BOTH SIDES QUIET

Neither Liquor Nor Temperance Factions Talking on Election Results

Evening Times to be 8 Pages and Have Associated Press Reports. Corporation Commission and Clerks on Junket. The Mountain District Crowded. Many Yellow Fever Refugees.

Raleigh, Aug. 12.—The number of convicts now in the penitentiary here is only 107, of which 17 are women, seven of the latter being white. The total number of State convicts is 709. The very rainy weather which has prevailed every day this week has given much trouble to the brick-making plant, this being the principal occupation of the convicts within the prison.

There is relatively very little talk about the proposed election here on the bar room question. Both sides continue to talk as if they were confident. Mr. N. Broughton said today that there were three points to be considered regarding the petition for the holding of an election on licensed saloons, this being the only issue presented by the petition. The first is that the petition must be very carefully examined and purged of the names of the persons who were not in Raleigh at the time it was carried around, it being stated that the names of persons are on it who have not been in Raleigh in many months, second that this petition contains the names of a number of persons who cannot read nor write, and to whose signatures there is no witness, third, that the registration books must be purged, in order to ascertain the names of persons who have died and removed, since the total number of names on the petition must be a required proportion of the number of the registration books, in order to insure a call for an election.

Next Monday the Evening Times will begin the publication of the Associated Press reports, and will appear in eight-page form, having put in a new press and other machinery.

The Corporation Commission and the clerk's left today for Richmond and then on westward over the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway, and from St. Louis to Deadwood, S. D.

State Auditor Dixon was at Roxboro today and delivered an address. He continues to be in a very great demand as a speaker.

It is now thought that J. H. Camlen, the young Virginian, who fell from the roof of the agricultural building at the A. & M. College yesterday afternoon, and who is now in a hospital here, will recover. His escape from death is certainly remarkable. He fell about 45 feet, landing on a heap of brick-bats.

Mr. Ebbs of Madison county, who came here yesterday to see Governor Glenn, stated that there never were before so many people in the North Carolina mountains, the greater number being refugees from the yellow fever district. He says the hotel everywhere are well filled, as also the boarding houses and the country houses, even in the most retired locations, are eagerly sought for. He thinks that the movement will be of great value to that section.

News came today of the continued improvement of General Jas. B. Glenn, private Secretary to Governor Glenn, who had a severe attack of acute indigestion day before yesterday, to which he is subject. It was at first stated that it was a third attack of epilepsy, but members of the General's family felt reasonably sure that it was merely indigestion.

Diamonds—Six Reasons Why You Ought to Buy Them.

(1) They are beautiful. (2) They're indestructible. (3) The prestige they give to the wearer. (4) Their constant increase in value. (5) Their salability. (6) Their safety as an investment. A reason why you ought to buy them here.—Because our present stock was bought so reasonably that we can well afford to sell diamonds at lower figures than our competitors—and fine diamonds, every one of them. Come and see if this statement isn't a true fact.

Refugees.
A green soldier was with smoking while on duty was punished by a soldier who had seen many years' service, but it was against the regulations to smoke near his post, and he advised the soldier to throw his cigar away. He did so and went on his rounds. The soldier then picked up the cigar and was enjoying it quietly when the subaltern returned.
"Why, how is that?" he asked. "I thought no smoking was allowed near your post."
"That's true," replied the soldier. "I'm merely keeping this slight for evidence against you in the morning."

A Scotch Collie Story.
A story of a Scotch collie is current on the Derbyshire border, according to the Dundee Advertiser. A farmer in the Peak district, having purchased a small flock of sheep in the lowlands, drove the flock the whole way from Scotland to his farm in Derbyshire with the aid of a collie dog which was lent to him by the Scotch farmer from whom he purchased the sheep. "When you get to your home with the sheep," said the Scotchman, "let the dog fill his belly; then tell him to go home." The Derbyshire man duly arrived at his farm with the sheep and was so pleased with the collie dog and its performance that he decided to keep it a few days before sending it back. One day he was away from home during the whole of the day, and on returning in the evening he found that the Scotch collie was missing and also the flock of sheep. In a few days tidings came that the dog had arrived at his Scotch home and had brought the sheep back with him.

Breaking It Gently.
He is a rather serious minded boy who has more sense of responsibility than many grown persons. So when he was sent to his grandmother's to break the news of her aged sister's death he did so with much gravity and no little self importance.

"Now, Alfred," his mother said, "you mustn't tell grandma suddenly, because it might shock her, even though she knew Aunt Martha was ill. Tell it to her gently."

"All right," assented Alfred, starting out on his mission with mingled solemnity and eagerness.

Arrived at his grandmother's house, he greeted her with a sober "Hello!" and then proceeded to "break the news" by saying:

"Aunt Martha's dead, grandma, but you mustn't feel bad, 'cause she was pretty old, anyhow. You'll be the next one, I s'pose."—Brooklyn Life.

Not More Curiosity.
The world has a store of pleasures in waiting for the unaccustomed traveler. Sometimes, indeed, they may be mostly in anticipation, as was the case with Anna Riggs of Plimouth.

"How'd you do?" said Mr. Riggs cordially to the stern visaged man who was his seat mate in the car on the occasion of Mr. Riggs' first trip to Boston. "Now what might your name be? Do you live in Nashua or beyond?"

"I should like to know what business it is of yours where I live or who I am?" said his companion crossly.

"Well, now, it ain't any particular business of mine, strictly speaking," said Mr. Riggs mildly, "but it's just like this: I've got a cousin up in Canada that I've never seen, and I've always thought I might come upon him some time just by asking folks their name and so on."

The Lantern Parade.
As in former years the lantern parade has been an occasion of beauty as well as grotesqueness so the show at the Academy Green last night was a peer among the amusements of the season. There was a large number in attendance and all present were delighted with the performance.

There were 60 children carrying lanterns and the designs were very unique and pretty. Some were artistically beautiful. Conspicuous among them was a Jack O'lantern fantastically arranged by Leon Dawson which was greatly enjoyed by the children on account of its ingenious device.

The judges were Misses May Hendon, Nannie Street and Sadie Hollister. The prizes were awarded to the following children: Eddie Berry, Richard L., Bessie Bell, Pauline Barrington, Sam Small, Sarah Sabiston, Geo. Holland, Joseph Holwell, Sarah Stewart.

After the parade ice cream and cake were served on the Green to a large number and a handsome sum was realized which was donated to the stained glass window fund of the new Methodist church.

Hollis-Cherry

A wedding beautiful in its simplicity and quiet elegance occurred at Mt. Zion Free Will Baptist Church, near Vandemere N. C., on Wednesday evening, August 9th, at 8.30 o'clock, when Miss Lena Cherry of Vandemere became the bride of Mr. J. W. Hollis of New Bern.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. Jennie McCotter of Vandemere, the bridal party entered the church, decorated with bamboo and cedar, and a proportion of pot plants and cut flowers, filled with relatives, friends and acquaintances to witness the ceremony. First came the attendants in the following order: The ushers were Messrs. F. T. Lincoln and F. T. Carraway; then entered Miss Emily Lincoln with D. M. McClellan; Miss V. Brown Cherry with Seth Swan. Then came the following girls: Little Miss Gladys Willis and Miss Rena McCotter.

Following them came the bride and the maid of honor, her sister Mrs. V. A. Redding; the groom with best man Dr. C. A. Flowers. The bride and groom were met under a beautiful arch of light and dark green by Rev. A. E. Rouse of Mt. Olive, who performed the ceremony. The bride was beautifully gowned in white organdy, the maid of honor also wore white.

After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. James G. Perry where a sumptuous reception was awaiting them. The bridal presents were numerous and beautiful.

That was an evening of pleasure to her many friends and a host of friends hoped for them a happy and prosperous future.

CAUGHT BY FALLING STACK

A Young Man Becomes Victim of a Painful Injury at The Carolina Slave Plant.

While superintending the erection of a 100 foot smoke stack at the Carolina Slave Works yesterday afternoon, Mr. H. E. Thompson, son of E. M. Thompson, of Indianapolis, Ind., met with a severe accident whereby he broke his leg. He was standing on the brick work which formed the base of the chimney and the guy wire used in supporting the massive stack either broke or became loosened leaving the stack in such a condition as to cause it to topple and fall barely missing Mr. Thompson, it caught his clothing and carried him down to the ground, a distance of twenty feet. He landed in the pit of the furnace. His leg was broken just above the ankle.

The stack was a massive concern and was made at the factory and shipped to New Bern ready to put in position. It was under good headway when the accident occurred. Those who were on the brick work with Mr. Thompson narrowly escaped a similar accident but no one was hurt.

Card of Appreciation.

At a regular communication of St. John's Lodge No. 3, A. F. & A. M., a vote of thanks and appreciation to the ladies and gentlemen who so kindly took part in the entertainment for the benefit of this lady was unanimously passed. Had it not been for the untiring energy of those participating Echoes from Opera could not have been such a complete success for which we are grateful. The Knights of Pythias band we wish to thank for their kindly aid in furnishing music for this entertainment which added greatly to the performance. For the Lodge Thos. A. Green, W. M. Jas B.
