REMARKABLE CASE

Much influence to Favor Them.

Raleigh, August 2.- A statement ha been made in some of the papers that Governor Glenn intended to pardon Howard and Hawley, the gold brick swindlers who are serving ten year sentences in the penitentiary upon the payment of a $5,000 fine by each, they having been four years in prison. The attention of the Governor was called to these statements and he said that all he knew of this matter was that it had been intimated to him that a proposition of this character might be made and submitted to him. His reply was that if it were made he would give it careful consideration as he does all cases without giving any intimation as to what he would do after such looking into the matter. The proposition has not been submitted.

This is a very remarkable case and the Governor in speaking about it today said the people outside have no idea of the tremendous influences which are being brought to bear to get these men out of prison; that Congressmen and Governors, among others, are in the movement. For example Congressman Sulzer of New York has written numer ous letters to the Governor about Hawley who is the New Yorker.

Mention was made in June of pres sure brought to bear upon Paul Garrett by people in New York and elsewhere in behalf of Hawley and the Governor has had to undergo the same sort of experience. Of course it has has been stated that there was a large criminal fund back of these men. The whole thing would make a most dramatic story, as it is doubtful that so much influence has ever been brought upon Governors of North Carolina as have been brought upon Governors Aycock and Glenn. Governor Aycock pardoned Bailey, one of the three swindlers, largely upon personal application of the Governor of Illinois, and now Howard and Hawley declare Bailey was the worst man in the gang.
