SHOT OUT ESCAPED.

Governor Grants Two Conditional Pardons.

Attempted Soldiers. Veteran Dead. Charters Granted. Immigration Through Advertising. Held Moonshine Distillery. Claud Bernard. Decision Against Sea-board Road.

Raleigh, July 29.—George Collins, from Northampton county was shot yesterday at the convict camp near Lillington where a hundred men were at work on the Raleigh and Southport Railway. He is a negro and is serving two years for larceny. Though badly wounded he contrived to escape.

Last evening Mrs. James Warren, whose mind has been feeble for many years cut her throat while in bed at her home, using her husband's razor. Her husband returned home a moment after she had committed the deed. She was at once taken to a hospital, but it is said will probably recover.

W. F. Fox, aged 74, from Rocky Mount, died late last night at the Soldiers Home. He had only been there two days. He served in Company F., 29th Regiment N. C. T., and was in the Western Army, having been in the great battles there including Chickamauga.

The Governor pardons two men conditionally, under the new law, that is upon condition of good behavior. One is John Archie of Guilford, sentenced to three years on the roads for perjury. The Governor requires that he will never again retail liquor. He was a model prisoner and his pardon was recommended by many officials. The other pardon is to Will James of Stanly county who was sentenced to 18 months on the road for assault with a deadly weapon. He is very sick and it is said will die if not released.

Charters are granted the Franklin Mica Company of Macon county and the Southern Spindle Company of Charlotte, the latter having $20,000 capital and John M. Partillo and others being the stockholders.

Governor Glenn last evening gave out an open letter in reply to one from attorney A. S. Hall of Cumberland county, who recently came here to see the Governor in regard to the best method of securing immigrants. The Governor suggests that this work be done by liberal advertising. The congressional district in which Fayetteville desires to act as a unit in securing desirable immigrants from the north and west and from Scotland and England and Wales, an action regarding this may be taken later.

Deputy Revenue collectors made a raid last night and near Four Oaks in Johnston county captured an 80 gallon moonshine distillery and a thousand gallons of beer. The operators had received a warning message only a few minutes ahead of the officers and had pulled the still from over the fire but had not time to carry it further than to a clump of bushes only a few yards away. The fire was burning brightly.

The Corporation Commission has overruled the exceptions of the Seaboard Air Line to the order requiring that road to put in a siding for the Round Pine Lumber Company near Merry Oaks. The road will now have to put in the siding or appeal the case to the Supreme court.

The best friend of Claud Bernard said last week that it is latter week he understood, return to Raleigh early in August from Old Point, Va., where he has been for some time and where his family joined him last week. The officials here evidently do not believe he will return. The papers are ready to be served on him here in the suit by Mr. Howell of Raleigh against him for not less than $20,000 damages for the seduction of Howell's daughter, and no it is both a civil and criminal case, since it is for arrest or bail of which $5,000 is demanded. A copy of the papers were sent to New Hanover county for service, but owing to necessary delay Bernard got away before the papers could be served. His arrest will of course immediately follow his arrival at Raleigh.

The State charters the bank of Asheville, commercial and savings, capital stock $10,000 and authorized the Cherryville bank in Graham county to increase its capital to $10,000 and give it power to further increase it to $20,000.

Valuable Roster N. C. Troops.

Raleigh, N. C., July 29.—Major James H. Foote of Wilkesboro, during the war was assigned by Governor Vance to the duty of preparing the Roll of Honor of North Carolina troops in the Confederate service and certainly did that work well. This roll was the basis for the roster of North Carolina troops which Major John W. Moore prepared some twenty years ago, and will of course be also the basis of the corrected roster which is to be furnished the United States War Department for publication. Major Foote kept as part of his records clippings about North Carolinians from the Virginia papers these fill a very large and thick book, the size of an ordinary newspaper, which was kept as part of the official records. This book he now sends to Secretary of State Bryan Grimes who has placed it in the State Library. It furnishes a mass of invaluable material.

Trenton.

July 27.
Miss Isabel Braddon returned to her home here Monday after a few days visit with friends at Pollockville.

Mr. M. N. Harriett of near Pollockville was here today.

Lots of people from here went to the "Big July Meeting" at White Oak Sunday.

Miss Lillie McDaniel left here Saturday to spend a while in Morehead.

Mrs. Lessie Dawson and little daughter Mildred of this place are spending a while at Maple Cypress and other places.

Messrs. J. D. and J. T. Heath of Olivers came to Trenton Saturday on business.

Mr. J. C. Parker of Olivers was with us yesterday.

Mr. Sam Edwards and Daughter, Mrs. Levi Moore, of Olivers, were here Monday on business.

We are sorry to say Mrs. Lewis Haywood continues to be on the sick list but we hope to soon see improvement in her condition.

Death of Mrs. Sarah Stinson.
Mr. C. L. Ives received a telegram yesterday from Mr. P. H. Pelletier announcing the death of Mrs. Sarah Stinson, Mrs. Pelletier's mother at Biddeford, Maine. The lady was well known here and had very many friends who will be deeply pained to learn of her death. The burial will take place at Biddeford today.

A Fine Souvenir Paper.

The Lumberton Argus of July 28, is a special number got up in the interest of Lumberton and neighboring cities which is a credit not only to the paper but to that city. It is a 40 page booklet containing a vast amount of valuable information about the resources of the city. It is profusely illustrated with cuts and a full complement of advertisements which show Lumberton to be a stirring and ambitious little city. The publishers are to be congratulated on their splendid success of getting out such a fine edition.

Raleigh Personal News.

Raleigh, N. C., July 29th, 1905.—It is expected that John Duckery will be taken to his home at Rockingham next week. His physicians talk as if he will be able to leave about the middle of the week.

Weather Observer Von Harman expects to leave here about August 7th for Baltimore, his new post. Mr. A. H. Thomson, who is in second line is expected here a day or two before that date. Mr. Thomson is a very capable man and his salary is $4,000.

THE COMING SHOW SEASON.

A List of the Principal Opera House Bookings For The Season of 1905-06.

The next theatrical season, which will be known as season 1905-06, will be the most brilliant in the history of New Bern. The lessees of the New Masonic Theatre have the assurance that New Bern will get as good attractions as are on the road and better attractions than any city of its size in the State. This is not made as a boast, the lessees state, but simply as a statement of facts substantiated by the bookings. The theatre will not offer a Lyceum Course, but will offer everything theatrical. By special arrangement each of the companies under the management of Mr. Jules Murry, of New York, will play New Bern, which in itself is an important achievement. The season will open early in September, though the opening attraction has not definitely been settled upon. However, during September will be presented Donnelly & Hatfield's Minstrels, "The Holy City," "Human Hearts," Henry Lee's Entertainers, the merry Hoyt comedy "A Bunch of Keys," Eugene Blair and others. The appearance of Eugene Blair will be an artistic triumph, as Miss Blair is considered one of the leading actresses on the American stage and is the wife of Robert Downing.

In October the brilliant attractions will come fast and in all their glory. Among them will be the celebrated comedians Mason & Mason, the well known actress, Miss Effie Ellner, who is a daughter of the famed old John Ellsner, and Peter Baker in his well known play "The Legend of the Catskills." A dramatization of Rev. Tom Dixon's popular novel "The Clansman" will be given a big scenic production. The Mordant Stock Company, the leading popular price attraction of the north, will hold the boards for a week in October.

In November will appear Paul Gilmore, whose "Mummy and the Humming Bird" was such a big success last season and the season before; Lewis Morrison in a magnificent production of "Faust" and this time on his farewell tour—"Dare Devil Dorothy" and others.

After November the near-at-hand attractions will be the big musical comedy "A Pair of Pinks," "Black Patti," Creston Clarke and so on. Mr. Clarke is a nephew of Edwin Booth and the coming season will appear in the Mansfield play he scored heavily in last season, "Monsieur Beaucaire."

The above are the leading attractions so far booked. There are many minor ones.

August Burr McIntosh Monthly.

Among the portraits in this mid-summer number are those of Admiral Togo, Roselle Knott, F. S. Willard, Millie James, May McKenzie, Elsie DeWolfe and Louise Drew; all of them presented in the beautiful engraved cuts for which this magazine is famous. A feature of this number is views of famous watering places both in the United States and Europe. A new department "Men of Note" deals with Marquis Ito, the famous Japanese, John Weaver, the reform Mayor of Philadelphia, Paul Morton, late Secretary of the Navy, and his successor Chas. J. Bonaparte. The panoramic views cover exquisite scenes of summer Landscapes, marine and athletic events. The color work in this issue is particularly striking; altogether it may be fairly said this number is superior to the July number which was so popular.
