AIR FOR FIREMEN.

An Important Invention for Protecting Lives of Fire Department Heroes.

A Californian, Charles E. Chapin, has invented a breathing apparatus for firemen. It is composed of a hood lined with oiled silk, and an air cylinder, strapped to the back and carrying an hour's supply of air. A rubber tube brings the air to the head piece. The exhaled air goes out by a valve in front of the mouth. The whole thing weighs twenty-three pounds. The wearer can get only air enough to fill his lungs reasonably. He cannot use it all up in a little time. A San Francisco man put this apparatus on, worked for an hour in a room filled with the fumes of burning sulfur, and was all right in lungs and throat when he came out. If it does what it is described as doing, it is a necessity for every fireman. "With the Procession," Everybody's Magazine for January.

ANOTHER NEW YORK HORROR

False Work in Pennsylvania Railway Tunnel Falls Burying Five Men.

New York Dec. 21.--Five men were buried and twenty others hit by rocks and beams by the collapse of falsework in the Pennsylvania Railroad tunnel at the foot of West Thirty-third street this morning. Two hundred laborers engaged in the work were thrown into a panic. Five of the men were finally dug out and sent to hospitals, while the others were attended by ambulance surgeons. The men were at work one hundred feet below the surface following the excavators and laying beams for the concrete workers. The men were above on a platform about twenty feet above the base of the tunnel and when it collapsed the heavy beam buried five men into the soft earth.

MOONSHINE KILLING.

Graphic Account of Duplin County Tragedy.

Nick Rogers of Carleton Was Probably Owner With Killed Man.

Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 21.--Investigation into the killing of Watson Jernigan, moonshiner in Duplin county by deputy revenue collector Downing, reveals the fact that the illicit distillery where the killing occurred, most probably belonged to Nick Rogers, moonshiner and counsellor who is a product of Rollinsville, this county. Your correspondent procured from a high official of the government today a very interesting story about this man Rogers. He was convicted of counterfeiting here about ten years ago and sent to the penitentiary. He returned to the State and set up a moonshine still at Newport, a few miles this side of Beaufort, where the sheriff allowed him the run of the town, for which offence against the Federal law Judge Seymour imposed a heavy fine upon the sheriff, Rogers having escaped. He was so daring that he turned up at Newport again and for many years operated a moonshine outfit there, lodging the officers with great skill, but finally was arrested and taken to Beaufort, where a United States Commissioner very foolishly allowed him to give bond for $200, Rogers of course being and forfeiting this and his bonds narrowly escaping dismissal from office for his carelessness in the matter.

Rogers has a brother who was arrested at Newport with him, was tried at New Bern, convicted and at once made a break from the court house, it taking four officers to catch him. He was sent to the penitentiary for a couple of years. There is now a case pending against Nick Rogers at New Bern. The next heard of this man was as owner of the still where Jernigan was killed. Directly after the killing of Jernigan, Rogers had a sort of row with members of the Jernigan family regarding the division of the product of the still. One of the officers who made a raid on the still saw Rogers but could not capture him. The official who gave this information about Rogers says that he is a desperate character and that he has despatched every neighborhood in which he has carried on his illicit business.

PRESERVATIVES USED

By Meat Sellers Says State Biologist.

Two Pardons Refused, One Granted on Condition. After The Moonshiners Suits. Historical Inspection.

Raleigh, Dec. 21.--Governor Glenn acted today in regard to three applications for pardon. He refused clemency to Jordan Jones, of Tyrrell, who was convicted of retailing whiskey without license and sentenced to three months on the public roads, the governor's comment being that the sentence was light enough. He refused to pardon Joe Mason, convicted in New Hanover of secret assault, the comment being that the act was wilful and deliberate and with intent to kill. In the case of Claud Boyden of Rowan, convicted of larceny and sentenced to two years, and who has served one year, the governor grants a conditional pardon, on the recommendation of the judge and solicitor, the co-defendant in the case having made an affidavit that Boyden was not present when the crime was committed and knew nothing about it. Revenue officers made a raid Sunday night, and near Wake Forest, after capturing a still, went to the house of a negro where they found whiskey hidden. This man is charged with moonshining and he made his escape from the officers but strange to say he came here and surrendered himself to the United States commissioners. The State biologist makes the very plain statement that he does not believe there is a meat seller in the State who does not poison the meat he sells by the use of preservatives, and that the Agricultural Department is not obeying the law which requires the publication of the names of the persons who violate it, whether packers or sellers. He says that owing to this failure the meat sellers continue their offenses. Your correspondent published last week extracts from his report which showed much use of boric acid, sulphite of soda, etc.

It is probable that a representative of the North Carolina Historical Commission will request the privilege of going to New York in order to be there on the 30th inst, to inspect the copy of the Cape Fear Mercury of June 3, 1775, which Dr. F. Millington Miller says he will then and there exhibit to the committee from Charlotte, composed of Prof. Alexander Graham, R. O. Alexander, and Geo. W. Graham.

Revolutionists and Imperial Forces in Pitched Battle.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 21.--The imperial troops have retaken Tukum from the revolutionists after a pitched battle lasting twelve hours. The rebels defended the place according to scientific military methods. The troops finally stormed the rebels and the positions were captured at the point of bayonets. It is stated there were heavy losses on both sides.

BABY GIRL'S AWFUL HUMOR

Would Scab Over, Break Open, and Be Raw--Intense Suffering for Two Years--Doctors and Medicines Failed to Help Her.

CURED BY CUTICURA AT COST OF 75 CENTS

Writing under date of Aug. 15, 1904, Mrs. J. C. Walker, of 5 Tremont St., Woodford, Va., says: "My sister had a terrible humor on her shoulder when she was eighteen months old, causing intense suffering for two years. We had several doctors, and tried everything, but in spite of all we did it kept spreading. One day it would scab over and then crack open and a watery matter ooze from it and the scabs would all fall off. It would be raw for a time, then scab over again. Some one recommended Cuticura. Before it was half gone we saw a marked change for the better, and she was entirely cured, without a scar being left, by the one box of Ointment and one cake of Soap. Her skin is now entirely clear, and she has not had a sign of trouble since."

That Cuticura Soap is the best baby soap in the world for cleansing and purifying the skin, and that Cuticura Ointment is of priceless value for soothing and healing itching, torturing, and disgusting eruptions, itches, and chafings. A single application of Cuticura Ointment, preceded by a warm bath with Cuticura Soap, gives instant relief, and refreshing sleep for skin-tortured babies, and rest for tired, fretted mothers.

King of All Cough Medicines.

Mr. E. G. Case, a mail carrier of Canton Center, Conn., who has been in the U. S. Service for about sixteen years, says: "We have tried many cough medicines for croup, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is king of all and one to be relied upon every time. We also find it the best remedy for coughs and colds, giving certain results and leaving no bad after effects." For sale by Davis Pharmacy and F. S. Duffy.
