THE PEACE COMPACT.

Terms of War Settlement Between Russia and Japan.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 29.—The Japanese practically yielded everything they accepted the Russian ultimatum—no indemnity and a division of Sakhalin without payment of redemption money. The Japanese also yielded interned warships and limitation of naval power. The agreement is, in substance, as follows:

Russia recognizes Japan's "preponderant influence in Korea, with her right to preserve order in the civil administration and to give military and financial advice to the Emperor of Korea, Japan binding herself to observe the territorial integrity of the Hermit Kingdom and the policy of the "open door."

Mutual obligation to evacuate Manchuria.

Japanese obligation to restore in Manchuria Chinese sovereignty and civil administration.

Mutual obligation to respect in the future the "territorial integrity and administrative entity" of China in Manchuria and to maintain the principle of equal opportunity for the industry and commerce of all nations (the "open door").

The division of the Island of Sakhalin.

The surrender to Japan of the Russian leases of the Liaotung Peninsula, including Port Arthur, Dalny, and the Blonde and Elliott Islands.

The surrender to China, by arrangement with Japan, of the Chinese Eastern Railroad running south from Harbin to Port Arthur and Niuchwang, together with the retrocession of all the privileges obtained under the concession of 1893. The southern branch of the Chinese Eastern Railroad ceded to Japan begins at the station Quanchontze.

The limitation of the Chinese concession obtained by M. Rothstein and Prince Ukhomsky in 1898, under which the "cut-off" through northern Manchuria was built to connect the Trans-Siberian and the Ussuri railroad so as to provide for the retention of the ownership and operation of the line by the Chinese Eastern road, but with provision for the eventual substitution of Chinese imperial police for Russian "railroad guards."

The surrender of the Russian warships interned in neutral ports.

The grant to the citizens of Japan the right to fish in waters of the Russian littoral from Vladivostok north to the Bering Sea.

Do you suffer with indigestion, constipation, feel mean and cross, no strength or appetite? Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well and keep you well. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Sold by F. S. Duffy.

INDULGED IN DANGEROUS TALK

J. T. York Arrested for Uttering Incendiary and Exciting Statements.

An echo of the unfortunate affair of Sunday morning was heard in the police court yesterday in the trial, or rather the preliminary hearing, of J. T. York. York was arrested late Tuesday night on the charge of cursing, abusing and resisting an officer and of using language by discussing late occurrences which might have incited a riot. York had gathered a few negroes around him and in a loud, bluffing and boisterous manner discussed the subject until his talk was so exciting that if it were allowed to go on uninterrupted might lead to blood shed. He was taken into custody by officers Lupton, Bryan, Banks, and Griffin and at the city hall was put under $200 bond, his lawyer, R. W. Williamson becoming surety. In the municipal court he simply waived examination and was held under $500 bail for appearance at the next term of Criminal court.

The offense for which York was arrested is a serious one and it is well for authorities to be more alert than ever in order that no other such attempt be made.

Four colored women were in the court for disorderly conduct and the evidence against them was of such damaging character that the Mayor fined all but one five dollars and costs. They were Sabra Jones, Cora Jones, Stella Lane and Catherine Whitehead. Judgment was suspended in Cora Jones' case on payment of costs.

W. T. Barber was taxed the costs for riding his bicycle on the sidewalk.

Was Wasting Away.
"I had been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years," writes Robert R. Watts, of Salem, Mo. "I lost flesh and never felt well and suffered with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally I tried King's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am now sound and well. During the summer kidney ailments are often caused by excessive drinking of beer containing alcohol in the quantity of one quart."

IS PEACE TREATY KNOWN?

Numbers That Russia And Japan Had Privately Agreed And Money May Be Paid.

Portsmouth, August 30.—There is a growing suspicion that Russia has agreed to pay Japan some money in lieu of a cash indemnity. Upon what this suspicion is based or how large the amount cannot be learned. A significant feature of yesterday's conference which was almost lost sight of was the dismissal of all the secretaries during the deliberations over some Japanese demands which were left open from the previous meeting. Why this secrecy when it was a clear case of delivery of an ultimatum and its acceptance is a mystery incapable of solution at this time. From the most accurate reports it appears that Witte laid down his ultimatum which was accepted promptly by the Japanese envoys. This may have been due to the fact that the Japanese had become thoroughly convinced that further payment on this disputed demand would be futile.

It is believed by some that at a future date it may be found that Japan is obtaining from Russia financial advantages, which whether of great or less value have not been disclosed at this conference.

The Indians Are Coming.
Arrangements are now going forward to give a magnificent production with local talent, of the historical Indian opera "Powhatan" under the auspices of the Dramatic Club of this city for the benefit of the Christmas tree to the poor children.

Mr. Albert L. Baker will be engaged for the training of the participants in the singing, acting and spectacular effects, and a most complete and artistic production is assured. The local talent composed of about 150 persons will be invited to aid in this rendition. Mr. Baker comes to us with the very highest endorsement from other cities, as Raleigh, Wilmington, Columbia, Augusta, Savannah, Richmond, Petersburg, Lynchburg and many other towns and cities, showing his work to be of the highest character.

Powhatan embraces the story of the capture of John Smith by the Powhatan Indians and his subsequent release on the intercession of Pocahontas. It is highly embellished with quaint Indian music, Indian war dances, and contains the essence of the idealistic notion of the red man, rather than the realistic idea of him, there is a distinct path running throughout the story in musical and dramatic effect, also there is much that is humorous in its way as well.

The costuming effect is strikingly beautiful and is along the line of baroque splendor, radiantly glittering under the rays of a special electric lighting. A preliminary rehearsal is called for tonight at 8 o'clock to sing the music, and all those who are invited, are earnestly requested to be present.

Royall—Sutton.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Sutton on Craven street was the scene of a very pretty wedding at five o'clock last evening in which Mr. Edgar L. Royall and Miss Elizabeth Sutton were united in matrimony by Rev. G. T. Adams.

The rooms were handsomely decorated with palms and ferns, and an arch under which the couple stood during the ceremony was trimmed with bamboo. Lights from candles made a pretty effect in the rooms.

Miss Ellinor Taylor played the Lohengrin wedding march as the bride couple came into the room, and as they left Mendelssohn's wedding march was played. The soft strains of the music of "Oh Promise Me" lent a pretty charm to ceremony during its progress.

The groom was accompanied by his best man, Mr. Jack Street and the bridesmaid was Miss Blanche Ivey, of Seven Springs.

The bride was attired handsomely in a gown of white tulle and silk. She carried white carnations. The bridesmaid's dress was of white organdie and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Royall have a large number of friends in the city who hold them in high esteem and who wish them many happy years of prosperity and usefulness. They received many beautiful presents.

They left on the evening train to go to Salisbury where they will visit relatives and were accompanied by the groom's sister Miss Mamie Royall.

LOOK OUT FOR GERMS NOW

Will Cause Sickness Unless Stomach is Strengthened With Mi-o-na.

In the summer months constant vigilance is necessary, or dangerous disease germs will be absorbed from food or drink. The so-called summer complaints and bowel troubles do not come to people with a healthy stomach, for Nature kills the disease germs with the natural juices secreted by the healthy digestive organs. When there are pains or distress after eating, headache, belching of gas, sour food, and bad taste in the mouth, dizziness, heart-burn, specks before the eyes, furred tongue, sleeplessness, and debility or weakness, it shows that the stomach needs the help of Mi-o-na. Just one little tablet out of a 50 cent box of Mi-o-na before each meal for a few days, and you will regain perfect health and strength, and be proof against the germs of summer diseases. Ask F. S. Duffy to show you the guaranty under which he sells Mi-o-na. It costs nothing unless it restores health.
