Report Commends Hospital Management.
Special to Journal.
Raleigh, Feb. 13.—Governor Glenn's report concerning the State hospitals for the white insane has been given out. It relates facts concerning his personal observation, as well as the matters brought to his attention regarding acts and management by official boards. There is recounted good management, dereliction on the part of the State to properly provide for its indigent insane, and a comparison of cost as between the State institutions and those privately conducted. The board of directors is commended and those who would detract from their worth and the assailants of their official action is rebuked in strong terms.
There is considered the number of applicants and the truth that a great many would be forced into the jails of the State without such discretionary as well as discreet action had been observed by that body. In the end the governor calls on all who have criticism to make such to him, and where reflection is indulged in by citizens and news papers, he requests that all such shall be placed before him, with names of those who are either friendless or are strong with the power of a pul.

CASORIA.
The Kidney and Liver Regulator.
Correction.
In the report of the commissioners proceedings published in Tuesday's Journal, the following was printed, which was erroneous:
Pursuant to notices served on them by order of the Board, the following named parties appeared before the Board and listed property as follows:
F. Ralf, $ 20 25
J. W. Stewart, 48 00
N. H. Street, 20 00
Mrs. Emma P. Powell, 22 50
F. C. Roberts, Agt., 22 50
Lucas & Lewis, 59 00
The error was caused by an improper use of a station of the amounts, which make the figures read tens when they should express thousands, making a wide difference in the aggregate. The following is the correct report as should have been published:
F Ralf $2,025 00
J W Stewart 4,800 00
N H Street 2,000 00
Mrs Emma P Powell 2,250 00
F C Roberts, Agt. 2,250 00
Lucas & Lewis 4,900 00
Making a total of $20,225 00

tion of the Confederate war records.
A congress for the specific investigation of methods to be more universally adopted by all the States in the Union will be held in Washington City February 19. Gov. Glenn has appointed the following named delegates from North Carolina to participate in the deliberations of the body: A. B. Andrews, Jr., and F. H. Busbee, of Raleigh, J. Crawford Briggs, Durham, J. C. Buxton, Winston, D. B. Winborn, Murfreesboro, and George Rountree, of Wilmington. This congress has been instigated by Governor Pennypacker, of Pennsylvania, and the most vital matters to be considered will uniformly in divorce laws, and certain changes regarding extradition by State on State. The Governor in speaking of the matter said: "North Carolina is already one of the States that exacts no charge for extradition, but at the same time, there are many States in which a cost is fixed on all matters of extradition of prisoners. That is, this State does not charge States which exempt us. We hope to be able at this congress to set straight and make uniform all these points together with the benefit of a more active co-operation."
J. H. Cutler, Boston, and Washington, the enthusiastic propagandist and well-wisher of the forestry question has been in close conferences with Governor Glenn, concerning the meeting to be held in Charlotte March 3, at which time there will be convened one of the most representative and distinguished bodies ever called together in the south, for the discussion of facts pertaining to matters of forestry interest with special reference to a two-fold object; that of the establishment of the Appalachian Park, by influencing the National Congress, and with the aim in view that such lands shall not be condemned but shall be purchased by the government; and secondly that the states may be induced to take action in the establishment of private preserves in lands belonging to them for educational purposes. Mr. Cutler announces that there will be present the governors from North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee, Florida and Kentucky, and there is every indication of the attendance of some of the most prominent men in a number of other states.
A Raleigh visitor is Charles J. Alston, whose home is Crystal Spring Farm, near Inez, in Warren county, whose business is that of a traveller up and down the commercial roads of the entire country, and whose good fortune it has been to discover that he has a 400 acre farm, of something more than untouched gold and in the branches about the place unknown quantities of a high quality of black lead. Then in addition thereto is a mineral spring of lithia water, with a copious flow and the promise of fine results from sales of this water. Hard by his own lands on the farm of a kinsman, Mr. Alston states there are such deposits of yellow ochre that a train of 20 cars moving daily for a year could not remove the supply. This gentleman also states that there are six gold mines which literally surround his properties, all of which are being worked while as yet all the rich find of gold within his domains have come forth undelivered for, since the cyclone passed through Warren county about two years ago. All of the metal is in the rough, and his expectations are hardly to be stated yet in figures. Owners of adjacent property are at work with dredges one of which was constructed at a cost of $14,000, and the other at $20,000. Mr. Alston is quietly making his way on the road, and is not yet worried over the possibilities at his feet which in a way recall the story of "Acres of diamonds." Though the property has been in the family for more than 100 years its richness was discovered by the cyclone, and not by a more human investigator.

Bars Men from Employment
Every line of business is beginning to shut its doors absolutely to drinking men. Business competition has become keen and only men of steady habits can find employment.
Employers do not want men that are addicted to drink. A drinking man is not in fit condition to handle responsible work. Continued drinking debases the nerve system. No "will power" can cure treatment is necessary.

Some Citizens of Greensboro Not Satisfied With the Procedure.
Him. A House Warming at the Enlarged and Improved McAdoo House. Forty Years a Telegraph Operator.
(Special Correspondence.)
Greensboro, Feb. 13.—Mr. S. A. Howard, who has been manager of the Western Union Telegraph office here for forty years without a break has been rewarded for his faithful attention to duty, being relieved of the heavy work of active manager, though retained as manager at the same salary. Mr. H. T. Boggs, of Richmond, arrived here Saturday and assumed the duties as assistant manager.
One Athletic Park is to be moved further out on Summit street and improved. The new site will be beyond Mr. Caesar Cone's residence. One thousand dollars will be expended in putting the new park in shape.
Judge Ferguson is presiding over the present two weeks term of civil court which began Monday morning. As has become the custom there was practically no work done yesterday, the lawyers not wanting to have cases tried having no difficulty in getting a continuance, and it was but a short while before the days calendar was exhausted and court adjourned. Before the present move gave Guilford county, made into one judicial district so as to provide another lawyer with a judgeship, is successful, the members of the bar will have to satisfy the taxpayers and litigants of this county that the present almost continuous session of court here with nothing done is not their fault. If not their fault, something must be the matter with the judges. If this be so, it would seem that the fewer there are of these the better.
There was a house warming given last night at the McAdoo Hotel a large number of citizens being entertained and shown over the newly renovated and enlarged building, by its new lessee and manager, M. W. Sterne, of West Virginia. The travelling public has felt the need of the McAdoo accommodations since it was closed for repairs and enlargement nearly a year ago. For the past three weeks every one of the four hotels here have been at times over crowded, two nights last week at least fifty applicants for rooms being denied.

Death of An Old Time Negro. Success of A North Carolina Boy. A Farm That Will Bring a Fortune To Its Owner.
(Special Correspondence.)
Raleigh, Feb. 13.—In the incorporation of Hunter Bros. & Brewer Company at Raleigh for the conduct of a dry goods, shoe and department store, the fifteen thousand dollars subscribed out of an authorized capital stock of $50,000 is by G. E. W. R., and J. P. Hunter, G. W. Brewer, and J. L. Hill all of Raleigh. The store has heretofore been conducted distinctively for the sale of shoes.
The H. E. Moseley Hardware Company at Kinston is chartered for the conduct of a wholesale and retail business. H. E. W. O. and S. O. Moseley, all of Kinston are incorporators, $12,000 is paid in out of a total capitalization of $50,000.
The many friends of Mr. Albert W. Latta, a son of the late C. G. Latta of Raleigh, who are interested in the success and advancement of that young man will be glad to learn that after having proved his apprenticeship with the General Electric Company at Schenectady, N. Y., he has found favor by reason of his ability among the southern mill friends, and has just placed a large outfit for one of the big mills in North Carolina. The company desiring the machinery stated to Mr. Latta, a North Carolinian in their employ, be sent for the purpose of figuring the details. He came and won out over three competitors, who were men of many more years and of far more varied experience.
Governor Glenn who always finds time for special work outside of his executive office, will tonight at the Tabernacle Baptist church deliver an address to the "B. R." class of that Sunday school on the subject "Is a young man safe?"
Another one of the old-time type negro mummies has died at her home a few miles from Raleigh. She has long borne the name of Aunt Betsey Holmes and both photographs and caricatures of the negroes have been painted. Her real personality was best depicted when seated in an ancient top buggy—a two wheel contrivance and drawn by a pair of mules. Vegetables, roots and herbs, together with an indomitable will have been her stock in trade, cooked with a kindness not usual. Along with her happy manner there was a conjured a real spirit of business, as was evidenced not long ago by her comment to a prominent Raleigh citizen, this comment being to this effect: "When asked why she did not drive a mule instead of the aged ox she replied: 'Waster it this way. When do mules die he's dead, when the ox dies I'll sell him at the market.'"
There were received today by the State Auditor two large boxes of books returned by Gen. Ainsworth, of the Military Secretary's office at Washington, D. C., and which had been used by the National government in the compilation of the Confederate war records.
