OFFICIAL PAPER OF NEW BERN AND CRAVEN COUNTY.

New Bern, N.C., Sept. 30 1905.

AND SOCIAL

Reciprocity between nations is very often held to be the great panacea on the pen of Mark E. Swan and is said to its commercial side, to unit countries for peace and trade interests, and prove a bulwark against possible international complications which might and popular. Entirely new scenic and lead to war and bloodshed.

If reciprocity is so important and beneficial between nations, what must be said in its favor when given local application in a community, when neighbors join interests to assist each other and promote good feelings, com mercially and socially. If there is one certain means to give developmet and establish local stability in trade, it is through the reciprocal efforts of every citizen to trade with the home merchant and for merchant and citizen to work together to promote and build up local enterprises.

In no particular, usually is the lack of reciprocity so evident, as is that shown towards the local newspaper. Here is an enterprise, an institution, which stands for every community interest, gives free help to local enterprises, bears the brunt and fights every outside attack made upon its people, and this without any recompense. And yet in every community there are citizens who accept its newspaper's favors in way of local protection, and never advertise in its columns, or subscribe for its issues. But if one the friends of such men die, or a relative gets in the police court, or a social function is given, there is the favor to be asked of the local newsper, to suppress the evil, police protection, and abuse the officer who does not come to his help on the

The Season's Hit

The musical comedy "Fritz and Snitz" in which the two distinguished stars Mason and Mason and a company of sixty people appear, will be seen at New Masonic Opera House, Wednezday Oct. 4th, the organization is under the management of Broadhurst and Currie, who are in the foremost ranks of pro-LOCAL RECIPROCITY. BUSINESS ducing managers and they are said to have gone to great expense in making this one of the most noteworthy productions on the road. The play is from be one of the best that this famous playwright has ever written. The music which is by Max S. Witt and De Witt C. Coolman is reported as catchy electric equipments have been built and brand new costumes provided for this, the second season of the play which has been rewritten so as to be entirely upto date. A rollicking chorus of pretty girls is said to add greatly to the gayety of the piece and from reports it seems that "Fritz and Snitz" is one of the greatest hits of the boards.
