ANOTHER ATTACK.

On Dispensary On Ground of Substitution.

Appeals of Fourth District. Wake County
Farmers For Eleven Cent Cotton.

Serenade by Confederates

D. U. Corps, Wonderful Escape From Death.

Raleigh, N. C. Sept. 18, 1905.—The Supreme court will tomorrow take up the appeals from the fourth district. There are only two state cases, one of these being out of the ordinary. A man who was hunting turkeys in the woods saw the bushes move and thinking this was caused by a turkey fired and killed a man. The man who shot is really being prosecuted under an old English law as a poacher and the Attorney General has been looking up the English laws on that subject. He was hunting on a hidden land and also at a time when turkeys were out of season.

The Wake county farmers who grow cotton will meet tomorrow and will definitely fix the price at eleven cents. They know the crop is a short one and they have securities from the business men that cotton can be stored in warehouses. They and the business men have co-operated all during the present year regarding cotton.

Tomorrow the saloon men will start another form of their attack on the dispensary, this being that there was preference in selling certain brands of whiskey. The dispensary management says that there is no truth in this and further that there has been no "substitution" that is the brand of whiskey asked for was given, and if it was not in stock no other sort was offered in place of it.

This afternoon the drum corps of the ocal camp of Confederate Veterans here went out to the Soldiers' Home and gave a serenade to the inmates, to their great delight. This, as has been stated, is the only Confederate drum corps in existence.

The number of students at the A & M College has reached 400 and that number took dinner today in the large mess hall. It would be easy to have 1000 students at the college if room were provided for them. It would cost about $200,000 to provide the additional dormitory room, lecture rooms etc.

Early in August a man who was tiling the roof of the Agricultural building at the Agricultural and Mechanical College slipped from the roof and fell 45 feet to the ground, breaking both arms one leg and injuring his back. Yesterday he left here for his home in Virginia. As he passed the college he showed your correspondent the place from which he fell and said, as showing his presence of mind, that he fell head foremost, but bent his body so that he struck on his hands and feet and thus saved himself.

THE EQUINOX

The Annual Storm Occurs And Does Business
Without Any Fuss.

We have passed through the equinoctial storm period a few days earlier than usual. Last Friday night marked the beginning and it continued intermittently until about 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Although the rain fell in large quantities mostly during the night, there was no disturbance either by lightning or wind; it was a straight out rain and came in big lots.

With all the moisture that we have had it would be natural to suppose that the humidity would be lessened but on the other hand, it has increased making the weather very disagreeable. The temperature stood at the 25 degrees at the maximum and 76 degrees for the minimum Sunday. Yesterday the thermometer registered about 50 degrees.

The total rainfall for the period was 3.58 inches. The greater portion of it falling on Saturday and early Sunday morning. This is the largest amount of rainfall that we have had for several months.

TO CATARRH SUFFERERS

Hyomei Guaranteed to Cure By F. S. Duffy
Or Money Refunded.

The popularity and increase in the sales of Hyomei are unique in the annals of medicine. Such astonishing cures have been made by this remedy that the proprietors have authorized F. S. Duffy to sell every package of Hyomei under an absolute guarantee that it will cure catarrh. If it does not, the purchaser can have his money refunded by F. S. Duffy.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00 and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler lasts a lifetime, and if one bottle does not cure, an extra bottle of Hyomei can be obtained for 50 cents. It is the most economical of all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh, and is the only one that follows Nature in her methods of treating diseases of the respiratory organs.

Breathe through the inhaler for a few minutes four times a day, and your catarrh is cured. That's all. If not cured F. S. Duffy will refund your money.

SHOT AND RAN.

Two Negroes Engage in an Encounter on Cedar Street. Shoot at Each Other and Escape. No Arrests.

The usual Sabbath stillness which is generally the rule on Cedar street on that day was rudely broken Sunday afternoon by a fuss made of pistol shots. The suggestion of a sanguinary affair had a tendency to make most people timid about venturing out and the shooters shot at each other quite boldly until one of them, apparently getting shy on ammunition did the next best thing and burned the wind. His capabilities as a sprinter were fully demonstrated as he ran down one street to the other with policemen and citizens after him until he reached the steamer Ocaroke lying at its dock.

He had run steadily over a mile and when he reached the steamer it probably seemed to him that he had reached a refuge.

He was fireman on the steamer and knew the ins and outs of the lower hold perfectly. He felt that he could be once he enounced in that place he could defy the officers of the law with impunity. He reckoned wisely; for when he got aboard he was down in the furnace room and hidden in the dark recesses of the nether part of the steamer where no one could find him who was not perfectly acquainted with the place. A long search was therefore ineffectual. The other man also escaped in the excitement and nothing has been heard of him.

The duel—for such it apparently was, was like similar affairs that take place in France once in a while. There's lots of shooting, honor vindicated but no gore shed. The cause of the shooting is not known.

Former New Bernian Dead

Doctor J. M. Davies died at his home in Warren, Tenn., on Monday Sept. 11th, aged 77 years.

Doctor Davies will be remembered by many of our older citizens, as a successful practicing physician, and mayor of the city about forty years ago. He removed to Pennsylvania in 1860. Two sons and a daughter survive him.

SHOOTING AFFAIR IN ONSLOW.

Three Men Wounded in a Mixup At Rich-lands.

A most sensational shooting affair occurred at Richlands, Onslow county, last Thursday night in which two men are said to have been badly wounded. The names of the three negroes who were principals were not known to the Journal's informant.

The facts as related to the Journal are that a negro shot at two colored men, brothers, while they were in their house; the shooting being done through the door or window. They returned the fire but missed him. The man ran away and a crowd of negroes ran after him but he kept them at a distance with his gun which was a Winchester repeating rifle of large calibre. The man continued his running until he was encountered by a white man named Humphrey who was armed. The negro tried to avoid Humphrey and the latter shot at him and wounded him. The negro also fired at Humphrey but failed to hit him. The negro was found some time later in a cotton field weak from the loss of blood. He was arrested and taken to the Jacksonville jail. His wound is not regarded as serious.

The cause of the shooting was said to be the accusations which the brothers made against the prisoner, and their threats concerning him. He was accused of adultery with their mother and had threatened to kill her on sight. The negro heard of it and procured the rifle to be prepared for any trouble and intended affairs by going to the house and shooting the men. It is not known to what extent the men are hurt but it is said to be probably very serious.

BABY'S ECZEMA

Top of Head Covered with Scales Which Peeled off
Taking Hair with Them.

CURED BY CUTICURA

Now Six Years Old with Thick
Hair and Clean Scalp.
Cure Permanent.

"My baby was six weeks old when the top of her head became covered with thick scales, which would peel and come off, taking the hair with it. It would soon form again and be as bad as before. My doctor said it was Eczema, and prescribed an ointment, which did no good. I then tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I washed her head in warm water and Cuticura Soap and gently combed the scales off. They did not come back and her hair grew out fine and thick. She is now a year and a half old, and has no trace of Eczema."
MRS. C. W. BURGESS, Trinitarian Ave., Bridgeport, Conn., Feb. 21, 1898.

Instant relief and refreshing sleep for skin-tortured babies and rest for tired, worried mothers in warm baths with Cuticura Soap, and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, purest of emollients and greatest of skin cures. A Novel And Interesting Play.

At the New Maconic Theatre this evening Miss Eugenie Blair and her company of players will be seen in the most interesting of Henrik Ibsen's dramas "A Doll's House."

Miss Blair has for years been a devoted student of the great Norwegian dramatist, and her presentation of this play should prove the most interesting dramatic event of the season. Even from her earliest writing the best critics have conceded to Ibsen the possession of remarkable genius, and it is in "A Doll's House" that this master of realism reaches his high at plane and presents a study of social conditions that has never been equalled.

Miss Blair's production of "A Doll's House" will follow minutely the conception of the author, great care being exercised to retain the true Ibsen atmosphere, and the supporting company has been specially selected because of their intimate knowledge of the works of the great Norwegian dramatist.
