anywhere but at Murgenhelm's. 'Do you like these socks I'm wearing?" "Dear me! They're awfully cute. I bought some new ones last week, but I like yours better than any of mine. I'm going to have a new pair of trousers cut out just as soon as I can get around to it. What do you think would be a good style for me to get? Would you have them shirred at the knees?"

"No, I don't like them that way. I think I should have them tucked at the. ends and cut full at the sides, with deckel edged seams, Still, if you like them gathered at the top, I"-"Arthur," exclaimed Mrs. Ponsonby,

"have you suddenly gone crazy?" "Fred Dallington." that gentleman's wife demanded, "what in the world is the matter with you?"

The men shook their heads and de nied that they had lost their wits. Being reassured, Mrs. Ponsonby asked Mrs. Dailington how she intended to have her Indian head skirt made up.
"I think," said Mrs. Dallington, "I will have it plafted both in front and behind. Do you remember that denim of mine?"

"Do you mean the pinkish one that Mrs. Blytheleigh made for you?" Defeated and shamed the two men lit fresh eigars and sat back and were silent.-S. E. Kiser in Chicago Record-

I had trouble with my back for some time, the secretions from the kidney were very dark and full of sediment and my back gave spe any amount of trouble. It pained me and ached so badly at times that I could not attend to business. Donn's Kidney Pills went to the right apot an quickly I could hardly believe it. The first did not gave much good that I bought a second and used four pills a day. My back has not hard me since and I can stand on my fort all day and is not got tired like I mell to.
