North Carolina Says Lumber

Hel's Manigement. Death of Cade Weaver. Mary Baird Clarke's Poems To be Published. Tree Salling

Graft Being Stopped. Raleigh, Nov. 17 -- It is learned that the directors of Congressman Spencer Blackburn's paper at Greensboro, the Tarheel were in mession last night and placed the paper in the hands of T. B. Eldridge as general manager. George S. Bradshaw is for the present the editor, his daties being solely confined to that. Mr. Reynolds of Winston-Salem was elected secretary and treas-urer of the company.

The death of cadet Weaver cause much sadness at the Agricultural & Mechanical College. He was from Thermal City, McDowell county. He had an attack of fever which was fol lowed by meningitis and fatty deger. eration of the heart. He had beer sick ever since the third week in October and the family physician had been with him for three weeks. There are four other cadets who have had fever all of whom are convalescing, these being Ewart of Hendersonville, Sullivan of Lincolnton, Moore of Rocky Mount and Ogborne of Greensboro The parents of Sullivan and Moore have been with them for some time. It is hospital in a day or so. He is the college bugler and is the son of Rev. J. T.

In the course of an interview with of the lumber men, who are stockholders in the Eastern Carolina Lumber here the timber reproduces itself so better served. quickly, particularly in the swamps, n Michigan where he has worked. when timber is cut down, none grows again, and the forests become a waste, much of it being swamped and unfit for agricultural purposes, Then. too, the cost of buying timberland in Michigan and of installing plants is so great that only millionaires can face it. This ea t ern lumber company will mainly work what is known as the bowl-gum, the right name of which is the tupolo or tupelo gum, which grows in the swamps and which is used in the north and in Europe very largely for flooring. Black gum timber will warp, but the tupelo will not do so. The lower part of this tupelo tree is when dry, as light as cork, and in fact is used for fishing corks by the seine makers, on the oast of this State and other States as well. This gum is good for wooden dishes, crates, etc. and also for bottle covers and many other purposes.

A letter to your correspondent from
Mr. Winchester Hall of Pocomoke City Md. brings the good news that the poems of Mrs. Mary Baird Clarke of of North Carolina will be published some time this month. Mr. Hail, who is 87 years of age and who was the colonel of a regiment in the Confederate army, had collected and edited these poems, which were written by a very gifted woman, inquestionably the most notable poet North Carolina has yet produced. Colonel Hall has written a book on "Self Development" which he has written in order to be helpful to young people, and he has a steadfast faith that will serve its purpose. No doubt the poems referred to will be on sale by all the booksellers in this State expose what came to be known as "the cherry tree swindle" as a result of the exposure the fost office authorities and those of the State "taking swift steps to nab the racals engaged in this swin die and to punish them. Now information comes on the quiet of another swindle. Some persone are going through the State making sales of what the term, "German grafted" trees, declaring that the apples, peaches, pearagete, grafted on stocks by this company were not subject to diseases, and do not need apraying etc. Another hranch of the business operated by the same people is the sale of what is called. "I o llush Brrawberries" this being a worthless plant, which was imported a few years ago from some of the east. If you wish a smooth, clear, recambles complexion, the berry not being a strawberry at all. Your correspondent had a talk with State Horticulturist.

The board after several hours sessio declined to grant options on the Angola Bay Lands to Mr Johnson representing the Norfolk syndicate and Ex. Gov. Aycock 'representing the Goldsboro syndicate, so no sale is made.

PAUL GILMORE AS "CAPTAIN DE-BONNAIRE."

How Church and Stage Can Aid Each Other.

Paul Gilmore is an earnest advocate and the stage. The young star who oubted whether Ogborne had typloid this year is presenting the spectacular fever. He will be discharged from the romantic comedy, "Captain Debonnaire," believes that the two institutions have much in common and that by working in harmony each can assist the other to a higher standard.

"Naturally, the first object of the Mr. White of Toledo, Ohio, who is one stage is to amuse, or, more properly, to entertain." said the young star recently, "while that of the church is to instruct and uplift. LET US GIVE THANKS.

It oft behooves a State, as well as an individual, to look at the past, that it may realize the mercies for which it has to be thankful, and to give expresof Education, Governor Glenn presiding sion to its gratitude by words and acts

If our State will take this backward glance, it will find that during the last year the measure of our mercies has been full to overflowing, and that our Angola Bay or swamp in Jones and meet of praise should be given without

In agricultural pursuits we have been blessed with fair crops, and prices for farm, products have been above the average, until the farmer is enjoying a He is also gradually learning the lesson of diversifying his crops, making his own supplies, thus be abling to hold him products for increased prices.
