IMPORTANT STATE CHARTERS.

F. A. Olds, of Raleigh Traveling the

Col. F. A. Olds arrived in the city last night from Wilmington on his tour of the older towns of North Carolina. He comes in a triple capacity as director of the Hall of History of the State Museum, as chairman of the museum committee of the Nor.h Carolina Literary and Historical Association; and as special representative of the North Carolina Historical Commission. His object is to secure any of those things which have gone to make history in North Carolina in the shape of books, letters, objects of any kind as uniforms, etc., covering all periods from the earliest settlement of the State.

He desires to secure these as gifts of loans. The collection already in the Hall of History is a great one, representing years of labor and embracing more than 10,000 different objects in st ecially constructed moth and dust proof cases of North Carolina woods. They are arranged in chronological order.

I am not in the habit of endorsing patent medicines, but when I find remedies possessing 'ue merit, such as the Cuticura Remedies do, I am broad-minded enough to proclaim their virtues to the world. I have been prac-ticing medicine for sixteen years, and must say I find your Remedies A No. 1. You are at liberty to publish this letter, or any part of it. I remain, very truly yours, G. M.
