Insurance Underwriters Association To Meet at Pinehurst.
 (Special Correspondence.)
 Raleigh, Feb. 5.—The Supreme Court met this morning to examine applicants for attorneys' licenses. Of these there are 37, of whom 16 are from the State University and nine from Wake Forest College Law School. All the judges were present. Attorney General Gilmer arrived Saturday evening from Waynesville.
 The Life Insurance Underwriters Association of North Carolina is called to meet in annual session at Pinehurst on the 20th inst. Mr. Wilcox of the Mutual Life is the President and Mr. P. D. Gold of Greensboro is the Secretary.
 Insurance adjusters are here to settle the loss by the fire in the Capital Club the damage being mainly from smoke. A member of the club said he thought $3000 would cover the damages, though another member put the figure very much higher.
 It seems to be expected by the United States officials here that Mr. Claude Dockery will be Marshal by February 15th, though his nomination has not yet gone into the Senate.
 Today there was argument before Judge Purnell in the United States Court in the quite interesting case of Thomas Dixon, the play-wright of New York, against Thaddeus Breton, to make permanent the injunction to prevent Breton and his company, which is well known as the Corinne-Runkle Company from playing "In Reconstruction Days" which Mr. Dixon claims is an infringement upon his rights in his play of the Clansman. Judge Purnell made the injunction perpetual, Breton having failed to answer the rule to show cause why it should not be granted.
 The Supreme Court at the present term will hear the very notable case of Bob Lilliston, convicted of murdering Charles G. Smith in the depot here the last day of the State Fair. The evidence of Mrs. Richardson, who was formerly a Miss Allen of this city, has developed since the conviction and the question is how to get this before the courts. Mrs. Richardson was formerly connected with a newspaper.

TEMPORARY INJUNCTION
 Judge Purnell Restraining Suffolk And Carolina From Trespassing on N. & S. Railway.
 Special to Journal.
 Raleigh, Feb. 5.—Judge Purnell issued a temporary injunction, restraining the Suffolk and Carolina railway from trespassing on the right of way of the Norfolk and Southern, at Roper, the suit being brought by the trustee's order of the Norfolk and Southern, the Metropolitan Trust Company of New York. The Suffolk and Carolina sought to condemn the right of way through the yard of the Norfolk and Southern. It is a contest to prevent the Suffolk and Carolina from entering Mackey's Ferry, an important point on Albemarle sound. The Norfolk and Southern is now under the same control as the Atlantic and North Carolina, the New Bern, Oriental and Western, and perhaps the Raleigh and Pamlico, though some assert the Suffolk and Carolina controls the latter. The injunction matter will be heard here March 5th.

Return of James Combes a Sensational Feature.
 (Special Correspondence.)
 Greensboro, Feb. 5.—The little baby-wait left here by a strange woman six weeks ago to be cared for by Nancy Holt, a negress living a mile beyond the city limits, was taken in possession Saturday night by officers of the law under a writ of habeas corpus, and proceedings for guardianship instituted by W. B. Streeter, superintendent of the Children's Home Society. The officer found the child in a small room in which four negro women slept and lived, and he says the baby slept at night between two of the women. It was placed in possession of Mr. Streeter who will take care of it until the hearing by the judge on the return day of the written days from service.
 The news here that District Attorney Holton had been given assurance that he would be re-appointed district attorney, was not surprising here, where his great work in prosecuting frauds against the government has been known perhaps better than anywhere else, as most of the big revenue trials for the past three years have been in the Federal court at Greensboro. Holton's great ability and zeal in ferreting out as well as prosecuting the violators of the revenue laws, has been recognized for some time, and rumors that the whiskey ring inside the republican organization would be able to turn him out was always discounted.
 There was the usual short Saturday morning session of Federal court, and none but character witnesses were examined in the Samuel case. Deputy collector T. L. Green, who was undergoing cross examination by the district attorney when court adjourned Friday did not get a chance to complete his testimony and was on the stand again this morning. The character witnesses were made, a cross-examination by Mr. Holton, to take up so much time, it was Saturday noon recess hour before they were disposed of. Aside from character witnesses the defence so far has had only witness to testify who was not a revenue officer, or who had been a revenue officer.
 There was a mild sensation here when the Wilkesboro train arrived after Federal court had adjourned Saturday and there stepped from the train the much discussed and long looked for James Combes, whose name and exploits as a blockader and ostensible informer have figures so largely in the trial of the revenue officers, especially in connection with officer Samuel now on trial for alleged filing of false informers checks in the name of Jim Combes and conspiracy with Combes to defraud the government. Combes was indicted at the special term of the grand jury last September with the officers for alleged conspiracy to defraud the government, and end of the counts against Samuel in his trial now is collusion with Combes, a distiller to allow him to run contrary to law.

 With Crusted Scaly Eczema When One Month Old—Could Brush Scales Off Body—Young Lady is Now 17 Years Old and Skin is Without a Scar—Cured By CUTICURA REMEDIES AT EXPENSE OF $4.50

"When I was one month old I was taken with eczema. After being under the treatment of two doctors for one month and no improvement, my mother was advised by a druggist to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I was one crust of sores from head to foot. My mother could brush the scales off my body; and my finger and toe nails fell. After using six cakes of Cuticura Soap and about as much Cuticura Ointment I was completely cured. I am now seventeen years old and my skin has not a scar. I am still finding wonders in Cuticura; after washing a fever blister two days it was completely gone." Your Cuticura friend, Miss Eola Glasscock, Oct. 27, 1905. Marksville, La.

 Are the Best for Skin and Blood
 "About three years ago my face began to get rough with acne and kept getting worse. A year ago I read in a paper of the Cuticura Remedies for the skin and blood. I sent for them at once. I used the Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills, and in three months my skin was soft and smooth, and the pimples have all disappeared without the services of a physician. I think the Cuticura Remedies are the best that any one can use for the skin and blood." May G. Schieferle, Sept. 5, 1905. Santa Paula, Cal.
