McCOWAN'S SENTENCE

Confirmed by Supreme Court Decision.

Pay for Spanish Volunteers. Auction Law Enforced. Why Immigrants are Not Sought by Farmers in This State. Confederate Veteran Buried.

Raleigh, Sept. 6.—The Supreme court, through Chief Justice Walter Clark, as soon as it met this morning at ten o'clock made announcement of its decision in the contempt case of ex-Mayor Moses McCowan of Durham, who struck Judge Ward of the Superior court, and who, by that judge, was sentenced for contempt to serve thirty days in a common jail and to pay a fine of $200. The Supreme court affirms the action of Judge Ward. The opinion was oral and the chief justice announced that later there would be a written one filed. This will probably be done next Tuesday, when the regular filing of opinions begins. The action of the court was of course expected, the State having made a very strong showing in support of the course taken by Judge Ward in protecting his own honor and that of the courts.

Mr. Carter of Alabama was here today and had a conference with Governor Glenn regarding the matter of additional pay for volunteers in the war with Spain. He stated to the Governor that troops were entitled to pay from the time that they arrived at their respective armories. Here in North Carolina the troops were mustered in during May, but a number of them drew pay from April 27th, to which they were found entitled, yet a number had reported at their armories in response to the call some days before April 27th.

North Carolina will send quite a large delegation to Richmond on the 12th to attend the annual meeting of the Farmers National Association. Last year over 100 delegates were appointed by Governor Aycock, and all these appointments have been continued.

There are now forty-three game wardens in North Carolina. The supervising warden, John W. Upchurch of this city says the Auburn law is popular in North Carolina and is being very well enforced. So far as he can discover there are now very few violations of it.

The Agricultural & Mechanical College is really over-crowded. It is greatly to be regretted that more dormitory room is not to be provided. There are more students in the agricultural department now than any other and for this increase no provision whatever has been made.

In an interview with acting Immigration Commissioner T. K. Bruner as to the reason why there are so few calls for immigrants, to come to North Carolina as laborers, or as tenants, he said that on the side of the people here in North Carolina who wanted such people on their farms, they do not wish any people unless they know who they are, while, on the other hand, Mr. Bruner cannot afford to make arrangements at New York to bring persons here unless there is a positive arrangement as to the price they are to receive and as to the homes they are to have. There has been a very slip of the way in hiring labor in North Carolina, but of course all this will have to be changed if people are to be brought in here from elsewhere. There will have to be a regular agreement as to wages, or as to the part of crops to be allowed them, or as to tenant farmers.

The board of penitentiary directors is to meet on the 20th inst, at which time it will specially consider matters relative to the Wilkesboro and Jefferson turnpike, the construction of which has reached the point in less than 2 miles of the crest of the Blue Ridge. The question is whether the State shall finish it.

Louise Unger, a native of France, who served in the French army in a number of campaigns, and who was in the Confederate service for three years in Company G, 50th North Carolina Regiment was buried this morning in the Confederate cemetery here, having died last evening at the Soldiers Home. He had been in feeble health for some time.

Sep. 6
A shanty car of the A. & N. C. Co., used for the cooking department of a squad of hands putting in the rail along the line which was on a siding here caught fire this p. m. about 4 o'clock and would have burned completely up but Mr. W. B. H. Blandford, Sec. and Treas. of the G. L. Co. had their locomotive to pull the car around near their water works and had the fire put out.

Mr. Thos. Lindsay the popular salesman for the New Bern Grocery Co., is in our town today hustling for business.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Richardson left on the 4th for New York and other points for a few days pleasure trip.

Rev. J. W. Caraway filled his regular appointment here Sunday and preached a good sermon from Acts 17-28.

Miss Ida Sutton is visiting the Misses West and other relatives here.

It seems that Monday was an unlucky day for a number of colored people in and near the town. One of the crew of the freight train was mangled so badly here that he died after he arrived in New Bern. Two men working in the log woods got their hands badly cut, W. J. Mills living on Mr. Robt. Duns farm in Jones county had his hand badly cut by chopping it with an axe.

We heard this morning that there was quite a lot of tobacco sold on the market yesterday and prices were good.

Miss Sue V. Wilson of Kinston spent Saturday and Sunday with her brother, Mr. Geo. B. Wilson at this place.

Thos. D. & S. B. R. Co. are building a new passenger car for their road.

Wire Grass.

September 7th.

There was a tremendous rainfall here Sunday which greatly damaged the cotton that was open.

Since the farmers have begun to have their cotton picked, they find here is a great decrease in the average yield per acre.

Mr. Clyde Foreman, formerly of Core Creek, but now of LaGrange, is visiting relatives and friends in our midst.

Mr. B. Borden of Cherry Point spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. Josephine Guther.

Miss Minnie Mann of Beaufort was the guest of Miss Bertha Langdale this week.

Messrs. Marvin Lewis of New Bern, and Luther Lewis of Beaufort were callers in our village Wednesday.

Mrs. Lillian Foreman and Miss Minnetta King of North River were the guests of Mrs. Holland Foreman for a few days.

Mr. M. W. Podrie who has been spending his vacation here, this summer returned to New Bern where he goes to resume his studies at the Carolina College.

We are having considerable sickness with us this month. Those on the list are Mrs. Fannie Dudley, Mrs. Jackie Norris and Messrs. James Morton and Luther W. Harvey.

Since the law preventing the killing of deer has gone out many of our hunters men have struck fine luck. 3 fine bucks have been killed near here, the lucky ones being B. T. Dudley and A. C. Gillikin.

A reception given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Foreman, Monday night was an enjoyable event. Music was furnished by several young ladies after which cream was served.

A party of young people and a few older ones to chaperone them, enjoyed a delightful sail on Sept. 1st. They were taken over to the laboratory and life-saving station. "We are pure 'C' and 'me'" enjoyed the stroll on the beach.

Can't you eat, sleep or work? Bad liver? Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes rich, red blood, gives strength and health. Cures when all others fail. No cure no pay. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets. Sold by F. S. Duffy.

Reminiscences.

Visitor—Your daughter, dear madam, is really charming. If I were thirty years younger I should be madly in love with her.

Coy Widow—Oh, Baron, thirty years ago I looked just as she does now!—Translated, For Tales From Pfliegende Blätter.

The Water Needs Whittening.
Milkman—It ain't true, ma'am, that we always put chalk in our milk.
Mrs. Housekeeper—Do you mean to say you never do it?
Milkman—Well—er—never, except after a heavy rain, when the water gets muddy and brown.

His Observation.
"Now, Tommy, remember," Tommy's mother cautioned him. "You know where bad little boys go—"
"Yes," interrupted Tommy, who had been told to stay at home, "they go fishin' an' swimmin' an' have a general good time."

Uncle Mose's Music.

The following poem is from the pen of Rev. J. J. Douglass pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church and it undoubtedly speaks the true inward sentiment of many of the colored race.

Work on the farm and in the shop means no servitude and it often happens that a man can make more in those places than elsewhere.

Uncle Mose is merely lamenting the disposition to shirk work among his brethren when they are better off in the field or shop.

I can't leave in oddshap
W'at weans niggers I'm de fa'm.
Kas chit's des er pesteration
Dat's a-wuking 'monst us ha'm.

John he's gone ter Tuskerage,
An' Bill he's studyin' law;
Tom Henry's tryin' fer D. D.,
An' Sus Lisa wants ter draw.

Day's all uv 'em set on sum'n big,
An' dey'll stir de w'ul, dey 'low;
But nary wun ain't gwinter dig,
An' nary wun ain't gwinter plow.

So I'as really 'long heah wid de grass
Fer ter mak 'um meat an' bread;
W'en dey cum back wid dey collidge
an,
An' 'lornin' in dey head.

Dey'll tawk dey highfalutin' meen,
An' 'scuse de dey city ways;
An' dat 'em 'll be educated bes'
Dat we don't know w'at he says.

Yes, I'as really 'heah wid de cow an,
Fer ter mak or RT' crop;
Fer de chilluns ter sport dey striped socks,
An' dismash dey pig.

Kas dey's all uv 'em set on sum'n big,
An' dey'll stir de w'ul, dey 'low;
But nary wun ain't gwinter dig,
An' nary 'em ain't gwinter plow.

The Circulating Library.

The fall months are here now and the long nights and cooler weathers suggest a return to things literary and to study. The public library is receiving books continually that invite the lover of good reading to spend his spare time in a profitable way. The library is contributing a great deal to the higher literary supply of the citizens of New Bern. It is an enterprise that should be more appreciated by everybody.

The public are cordially invited to inspect this library and they will undoubtedly find among the volumes some book to their exact liking. There are books in the library for all sorts of people and they will find much pleasure in these books.

Cotton And Grain Exchange Elect Officers And Transact Other Business.

The Cotton & Grain Exchange is composed of gentlemen in active business here and it is organized with the intent and purpose of increasing the cotton trade at New Bern. While, of course, its primary business is to bring cotton to this market there are other considerations which incidentally have their importance and which should be borne in mind as they affect the community. The organization offers the highest market price for cotton and solicits the farmers' patronage feeling sure that they can not do better with their cotton than in New Bern. They are in touch with the northern markets and have facilities for giving the farmers the best prices going.

Following are the officers elected yesterday at the annual meeting of the exchange.

President, E. H. Meadows.
Vice President, E. W. Rosenthal.
Treasurer, T. A. Green.
Secretary, James Redmond.
Directors, J. W. Stewart, F. M. Hahn, J. A. Meadows, D. L. Roberts, Ralph Gray.
Board of Appeals, F. M. Hahn, S. H. Scott, H. C. Lumsden, C. E. Foy, J. W. Stewart.
Superintendent, G. A. Oliver.
