A BIG TIMBER DEAL

Hines Bros. Lumber Co. Disposes of Long Point Holdings for $130,000.

Kinston Free Press 22nd. Probably what is the largest individual check ever received and deposited in a Kinston bank was received and deposited by the Hines Bros. Lumber Co. today, it being for $130,000 and was in payment for the transfer of the company's Long Point holdings, timber tracts and farm, to Mr. W. A. Emrick, whom rumor credits as acting for the Standard Oil Company.

The receipt of the check by the Hines Bros. Lumber Co. Thursday night was the culmination of a deal that has been known for some time to be under consideration and seals with authority the rumors afloat to that effect.

The Newport and Long Point holdings included in the transfer are about 20,000 acres of timber lands, 15,000 of which are in the title of fee simple, and 700 acres of cleared land under cultivation. The team, farming utensils and all personal property on the farm, except 1905 crop raised on the place, go with the lands.

The timber tracts on the Long Point property are among the finest in east-Carolina and there are many millions of feet of timber. The sale of Long Point interferes in noway with their mill in this city, as the company still has large timber holdings in various sections.

Delays are Annoying.

The public would like to know just where the A. & N. C. Co., and the Southern hang together and where they cut loose. Sometimes a man living on the first mentioned road can get all the rates and accommodations over the Southern he desires; at other times he has to whistle. Yesterday morning there was an instance of irregularity which was very provoking to those who were delayed by it. Thirty-five passengers were delayed in Goldsboro on account of either one of the railroads refusing to make connections; either the conductor of the Southern train would not wire to hold the A. & N. C. train or the latter refused to wait; at any rate there was a lot of indignant people because of this delay. Why can there not be an adjustment of this schedule?

Habeas Corpus Proceedings

Another chapter of the kidnapping affair of Wednesday was opened yesterday when Capt. Martin Fulcher was made defendant in an habeas corpus case. The case was heard by Judge Bryan and the greater part of the day was taken up with testimony and argument. The judgment was rendered in favor of the plaintiff, the mother of the child. She shall be given the custody of the child for the period of four months and the father may have the privilege of seeing it twice a week for an hour each time as long as he shall behave. At the end of this term other arrangements may be made.

If fortune disregards thy claim,
Don't hang thy head in fear and shame,

UNCLE SAM WEARS DIAMONDS.

Imported Over $35,000,000 Worth of Gems This Year.

Washington, Dec. 22.—A statement issued today by the Department of Commerce and Labor says:

"Over $35,000,000 worth of diamonds and other precious stones have been imported into the United States during the present calendar year, which is by far the largest importation in the history of the country. The high water mark in earlier years was $28,500,000 in 1903, while 1904 showed but $27,750,000.

"In the 10 months ended with October the total is over $31,000,000, or more than in any full year prior to 1905. It is possible that the value of diamonds alone brought into this country during the present year will be nearly or quite $30,000,000, and the other precious stones approximately $7,000,000. The value of recent diamonds imported into the United States in 1905 will exceed $10,000,000."

A writer in the Encyclopaedia Americana, issued in 1902, states that one-third of the entire amount of cut stones of the world are owned in the United States, and another writer in the same volume, Mr. Geo. F. Knox, estimates the value of all the diamonds known to exist in the world today at $1,000,000,000, and adds that about $300,000,000 worth are owned in the United States, and that therefore it may safely be said that one-half of all the diamonds known are owned in the United States.

At Whitcomb's you will find oranges big enough to fill a "game bag" with juice enough to fill a quart cup. "Big size" apples, these will go at 40 cents per dozen. Also a few dozens of those nice little brown skin apples at 25 cts the dozen, that will both taste and pocket as well. Only a few dozens of the really nice in stock. Come see it all at once. 23 George St.

ACCOUNTS CORRECT

Committee So Report On Auditor Dixon.

Governor Grants Pardon. Superintendent Joyner Finds Educational Progress in Pamlico County. Commissioner Young Revokes Insurance Company License. Good Work of Associated Charities.

Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 22.—Governor Glenn left for Johnson county this morning with Col. Charles Earl Johnson for a partridge hunt, driving through the country. Before he left he pardoned Sam Tyson, a negro eighty years old who was convicted of arson in Pitt county two years ago and who has been sick in the hospital ever since he was brought to the penitentiary. The Governor grants a pardon as act of humanity. Tomorrow private secretary Arrington will take the old man and will see that he is well fixed and looked after and will put him on the train to go to his home. The pardon is granted upon the special recommendation of the Judge and Solicitor and Warden Fleming of the penitentiary, there being some doubt as to the guilt of Tyson.

State Superintendent Joyner has returned from Pamlico county where he found the weather very trying, the rains falling in torrents. One day he drove thirty five miles through the rain and the following morning had to get up at four o'clock and drive ten miles further. He found some interest in educational matters and says some good school houses are being built. Local taxation has been voted in two school districts and the matter is being agitated in several other districts.

Insurance Commissioner Young revokes the license of the Brotherhood Accident Company of Boston, to do business in North Carolina. He called upon the company to make the required advanced deposits, it being an assessment company and the law requiring that the amount of the assessment shall be deposited here. The company said it would not do this and wished to withdraw, but he acted promptly and revoked its authority to do business.

This afternoon the legislative joint committee completed the examination of the books, vouchers, etc., in the offices of Auditor Dixon and Insurance Bryan and made written entries upon the books that they were admirably and correctly kept. Auditor Dixon is very proud of the fact that this is the fifth annual examination of the records of his office and that every time things have been found correct to a cent with no vouchers or other things missing.

The report of the Associated Charities is a very gratifying one and shows extensive aid by this most effective organization which is fully prepared for the winter campaign. One of the new features is a sewing room for women and girls in which twenty five do work, this particular feature being under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Blount Cheshire. There will next month be the annual meeting of the Associated Charities which will be public. The negro ministers of the town have been addressed by the superintendent of the association and are raising funds to aid in looking after their own race.

In Memoriam.

No greater shock could have come to the little community of Bridgeton than that which occurred last Tuesday when little Adolph, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Brooks was burned to death. The calamity was felt in every household and the grief stricken parents found a heart sympathy among the people which they might never have realized had the accident not occurred. Every one mourned for they all loved the little boy.

Adolph was a bright and winsome little fellow. He had just reached an age to be interesting and was fast learning to talk and had many traits which made all who knew him love him.

Sudden and terrible as was the manner of his death and unconquerable as is the sorrow of the parents and friends there is one sweet thought that he is beyond the turmoil of a sinful world; that he is the one the binds the friends on earth to the higher, better life leads them into the realization of the fact that he is free from harm and gives them the desire to so live that they shall with him in heaven.

"Let us not fear that God has a father's pity toward us, and that in the removal of that which is dear to us He is still loving and kind. Death separates, but it also unites. It reunites whom it separates."

AN INHUMAN DEED.

Some Person Amputated the Tails of Two Cows Belonging to W. S. West.

A few days ago some one whose spirit of humanity was a low ebb thought it would be great sport to inflict needless suffering on dumb and inoffensive beasts cut the tails off from two cows belonging to Mr. W. S. West. The animals in the barn yard located on Union street and the amputation left about one half of the caudal appendage. The animals are valuable and while perhaps their intrinsic worth is not affected by the deed they have been made more uncomfortable and their appearance is permanently disfigured. They can not long go out in polite society.

Whatever sport may have been afforded the fool who did this thing such wanton cruelty calls for the limit of the law. Drunkenness is no more excuse for such an act than it would be for murder and only idiocy can serve as an excuse.

Russian Railways Tied Up By Strikers

St. Petersburg, Dec. 22.—As a result of the strike nearly all the railway lines ceased operations today. The workmen are showing evidence of being wonderfully organized by the manner in which they have obeyed the strike call. Troops occupy some of the railway stations. The strike in St. Petersburg numbers 200,000 men. Many strike leaders were arrested last night at the instigation of the government.

In Memoriam

Died at Newport Dec. 17, 1905, Bessie, daughter of Eugene, grand daughter of Mr. A. H. Dennis, in her 18th year after a lingering illness of typhoid fever, complicated with both primary and secondary pneumonia, this splendid girl passed over the river to bask in the bright and happy eternity of the good.

It is always sad to record the death of our friends, but the untimely departure of Bessie saddens with a deeper sorrow than usual the hearts of her own family and all who knew her.

The ways of Providence are past finding out, but we submit with sorrowing hearts to this sad dispensation, consoling ourselves that the transition is best for the young and hopeful life of Bessie in her new realm, escapes the disappointments and sorrows that inevitably attend our sojourn here below. We shall miss so keenly Bessie's genial and warm-hearted presence, and while we shall treasure her memory and regret her departure, we hope to meet her again in our Celestial Home above.
