Iron Safe Clause Judicially Declared Valid

Extract from decision of Supreme Court in the case of Georgia Home Insurance Co. against Allen:
"An Iron Safe Clause in a policy of insurance requiring the assured to keep a set of books and inventory of the stock, which shall be kept in an iron safe at night and at other times when the safe is not open for business, is a valid condition and binding upon the assured, the breach of which will void the policy unless it is waived by the insurer."

HAD NOT WALKED FOR 11 MONTHS

Terrible Sore on Ankle Caused Awful Suffering—Could Not Sleep nor Rest—Physician Said Leg Would Have to Be Amputated.

CURED BY CUTICURA IN SIX WEEKS

"I had a terrible sore on my ankle and had not walked any for eleven months. I tried nearly everything without any benefit and had a doctor, but he didn't seem to do any good. He said I would have to have my leg taken off, and that I would never walk again. I suffered awful, and at night I could not sleep at all. I thought there was no rest for me, but as soon as I began to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment it commenced healing nicely. I bathed the ankle with warm water and Cuticura Soap and then applied Cuticura Ointment to the affected part, and laid a cloth over the sore to hold it in place. After two weeks I could walk around in my room real good, and in six weeks' time my ankle was entirely cured and I was walking around out of doors. I am enjoying perfect health and have gone to work and feel as well as I ever did in my life, so I know that the Cuticura Remedies are the best in the world.

"Cuticura was recommended to me by a lady who had used it when her baby's head was so full of sores he could not lie down. She had to set him up in her arms to sleep. (signed) Mrs. Mary Dickerson, Louisa, C.H. Va., April 22, 1905."

COMPLETE TREATMENT
Consisting of Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills.

May now be had for one dollar. A single set is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, and scaly humors, eczemas, rashes, and irritations, with loss of hair, from infancy to age, when all other remedies and even the best physicians fail.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills, are sold throughout the world. Putge Drug & Chem. Co., Boston, Sole Proprietor, 700 "M" Street, N. Y. N. Y.

Merger Reported Complete.

Norfolk & Southern Acquire Railroad and Lumber Property in This Section.

An Important Transaction Which Has Been Consummated. Elements of an Authoritative Statement in the Story.

The Elizabeth City Economist of April 3, contains the following story regarding the railroad merger. The article is written evidently on good authority and the statement is said to be true:

"It is announced from Norfolk today that all underwriting and other arrangements have been completed for the proposed consolidation of the Norfolk and Southern railway, the Virginia and Carolina Coast railway, the Pamlico, Oriental and Western railway and the Raleigh and Pamlico Sound railroad and the holding company controlling the John L. Roper Lumber Company, the Blades Lumber Company, the Belhaven and other timber holdings, with an aggregate capital stock of $10,000,000.

Frank S. Gannon, formerly third vice president of the Southern Railway, will be elected president of the consolidated company, which will be known as the Norfolk and Southern Railway Company, and he will at once assume the active management of the company's properties.

The company will be incorporated under the laws of Virginia and North Carolina, or both, with a maximum of 20,000,000 shares of common stock.

The company will acquire the property of the Norfolk and Southern Railway Company, Virginia and Carolina Coast Railroad Company, Pamlico, Oriental and Western Railroad Company and the Raleigh and Pamlico Sound Railroad Company, owning and operating 300 miles of well equipped standard gauge railroad. Also the lease of the Atlantic and North Carolina Company, owning and operating ninety-five miles of standard gauge road, together with their valuable terminals in Norfolk and Suffolk, Va., and Elizabeth City, Edenton, Maccles Ferry, Raleigh, Washington, Goldsboro, New Bern, Morehead City, and Beaufort, N. C.

To make the merger more valuable it will likewise take in the capital stock of a holding lumber company controlling the property of the John L. Roper, Blades and Belhaven Lumber Companies, being over 600,000 acres of timber land and about 300,000 acres of timber rights [with standing timber thereon, conservatively estimated to be about 4,000,000,000 feet, together with the modern manufacturing plants having a present annual output of 125,000,000 feet logging roads and ample logging equipment.

Together with increasing its lumber plants so that they will have an annual output of about 150,000,000 feet, the new company will construct an extension of about 200 miles of standard gauge road, bridge Albemarle Sound and make a connected and fully equipped railway system of about 600 miles in length between Beaufort, Goldsboro, New Bern, Washington, Raleigh, Maccles Ferry, Belhaven, Edenton, Suffolk, Elizabeth City, and Norfolk, traveling in great part its own land and timber holdings.

Clark
April 4.
The weather is nice today and looks like spring may open up, it has been so disagreeable that there has not been much work done.

Well we are to have a church built in Clark soon which is very much needed. It is to be a Methodist. We hope that everybody will give a helping hand.

There is to be a glove party at Mrs. John Humphrey's on the 9th of this month hours from 8 to 11 p. m., for the benefit of the M. E. church in Clark. Mr. A. T. Weatherington has the bill and is cutting the lumber for it.

We are sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Clement Weatherington. He died the 2nd and was buried the 3rd, he was quite an old man, he was about 82 years old and leaves children and grandchildren to mourn their loss.

The Enterprise Brick yard has started up and seems to be on time. We also hear the Carolina Brick and Tile Co's whistle every day. They are doing good work too.

Mr. A. T. Weatherington went to New Bern yesterday on business.

Mr. G. T. Eubanks went to New Bern yesterday.

You're growing more beautiful day by day, dear Grace.
I hope you're not using cosmetics on your face.

Wards Mill
April 5.
We are glad to hear of the successful meetings conducted in the Baptist church.

Rev. N. Henderson preached the sermon at Zion Chapel Sunday.

Mr. Fernie Henderson of Hubert accompanied by Miss Lina Franks of Richards, passed through here Monday. Miss Franks has closed her school and gone home.

Mr. Lewis Foyville of French Creek Clubhouse, has accepted a position as superintendent of the Gintson Stock farm at Verona.

Miss Annie Trent has gone to Deppe. We wish her a very pleasant visit there.

Mr. D. H. Moore and Dr. Mumford of Swansboro passed through here Monday on route to Jacksonville.

Gen. W. H. Willis has gone to Richland to superintend the moving of some buildings.

The little town of Richards is having a nice boom. The railroad has been the means of its prosperity.

FOR FOREST RESERVE BILL

Governor Appoints Committee to Visit Washington. Preacher Delivers Appeal Before Dispensary Door.

Special to Journal.

Raleigh, April 5.—Gov. Glenn appointed the following named committee to appear at Washington, April 25th, before the House Committee on Agriculture, in behalf of the passage of the forest reserve bill: D. A. Tompkins, Charlotte; Frank R. Hewitt, Asheville; Henry E. Fries, Winston; Hugh McRae, Wilmington; T. S. Rollis, Greensboro; Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, of the University of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill, N. C.

A sensation was occasioned this afternoon when a Raleigh preacher appeared before the Raleigh dispensary and appended to the wicked under the text "Am I my brother's keeper?" A pistol and an empty whiskey flask pictured in the discourse, both of which were used recently by a suicide in this city. Permit to preach was granted by the city authorities, according to a city statute.

ST. JOSEPH'S CATHOLIC CHURCH
The Colored People of That Faith Will Have Regular Services Hereafter.

On next Sunday and for the future, morning services will be held at the above named church at 10.30 o'clock. On Friday evenings at 8 o'clock instruction on Catholic dogmas will be given. On the week mornings there will be service at 7.30 o'clock. As Father Hanson resides with Father George at the Presbytery, Middle street, he can be seen there after 6 o'clock evenings except Friday's and Sundays, when he attends the church. Next Friday being "Good Friday" a special sermon on the passion and death of our Lord will be preached at 7.30 o'clock. Sunday being Palm Sunday the ceremony of blessing the palms will take place before mass.

OUTWITS SPOON THIEVES.

Hotel Proprietor's Scheme Makes "Souvenir" Dangerous.

Hotel men in New York are greatly amused at the way in which one of their uptown brethren recently checked a "souvenir thief," as the persons who make a practice of abstracting small though valuable articles from hotels are familiarly known. This proprietor had in former years suffered so much from the depredations of this class of kleptomaniacs that he had devised a plan to protect himself and prevent further losses so far as possible.

Before placing the order for the manufacture of his silver plate he engaged a designer to make a special pattern which was of such a nature as to be instantly recognized by himself or his agents wherever it might be seen. Owing the dies himself, he made it impossible for anyone else to produce the pattern. He then arranged matters that not a single piece could be given away or sold without his knowledge, making use of a secret mark known only to himself and his steward and a system of checking which enabled him at once to trace when and from what table in his dining room any article went astray. He also had his appointed agents in every streetwise repair shop, to whom he furnished a record for every case reported of any person bringing his property to be altered to conceal its true ownership.

The result of all this was that when a woman after visiting the name took a spoon to a certain establishment to have it gilded the hotel man was at once apprised of the fact. A few days after the woman was surprised to receive a note from the hotel steward requesting her to inform him where she obtained the article.

A reply came from a business man that he had purchased the spoon at the hotel a year before and requesting that all further communications about the matter should be addressed to him. The management informed him that the purchase could not possibly have been made in the manner he said and desired him to call and identify the person from whom he bought the spoon. At the same time he was advised to return the spoon, so that unpleasant consequences might be avoided. He did return it, and the incident was closed.

The woman, however, after having the spoon gilded had presented it to a friend and now had to undergo the humiliation of having to ask for its return.

While the hotel man may not be able to prevent stealing, he at least succeeds in compelling the kleptomaniacs to keep their booty locked up, as they dare not show it to any one. The success of this system has been so great in restraining the light flung souvenir hunters that other hotel proprietors and caterers are adopting it and profiting thereby.—New York Tribune.

Russians Superstitious.

In Russia much rain is considered a good omen. It is believed that the downfall washes away the evil spirits, who would otherwise be hovering in the air ready to work woe to the monarch about to place his crown on his head, the bride on the point of plighting her vows, the babe on its way to the foot or heroine of the moment. Further, the superstitious monarch believes that each stream of water has its Rusnik, or good spirit, a lovely maid, who with yellow hair fluting down her back, who spreads plenty around, but should the water fall, so that her hair dries, she will die, and famine or other disaster ensue.

No Romance.

He dropped her hand with a sigh of defeat.

Mutely she looked into his eyes, as though seeking in his glance some message that would convey the word she sought.

"With one slow look at her hand as it lay where he had let it fall, he shook his head slowly and said:
"Give them the trick. You haven't a trump."—Fack.

Universal Experience.

The distinguished citizen had returned from a trip abroad.

"Did the old world give you the glad hand?" they asked him.

"Oh, yes," he said, "or rather, it gave me the expectant hand. It wasn't the glad hand with its pat on the tip of the nose."—Chicago Tribune.

Cure of the Feet.

The feet should be bathed at night, and this treatment is an excellent sleep producer. The water should be salted. The feet should be scrubbed all over with a nailbrush, which will often prevent the formation of corns, while hard spots on the soles may be reduced with a piece of fine emery paper or fine file before the feet are placed in water.

Not Evenly Matched.

"Have you anything to say why my sentence should not be pronounced upon you?" asked the judge.

"Nothing, your honor, except that I hope you will make allowance for the fact that the lawyer who convicted me had a louder voice than the one who defended me."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Flowers.

The instinctive and universal taste of mankind selects flowers for the expression of its finest sympathies, their beauty and their fragrances serving to make them the most fitting symbols of those delicate sentiments for which language itself seems almost too gross a medium.—Herald.
