, N. C. July 14.—Charles F. Von Herman for sixteen years in charge of the North Carolina Weather Bureau office, as section director, is notified by the Chief of the Weather Bureau that orders will be issued putting him in charge of the Baltimore station and that he will be relieved here probably, about the last of July by Alfred H. Thiessen now in charge of the station at Mount Weather, Va.

Von Herman has not decided whether he will accept the proposed transfer as he is greatly attached to Raleigh and to North Carolina.

If taken this month, keeps you well all summer. It makes the little ones eat, sleep and grow. A tonic for the whole family. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. For sale by F. S. Duffy.
