A KITCHEN GARDEN

Board Agriculture to Provide One For A. & M. College.

Charter Granted Beaufort Company. Money For State Schools. Light Snow Fall. Complaint Against S. A. L. Road Bed. Railroad Wins Fight.

(Special Correspondence.)
 Raleigh, Feb. 7.—The special committee of the Board of Agriculture which has in charge the providing of a kitchen garden for the Agricultural & Mechanical College has directed the professor of agriculture to establish such a garden to establish this with vegetables at cost price. There are over 400 acres of fine land on the college farm and the garden will be made quite a feature of this.

Charters are granted to the Shall Contracting Company of Beaufort, to erect buildings and do all sorts of other contracting, capital stock $100,000, C. L. Duncan and W. J. R. Shall being the principal stockholders. Also to the Gem Cigar Company, Wilmington, capital stock $10,000, J. C. Wessell and others stockholders.

It was thought last night that a heavy snow storm was imminent. This morning a little snow fell but not enough to make any show on the ground.

At the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction work is being done in arranging for the paying out of what is known as the second hundred thousand dollars of the State school fund, this being used to keep all schools at least four months in the year. No less than 59 counties have applied for aid and as every application has to be looked into with great care, the amount of labor involved may be imagined. The number of applications has caused some comment. The amounts will not be given out until the matter is adjusted. As soon as possible the warrants will be issued. Herebefore the applications have generally been sealed, in some cases considerably.

Complaint has been filed by several persons as to the condition of the road bed of the Seaboard Air Line between Charlotte and Rutherfordton. The commission will take up this matter at once.

President John A. Mills won out in the fight which was being made to prevent his going through the lands of Mrs. Cockrane, near Fayetteville with the Raleigh and Southport Railway.

To make room for the new stock of goods, we will sell out at our own price a few decorated 10 piece Toilet Sets, also 8 day Clocks, enameled ware, etc. 132 Middle St.

Testimony in Samuel's Case at Times-News. Audubon Society. Suspected Murderer Arrested. Breese of Asheville Bank Notoriety.

(Special Correspondence.)
 Greensboro, Feb. 7.—In the trial of G. W. Samuel in the Federal court yesterday, ex-Deputy Collectors J. B. Smith and J. W. Hasty, themselves indicted were the principal witnesses examined for the defense, the cross examination of the latter not being completed when court adjourned. They testified that Samuel was a fine officer, and corroborated his evidence in every particular. Under cross examination both failed to explain how in a few months after they entered the revenue service in Wilkes, going there without means they became of financial importance. Hasty acknowledging loaning out as much as three thousand dollars in cash in six months after he arrived. The only witness other than a revenue officer was a Justice of the Peace, stating that their general knowledge of the existence of distilleries especially of Jim Combes and McEwin steam distilleries, he was asked on cross examination why as a magistrate he had not issued warrants himself for the arrest of the parties. He replied that several times he had consulted with United States Commissioner Dule, who said that the revenue officers knew all about the stills and had been repeatedly informed of them and would do nothing, and that as Justice of the Peace he had no right to issue a warrant for a State offense on hear say testimony, but that a sworn complaint had first to be made before it became his duty to take action.

Mr. T. Gilbert Pearson, Secretary of the North Carolina Audubon Society, has returned from Minneapolis, Minn., where he delivered an address last week before the annual meeting of the State Game Wardens and State Game Commissioners of the United States. He also responded to a toast at a banquet tendered to the wardens and commissioners. On his return, Mr. Pearson spent a day in Milwaukee, and in Chicago, inspecting the methods of the Audubon Societies of Wisconsin and Illinois. Last night Mr. Pearson left for Richmond, Va., to deliver an address this morning before a joint game protection committee of both houses of the Virginia Legislature.

The police here last night arrested an Italian named Pentro Zontirijani on suspicion of being a man advertised as wanted for murder in California. He was for whose arrest a reward of five hundred dollars is offered. The man was arrested at the station but protests his innocence. He was locked up awaiting further information. He very much resembles the photograph sent here, but his height is at least two inches less than the published description.

Greensboro is truly a Gate City, Sunday night the following Superior Court Judges in transit were at the Benbow hotel: Jones of Winston, Cooke of Louisiana, Long of Statesville, Peelle of Jackson, Furgurson of Waynesville, Bryant of New Bern, Shaw of Greensboro. When United States District Judge Boyd walked in the hotel today, there was the unusual spectacle of eight active judges in active conversation, not one of them realizing how seldom such a thing happened, or referred to it.

While busy in court yesterday afternoon, District Attorney Holton was handed a telegram from Richmond, saying that the Circuit Court of Appeals had granted a new trial in the noted Breese case.

Address to Woman's Club

At the Presbyterian Lecture room last night, Mrs. W. R. Hollowell of Goldsboro, spoke to the Woman's Club. After the Rev. Mr. Garth had offered prayer, the Misses Wyatt played a duo on piano and violin, and Rev. Mr. Garth sang a solo.

Mrs. Hollowell was gracefully introduced by the President of the Club, Mrs. H. R. Duffy. Mrs. Hollowell needs to be heard to be rightly appreciated, for the charm and force of her language, her voice, and her earnestness, cannot be depicted by printers ink. She told a number of the incidents of the work accomplished by the Woman's Club of her home city, and briefly outlined the points in the several departments which are in the Club, noting where effective measures can be introduced and successfully worked out. Her address in regard to the necessity of a State Reform School for youthful criminals was most able. The speaker was voted thanks for her address at the close by a rising vote. The address will prove one of great encouragement to the local club.
