WILL HAVE A HANDSOME NEW STATION.

The A & N C Co Will Build a Modern Depot for the Benefit of the Traveling Public at Kinston

Appreciating the fact that Kinston is one of the most prosperous and enterprising towns on its line, the Atlantic & North Carolina Company is preparing to erect there a new passenger station that will be more adequate to the business of the place and more in keeping with the spirit of progress in evidence on all sides than is the present station. Mr. Horace West, agent of the A. & N. Co. in Kinston has received the plans for the new station and is inviting bids of contractors for its erection at once.

The new station will be located near the present one—between the tracks. To give room for this, the old station and cotton platform will be removed and the tracks on either side thrown further out. In this way room will be made for a building 22 feet 3 inches by 53 feet 8 inches, with ample platforms facing both tracks and a carriage approach from the street. The white waiting room will front the street and will be 22 feet 3 inches by 14 feet 8 inches; then will come the ticket office, and next the colored waiting room, which will be 15 feet 9 inches by 11 feet 6 inches. The baggage room at the western end of the building will be 15 feet 9 inches by 15 feet. Every modern convenience in the way of ventilation, water, heat, etc. has been provided for the building. It will be supplied with handsome furniture.

The above illustration gives a better idea of the proposed new station and its arrangement than can any description. The plans for the station were drawn by Mr. Bradford L. Gilbert, No. 50 Broadway, New York, the architect who designed the buildings for the Charleston Exposition. As can be seen from the accompanying illustration, the building will be Moorish in style, cream colored stucco, with red tile roofing—the sort of building one would expect to find in Florida. In fact, it will be such a station as will add much to the attractiveness of Kinston as seen from the railroad.

In addition to being a structure possessing architectural beauty and attractive surroundings, the plans indicate that provisions will be made in it for the accommodation of much heavier travel than Kinston now affords. In the Kinston of today the railroad management evidently finds grounds for faith in the Kinston of the future.

The estimated cost of the building will be something like $6,000, not taking into account the money that must be spent in purchasing additional lands, tearing out the old station, changing the tracks and beautifying the grounds. When all these things are accounted for, the cost of improvements the Atlantic & North Carolina Company has made and is making about its station in Kinston will reach something like $10,000.

NO FAVORITISM

Murray Cannot Have Fitted Up Cell at Durham.

Governor Says Same Conditions for All Criminals. Who Shot Smith Remains Unsettled. Masonic Temple Building Must Wait. Physicians to Examine Sorrell.

Raleigh, Oct. 27.—The unraveling of the mystery that surrounds the killing of Charles G. Smith of Petersburg last Saturday here is attracting a keen interest here and it looks now like it will be hard to prove that either one of the two men under arrest, Lillister and Morris fired the fatal shot, or rather, which one of them did. After the shooting it was published here and elsewhere that the dead man was the same as the man Smith who was arrested for picking the pocket of a man at the Raleigh dispensary, Police Justice Badger and others identifying as such. However these officials and others have since decided that they were in error and that the men were not the same although they resembled each other considerably. It is an amusing fact that the man whose pocket was picked by the other Smith was an inmate of the county poor house and he had $1.40 which was recovered when the fellow was arrested and gave the $100 bond.

Regret is heard on every hand for the fact that the building committee of the grand lodge masonic temple have decided not to proceed with the erection of the temple, but have postponed further action until the next session of the grand lodge in January for the reason that the plans as adopted will require $165,000 and all that the lodge has authorized to be expended is $125,000. They do not wish to reduce the plans. All the tenants in the old buildings that are to be torn away to give place to the new temple had been notified to vacate and several had already done so. It is more than probable that the grand lodge will arrange for the work to begin in the early spring.

Governor Glenn is to appoint within the next few days a committee of physicians to examine the condition of Sheriff Rowan Rogers and J. P. Sorrell and ascertain whether their close confinement is injuring their health and if it is that the Governor will grant them the privilege of "prison bonds", they are serving terms in jail for tampering with the jury in the noted Gattis-Kilgo suit. Both are old men, and their confinement is said to be going very hard with both of them.

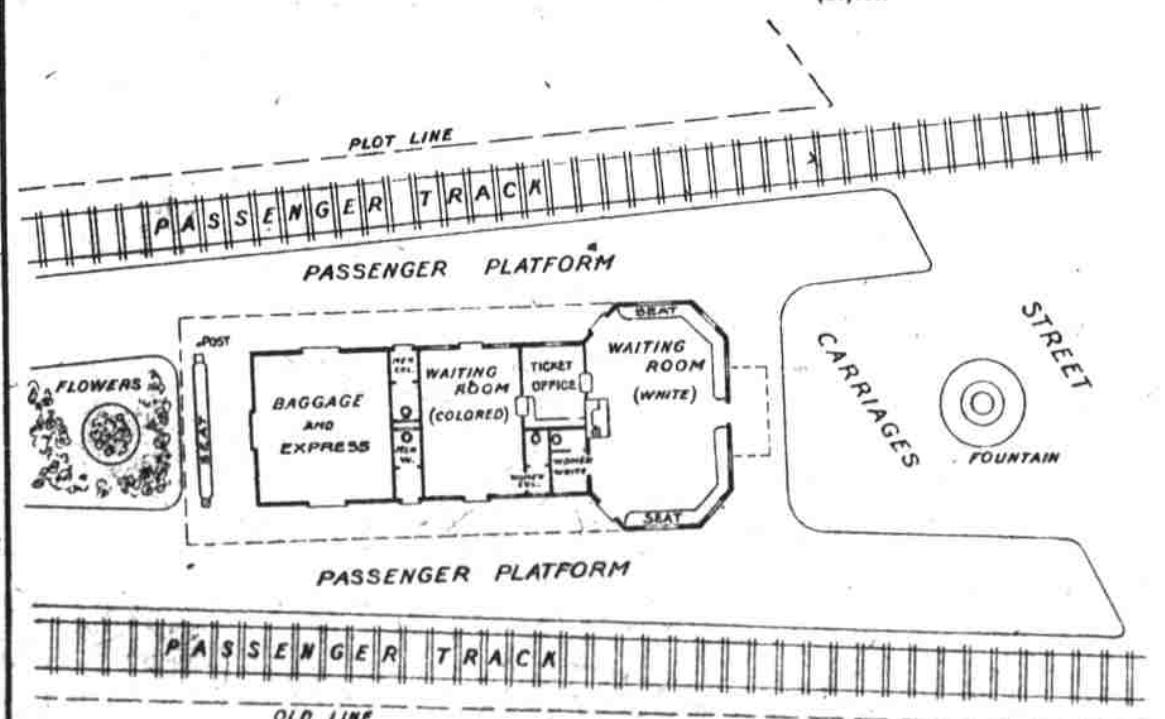

Governor Glenn gave out a statement this morning to the effect that he had his attention called to the newspaper accounts of the manner in which the cell was being fixed up in the Durham county jail for W. R. Murray to serve the two years sentence for killing his uncle J. S. Murray, and that he had written to the sheriff of the county to know if it is true that he had modified Murray's sentence from hard labor of the roads to imprisonment for human life's sake because of the man's physical condition and not in order that he might establish himself a place of business or recreation in the county jail. That the sentence must be served in the same conditions and environments that the poorest class of citizens would have to serve theirs. The reports were to the effect that Murray was to have a regular office equipment in the cell, receive his salary as president of the county house and receive daily reports of the business.

If you want a pretty face and delightful air, keep cheeks and lovely hair, washing trip across the sea, and your faith in Rocky Mount in you. For sale by F. S. Duffy, Secretary to Governor Glenn.

Raleigh, Oct. 27.—Governor appoints Archibald H. Arrington, who for nearly two years has been teller of the State Treasury, his private secretary. Arrington is a son of the late ex-sheriff John P. Arrington of Nash county, a special friend of Governor Glenn, who says by the appointment he honors the memory of his friend.

An All Star Company.

The Woods-Browning Stock Company which is to be at the Opera House all next week with the exception of Tuesday night is receiving splendid notices in the press wherever they appear. They are actors of more than ordinary merit and have a repertoire of the very best shows going.

During the week they will appear in the following plays: Monday, "Because He Loved Her." Wednesday Matinee, "Down on the Farm;" Wednesday night, "Northern Lights;" Thursday, "Dens and Palaces;" Friday, "A Prisoner of War;" Saturday matinee, "Master and Man;" Saturday night, "Deadwood Dick."

We publish a comment on their productions taken from the Wilmington Dispatch, of Oct. 26:

In spite of the rain a good sized audience was at the Academy last night and witnessed a fine presentation of "Northern Lights" by the Woods-Browning Stock Company. The play is one that held popular favor in the larger cities of the north a couple of more years ago and is a splendid one. The production given of the piece by the Woods-Browning Company was correctly made as to costumes and scenery, both being of the west and in the day of the fearless Custer, and the cast did good work. The specialties were again greatly enjoyed.

For tonight the company offers "Dens and Palaces," which is another popular success and for the presentation of which the company has been highly praised.

Warm Words of Praise.

Morehead City Conster: The new Centenary church in New Bern, costing $75,000, was dedicated by Bishop Duncan last Sunday. It is an honor to New Bern Methodism. A balance of $40,000 was due and in half an hour all was subscribed. It is the prettiest architecturally and best appointed edifice in our State. Sordid gain does not reign triumphant over a people whose hearts are in a noble work like building and paying for their church. Their purse-strings are unclashed at a call from their God. And long may they live to enjoy it. Mrs. J. A. Mead owns will put in the church a $5,000 pipe organ.

Historical Document Received.

Raleigh, Oct. 27.—The North Carolina Historical Commission has received from Mr. Horace Winston, who is now a Cecil Rhodes student at Christ Church, Oxford, England, a certified copy of the publication in the English Gazette, about the Edenton "Tea Party" of 1775. It is strange to say the name of Elizabeth Roberts appears three times, that of Elizabeth Veil twice and that of Mary Croxy twice, so the publication made by Mr. Halsey of New York was correct in particular. No reason is known why these names thus appear.

Mr. Winston writes that he searched the British museum for the copy of the much sought for Cape Fear Mercury, said to contain the Mackinburg declaration of May 20th, 1775, but it was not there, and that he intends to run down to London from Oxford again and search for this paper in the Bodleian Library where there are a great many documents of the highest historical value.

SCARBORO SENTENCED

Kinston Rural Mail Carrier Will Do Time in The Federal Prison at Atlanta. The full term of the United States Court ended yesterday morning, the only business transacted was to impose the sentence on the rural mail carrier, Samuel W. Scarboro, of Kinston, who on Thursday, was found guilty of the charge of sending an obscene letter through the mail. Eighteen months at hard labor in the prison at Atlanta is the punishment inflicted. He was taken to Raleigh by deputy United States Marshal, P. A. Mitchell, last night and from there he will be taken to Atlanta. The prisoner's father was with him all through the trial and was much affected when the sentence was passed.

Judge Pursell, District Attorney, Harry Skinner, and Assistant District Attorney, J. H. Giles, Marshal H. C. Dockery and Deputy Marshal, John C. Dockery, left for Raleigh yesterday morning.

Federal Court will be held in Wilmington next week.

Dedictory Services Completed.

The last service of the formal dedication of the Centenary Methodist church took place last night. Rev. Dr. L. W. Crawford of Raleigh, preached a scholarly and edifying sermon which was greatly enjoyed by the large congregation. Rev. H. A. Wills of Lenoir, officiated in the afternoon service.

Don't Neglect Yourself.

1608 Second Street, Louisville, Ky., April 14, 1905.

I have been weak and sickly for the past four years, caused by irregularity and carelessness regarding the laws of health, but about five months ago my condition became very serious. I had severe backache and suffered a constant dull pain in my head. I spent many restless days, and miserable, restless nights. The doctor told me that I must have patience. His medicine did not, however, give me even temporary relief and as I had been told of the curative qualities of Wine of Cardui I decided to try it. I found that it relieved me of pain. As my general health improved my other troubles were gradually diminished and after five weeks' use of the Wine of Cardui I was once more a well and happy woman.

Res. L. M. THOMPSON, Director, BETHOVEN MUSICAL SOCIETY.

WINE OF CARDUI

Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow, banishes headaches, backaches and bearing-down pains. Severe headaches, bearing-down pains, indigestion, loss of appetite and nervousness are symptoms of female weakness and should be given prompt attention. If you are troubled with menstrual irregularities do not let them run on. They will certainly grow into dangerous and chronic troubles. Get a bottle of Wine of Cardui and begin treatment at once.

All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
