FINE IN THE MOUNTAINS

Says Auditor Dixon Just Back. Secretary Glenn Not So Well. Mexican War Veterans Convention.

Raleigh, Oct. 17.—A charter is granted to the Farmers, Merchants and Bankers Warehouse Company of Maxton, capital stock $35,000, to store cotton, tobacco and other commodities and deal in the same. A. J. McKinnon and others being the stockholders.

The Christian Advocate Publishing Co. of Greensboro, is authorized to reduce its capital stock from $10,800 to $6,000. D. B. Coltrane is the president of the company.

Warrants are issued for 17 libraries by the State for rural public schools, four going to Haywood and three to Wilkes.

State Auditor Dixon has returned from a trip through the splendid mountain section of Buncombe, Wancey and Madison. He says he had a grand time, made seven speeches, all in the interest of local taxation for public schools. He says there was a large attendance and marked interest and he was deeply gratified at the abundant enthusiasm on the subject of education. He says the people in that section are in first class condition. To quote him: "The big roads are full of chestnuts, and the apple trees are full of apples, the finest I ever saw. We don't get these apples, it is too expensive to ship them here. The mountains are gloriously beautiful now. I never enjoyed a trip more in all my life. I spoke Saturday at Lattimore in my home county of Cleveland, to a great gathering of people."

Governor Glenn said today that his brother, Private Secretary James D. Glenn, was not so well as he was yesterday. His recovery from his severe attack of Sunday is slow.

This afternoon in the city hall the convention of Veterans of the Mexican War was held. Col. Louis F. Beeler of the National Association presided. Mayor James Iredell Johnson made the speech of welcome and the chaplain, Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshall offered prayer. Most of the veterans are very feeble but two or three, including Orren B. Smith and Justice M. B. Barbee are quite spry.

No mercury, no minerals, no danger in Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. The greatest family tonic known. Brings good health to all who use it. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. For sale by F. S. Duffy.

Sin's Consequences

Innocent Indulgence Often Brings Trouble—F. S. Duffy Offers Means of Escape.

The consequences of violating physical law are often as unpleasant as the breaking of a moral rule. The innocent indulgence of over-eating brings consequences that amount to real suffering. Indigestion is not natural; it is not right; it should not be. F. S. Duffy offers a means of escape in Mi-na tablets that is simple and practical. These simple tablets are composed of such valuable medical agents as bismuth subgallate, which is superior to all other remedies for stomach troubles, curium oxalate, and tonics and correctives which promote the action of the digestive organs, strengthen the whole digestive tract, and make it possible to eat what you like and when you like.

Ask F. S. Duffy to show you the guarantee under which he sells Mi-na. It costs nothing unless it cures. The risk is all his.

FAIR FORMALLY OPENED.

New Record in Attendance. Decorations on City Buildings.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 17.—People poured in here today by the thousand and in the afternoon everything was in a stir. The bureau of information, which has its offices in the Capitol Club building, furnished rooms and other quarters to great numbers of persons and is proving itself a notable convenience. The decoration of public and private buildings went on all day. Across the principal street a very large net banner was displayed with an immense picture of President Roosevelt upon it.

The attendance at the fair-grounds was extremely good today, and in fact broke the record for the opening day. Governor Glenn and President Ashley Horne of the State Agricultural Society were escorted to the grounds by Chief Marshal B. Frank McNamee and a great number of assistants, all well mounted. So many marshals had never been seen here before, and they represent all parts of the State. Governor formally opened the fair. Everything presented a very attractive appearance, the new grand-stand proving very convenient.

The space beneath is utilized and in fact every bit of the space available within the grounds is occupied. So many shows were never seen before at a fair. The agricultural exhibit needs stimulation. There are many county fairs north of here which make better exhibits in their department, and some township fairs are large or larger in this respect. Steps will have to be taken to induce counties to make exhibits by the offer of very handsome prizes, most probably in money.

Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is positive, never nauseates or upsets the stomach. Cleanses and purifies the entire system. A great blessing to suffering humanity. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. For sale by F. S. Duffy.

An Aggregation of Talent.

The Donnelly & Hatfield magnificent minstrels, under the personal direction of Al. G. Field, have made the vocal music of their splendid entertainment one of its chief features. The singing contingent, under the efficient and capable direction of Frank M. Decker is larger and more talented than was ever brought together with a minstrel company. It has always been the purpose of this popular organization to offer the latest ballads of the day by the best singers. With this end in view Albert Barnsdale, the eminent English tenor, the best singer of the simple, touching melodies of the day, has been engaged. He stands pre-eminent among tenors. George Brown, a tenor robusto, has sung his way into popular favor throughout the country. His classical selections are a revelation to his auditors. The powerful baritone of Fred Warner has made him famous. Chas. F. Carney, alto, has a remarkable voice and is one of the song hits of the bill. W. Walling has made his mark during the years he has appeared as a tenor soloist, for his pure, clear voice has a charm for all. William Norman, soprano and Norman Stanley contra-bass, add to the general pleasing effects of the singing. Frank M. Decker has a powerful bass. Profundo voice which has established his reputation throughout the country. A score of twenty cultured singers completes the great vocal contingent of the Donnelly & Hatfield magnificent minstrels.

The Donnelly & Hatfield Minstrels will appear at the New Masonic Opera House Friday night, Oct. 20.—A. P. N.

TRUE NORTH CAROLINA GENTLEMEN.

What Governor Glenn Said on President Roosevelt's Coming.

Special to Journal:

Raleigh, Oct. 17.—Governor Glenn in opening the State Fair here today said: "This is a proud occasion. In times gone by several Presidents have been with our people, but this is the first year in the history of North Carolina when the President of the United States is coming to give expression to his views in a speech. I hope our people will welcome him truly and cordially. I ask every man to lay aside his feelings and prejudices if they are contrary to the spirit in which we should receive him and let us heartily welcome the ruler of the greatest nation on earth. (a great cheering). He is to be the guest of North Carolina and I ask you to remember that all of you are true North Carolina gentlemen."

Work on Raleigh & Pamlico Railroad

M. C. O. Haines, President of the Raleigh & Pamlico Sound Railroad Co., is in the city and informs us that the work of construction of the line from Raleigh to Washington will be rapidly pushed to completion and he will have one hundred convicts at work grading and building across Chocowinity Swamp near Washington, before January 1st. Sixteen miles of the road has been built near Raleigh and it is the purpose to have sufficient force to complete this to Wilson by the spring and to have the grading on several parts of the line going on at the same time, so that the entire line will be ready for operation at an early date.
