Iron Safe Clause Judicially Declared Valid

Extract from decision of Supreme Court in the case of Georgia Home Insurance Co against Allen:

"An Iron Safe Clause in a policy of Insurance requiring the assured to keep a set of books and inventory of the stock, which shall be kept in an iron safe at night and at other times when the store is not open for business, is a valid condition and binding upon the assured, the breach of which voids the policy unless it is waived by the insurer."

Guilford County Medical Society. Freight Wreck Delays Trains. Elks Lodge Growing. Revival Services. Court Delays. Personal.
(Special Correspondence.)

Greensboro, April 5.—The regular monthly meeting of the Guilford County Medical Society was held today at 1:50 o'clock in the directors' room of the City National Bank. After the business session a luncheon was served at Clegg's Hotel at which Mayor Murphy made an address of welcome and the following members of the society responded to toasts: Drs. B. A. Stanton of High Point, G. W. Long, of Graham, A. R. Wilson, of Greensboro; Edmond Harrison of Greensboro, J. E. Stokes of Salisbury H. E. Bohannon of Salem, P. T. R. Little and W. J. Richardson, of Greensboro. After the luncheon the party took a special car for St. Leo's Hospital and spent some time inspecting the building which is now nearly completed.

All the trains coming from the North were delayed yesterday on account of nine coal cars jumping the track at Mizpah, this side of Reidsville, causing the track to be torn up for some distance. Ninety seven arrived four hours late and all the other south bound trains in the neighborhood of eight o'clock.

A very enthusiastic and well attended meeting of the Elks was held last night. Ten new members were elected and seven applications were received. Following the business session there was an informal social session at which light refreshments were served.

President D. P. Stern, of the local order of B'nai B'rith, has returned from Norfolk where he attended the national convention of the society.

Rev. Dr. Battle, pastor of the First Baptist Church preached a very strong sermon last night at the first service of a revival. He will be assisted by Dr. Weston Bruner, a very distinguished divine from Washington D. C.

Several cases were disposed of today in Federal Court though they were all of minor importance, being for illicit distilling and other trivial offenses.

Argo Trice, a negro from Orange County was found guilty of illicit distilling and was sent to the U. S. penitentiary at Atlanta for one year.

Twenty five negro laborers employed as truckmen at the Southern freight depot went on a strike this morning. They demanded $1.50 per day. This demand was refused the men are being replaced by other men, and the railroad authorities say there will be no inconvenience after today.

Death of Wade M. Land.
After a short but distressing illness of pneumonia, Wade Madison, son of T. A. and M. E. Land died at his parents home on Broad street shortly after noon yesterday in the seventeenth year of his age. He was a young man popular with his friends and of sterling character, capable and of integrity. His loss is deeply mourned and his friends have the sympathy of all.

The funeral services will be held at three o'clock this afternoon at the Central church. Rev. G. T. Adams will officiate.

Interment will be made in Cedar Grove Cemetery.

Death of Miss Annie Lee.
Miss Annie Lee, whose home is at Richlands died at the School for the Blind at Raleigh of which she was a student, Thursday morning. She had suffered terribly from spinal meningitis and her condition had been hopeless for several days. Her death was the first the institution has had for four years.

The remains were taken to the home in Richlands Thursday, Prof. Blair of the school accompanying the remains thither.

THEY COME AND GO.

Mrs. John Whitford returned from a visit to Goldsboro last night.

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

It keeps your baby healthy and strong. It is the best of all medicines for children. It is the only medicine that is safe for infants and children. It is the only medicine that is pure and sweet. It is the only medicine that is easy to give. It is the only medicine that is always at hand. It is the only medicine that is never out of season. It is the only medicine that is never out of style. It is the only medicine that is never out of favor. It is the only medicine that is never out of demand. It is the only medicine that is never out of use. It is the only medicine that is never out of sight. It is the only medicine that is never out of mind. It is the only medicine that is never out of heart. It is the only medicine that is never out of love. It is the only medicine that is never out of life. It is the only medicine that is never out of death. It is the only medicine that is never out of glory. It is the only medicine that is never out of honor. It is the only medicine that is never out of praise. It is the only medicine that is never out of fame. It is the only medicine that is never out of respect. It is the only medicine that is never out of admiration. It is the only medicine that is never out of reverence. It is the only medicine that is never out of awe. It is the only medicine that is never out of wonder. It is the only medicine that is never out of amazement. It is the only medicine that is never out of astonishment. It is the only medicine that is never out of disbelief. It is the only medicine that is never out of doubt. It is the only medicine that is never out of uncertainty. It is the only medicine that is never out of hesitation. It is the only medicine that is never out of procrastination. It is the only medicine that is never out of delay. It is the only medicine that is never out of failure. It is the only medicine that is never out of defeat. It is the only medicine that is never out of despair. It is the only medicine that is never out of hopelessness. It is the only medicine that is never out of resignation. It is the only medicine that is never out of submission. It is the only medicine that is never out of surrender. It is the only medicine that is never out of defeat. It is the only medicine that is never out of loss. It is the only medicine that is never out of pain. It is the only medicine that is never out of suffering. It is the only medicine that is never out of grief. It is the only medicine that is never out of sorrow. It is the only medicine that is never out of tears. It is the only medicine that is never out of lamentation. It is the only medicine that is never out of mourning. It is the only medicine that is never out of bereavement. It is the only medicine that is never out of loss. It is the only medicine that is never out of pain. It is the only medicine that is never out of suffering. It is the only medicine that is never out of grief. It is the only medicine that is never out of sorrow. It is the only medicine that is never out of tears. It is the only medicine that is never out of lamentation. It is the only medicine that is never out of mourning. It is the only medicine that is never out of bereavement.

LOCATED IN NEW QUARTERS.
S. G. Roberts Has a New Grocery Stock in a New Building.

The handsome building just erected by J. J. Wolfenden at No. 108 South Front street is completed and makes an imposing appearance. The structure is made of brick and the front is built of white pressed brick with gray stone trimming. It is 105 feet deep by 30 ft. wide. The windows are French plate glass measuring 6 1/2 by 5 1/2 feet and are 1 of an inch thick. The upper story of the building will be used for offices by Mr. Wolfenden for his personal use.

Mr. S. G. Roberts occupies the store room with his wholesale grocery stock and has all of his goods most conveniently arranged, and is better enabled than ever before to handle the large trade with which he is favored. He has every line of staple and fancy groceries in their proper places and his customers have but to go through the store to see how complete is the stock and how neat and handy is the store. The office is also a large and handsome room admirably adapted for the purposes for which it was designed. In all respects it is a very convenient and handsome store. Mr. Roberts and his sons are to be congratulated on excellent location and splendid outfit.

IMPORTANT TRIPLE ARREST
Colored Tramps Taken into Custody by Officer Montague.

Officer Montague made an important capture of some thieves yesterday. He had received the complaint from Virgil Osby a colored resident of Queen street that his shop had been broken open and things inside molested. The officer had also been informed of depredations elsewhere as well as the presence in the neighborhood of three suspicious characters. He found some men loitering and loafing around in that vicinity and upon enquiry found they were the ones suspected. He arrested them and a trial was given before Mayor Patterson yesterday afternoon. They were found guilty of breaking into a building with felonious intent and in default of bond were taken to the county jail to await trial in the Superior court, April 9.

They were negroes giving their names as John Williams and William Morris, of Wilmington and Charlie McCray of Norfolk. Williams and Morris are both black, the former about 5 feet 9 inches and the latter 5 feet 4 inches tall, Morris has a mustache, McCray is a ginger cake colored negro somewhat smaller than the other men and has a mustache. All three range in ages from 21 to 25 years. It is believed they are old offenders and possibly fugitives from justice. They were tramps and had no money about them. They had been begging from house to house.

FACTS IN FEW LINES

Workmen recently cut down two fine old elm trees in Salem to save the expense of cleaning them of the brown-tail and gypsy moths.

Ram bows are to be discarded by the British admiralty for future battleships. H. M. S. Dreadnought, now under construction at Portsmouth, will not have a ram.

A homing pigeon five months old at the time was released on the Isle of Man in August, 1903. It was long ago given up for lost. At last it has returned to its loft in Liverpool.

A Turkish soldier goes into battle without ever having fired a rifle in his life, as not even blank cartridges are served out to regiments on drill, so great is the fear of an uprising.

All Mussulmans over twenty are amenable to military service and are only exempt after they have passed the age of forty, but all inhabitants of Constantinople, even Mussulmans, are exempt from serving in the army.

Mohammed Ben Terna, a young Moorish grandee, has gone mad from unavailing efforts to keep three wives together in peace and seclusion in a flat in Paris. Mohammed goes to an asylum and his wives go back to Tangier.

American locomotives are not a success in Japan, according to the report of the Japanese railway bureau. It is claimed that the boilers are leaky and the rivets imperfectly fastened. In many instances the parts were damaged through bad packing.

Few wild animals are left in New Zealand. The government takes good care of the remnant and seeks to add new varieties. Among recent importations are chamois from the Austrian Alps, which ought to flourish in the mountains of New Zealand.

Charles Flint of Camden, N. H., is the owner of a bliscuit which was given his father as a souvenir of his visit to the frigate Constitution in 1855 when the vessel was lying in the harbor at Portsmouth. The bliscuit is oval in shape, three inches by five, two inches thick.

Palladium, a rare substance little used, is the active agent in automatic gas lighting devices. Flame is produced as soon as the illuminating gas strikes a pellet of asbestos covered with a mixture of palladium and finely divided platinum, known as platinum black.

The latest novelty in vegetables is a black potato, which has been sent to a seed grower of London. This eccentric tuber came from the Torres and is said to have an excellent flavor. It is especially recommended for ornamental cookery and in salads.

In altering an old hotel in New York city it has been found that the beams, floor boards and woodwork are of solid mahogany. The structure would prove a perfect mine of wealth if it could be razed, but the owner refuses to allow this to be done under any circumstances.

Jan. 1, 1872, Ebenezer Drake of Mechanic Falls, Me., placed $50 in a savings bank for the benefit of a cemetery association. The money is not available until it has increased to $100,000. It now amounts to $200, and it is figured that the association will get the money in 2003.

Because of lack of funds work on Lippincott's Dictionary of the English Language has ceased. Twenty American scholars, working fourteen years, representing an outlay of $400,000, have reached the word dog. J. Bertram Lippincott, its projector, expected to finish the work in five years.

Australia's different states having agreed to prohibit the sale and growth of opium, the commonwealth government has prohibited the importation of opium, except for medicinal purposes. All the states will lose revenue by the prohibition. The loss to Queensland alone is estimated at $80,000 yearly.

Mount Matutu, on the island of Savaii, Samoan group, has covered thirty square miles of land around it with lava, and a stream twelve miles wide is flowing into the sea. The lava is thrown up 1,200 feet and at latest accounts had increased the height of the mountain since Aug. 21 by 3,000 feet.

Ed Poole of Lynn, Mass., has two pets which probably cannot be duplicated in a day's journey. One is a pet crow which lives in a little house in the back yard. The other is the companion of the crow, a big rat. The rat occupies quarters in the crow's house, and they eat from the same dish. Both, too, are largely engaged in avoiding cats and dogs.

The height of the great Victoria falls of the Zambezi river, in South Africa, is much more than double that of Niagara falls, but the average volume of water flowing over the African precipice is so much less than that of the American river that in horsepower the Victoria falls probably average only about 15 to 20 per cent as much as the American Cataract.

Of Gibraltar the British commandant has been predicting night firing of a novel target. It is shaped like a destroyer and is equipped with incandescent lamps that can be switched on or off at will from the towing boat. The idea is to make the practice as realistic as possible. Out of the darkness the "destroyer" suddenly springs, giving the gunners only a few seconds to take aim before she disappears again.

The great Orton dam, which will hold New York's water supply, has been completed after ten years of continuous labor. The last stone was placed by Comptroller Metz in the presence of the city officials. The dam is eleven miles in length and varies in thickness from a mile at the base to a quarter of a mile at the top. The dam is 200 feet deep, reaching below the surface of the earth an even 100 feet.
