Cove.

April 5.
It is to be hoped that spring has opened at last, after a long wet spell.

The farmers have gone to work in earnest as they are so far behind in their work.

We have heard of but little corn planted yet, bean planting is all the hurry now.

There was a small blaze in Cove Sunday morning, it was J. J. Boyd's residence roof, but was stopped with very little damage. The fire was caused by a spark from the stove flue.

Mr. S. C. Lane went to Goldboro last night.

Mr. C. L. Wetherington was buried Tuesday evening at Asberry. He was nearly 83 years old. He leaves one son and two daughters; several grand-children and great-grandchildren. He was a good husband and kind father and good neighbor.

What is the matter? There are more empty houses around Cove than ever were known before. Most of the time somebody wants a house and can't get it.

A trip to Trenton yesterday showed that the roads were improving some, but in some places there is good road about 18 inches under the ground.

If you would lose that dull old headache And feel as lively as a flea, Make haste to your druggist And buy some Rock Mountain Tea. Sold by F. S. Duffy.

Pelletier

April 5.
The farmers in our mid-t are all about through receiving their fertilizer and are making haste while the sun shines.

Capt George Taylor's boat was in our waters yesterday, heavily loaded with guano for our farmers.

Our polite and genial fruit tree agent Robert Hurst was in our vicinity yesterday last. He is indeed a hustler, as he traveled through a tremendous rain to deliver his goods.

Mr. George Bell from Bogue was here today on business.

Mrs. Sarah Wells and daughter spent last Sunday in Swanton visiting relatives.

Mr. Henry Wiggins made a business trip to Newport last Saturday.

Messrs N C Weeks and Cole from Cedar Point were here last Saturday.

A good many of our young people are attending a revival at Bethlehem this week. They speak in the highest terms of the minister. They say it is indeed a revival of religion. May the good work prosper.

Mr. Franklin Brick, one of our oldest citizens, is somewhat feeble this week. We hope he will soon feel well again. X. Y. Z.

Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is a wonderful spring tonic. It drives out all impurities. A good thing for the whole family. Keeps you well all summer. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets. Sold by F. S. Duffy.

County Democratic Executive Meeting

The Craven County Democratic Executive Committee met at the office of the chairman, E. M. Green, Esq., on Wednesday, April 11th 1906, for the purpose of fixing the time of holding the precinct primaries and county convention.

Chairman Green called the meeting to order and requested E. A. Nunn to act as secretary.

Upon motion the time for holding precinct primaries in the county outside of New Bern was fixed for Saturday 11th day of April, 1906, and to be held at the last polling places at 8 o'clock p. m., and the time for holding the ward primaries in the City of New Bern was fixed for the evening of Friday April 12th, 1906, to be held at the various voting places in wards at 8 o'clock p. m., and the time for holding the county convention was fixed for Friday April 20th 1906, to be held in the county court house at 12 o'clock M.

The business of the primaries will be the selection of delegates to the county convention and five members of the precinct executive committee. The chairman of each of the precinct committees is ex-officio member of the County Executive Committee. The business of the county convention will be the selection of delegates to the Congressional, Senatorial and State Conventions.

Notice to the Public

The drymen of New Bern announce beginning with April 11th they will charge 25 cents per load for hauling from the A. C. L. & A. N. C. depots to any part of the city.

Charged With Incendiarism

Special to Journal.

Raleigh, April 11.—A magistrate here held M. T. Norris, a prominent Raleigh merchant in $1,000 bail, to appear before the Superior court in July on the charge of burning a county residence owned by his wife to obtain the insurance. The case is pressed by the Insurance Department and a local insurance company. His attorneys express belief the grand jury will not return a true bill. They accuse the chief witness against Norris of having himself set fire to the house, and say he was the last man at the place before the fire. The case was very sensational. Thomas rented the place last year, sublet it, and had to pay rent. He offered Norris $1,000 for it, but $1,500 was demanded.

Phases of Theatrical Life

The people who sit in front of the curtain at the theatre know, as a rule, so little of the life of the people whom they see upon the stage that they are usually unable to form any reasonable and intelligent idea of what manner of men and women the actor folks are. Theatrical people are generally seen upon the stage acting parts entirely foreign to their nature, character and tastes.

The gay and heartless coquette or the graceful dancer picaresque on her toes, give no outward sign of the struggling wife and mother she may be while the treacherous villain who earns only the execrations of his auditors and whom every one wants to see dangling from the end of a rope, may be a very good hearted and honest sort of a fellow, to whom all who know him wish well.

In the London Nineteenth Century Review for December last, Adolphus Vane Tempest gives some interesting aspects of stage life. The first phase of the subject which he brings to view is the morality of stage people in general. He declares that in the better class of theatres in Europe the intercourse of the actors and actresses is carried on under the regulations of a rigid discipline and in this particular the American stage is now superceding that of Europe. There is not a company on the road to day that exercises more care in the selection of its people than does the Herald Square Opera Company which appears here Mon. and Tues. 13 and 17 in their season's success "A Trip To India." In its nine years history it has ever aimed to do its full share toward the uplifting of the stage and from the fact that it has played to colleges and convents, even churches, it is somewhat its efforts are being rewarded.

DEFENDANTS CALL

ED AND FAILED.

A Sensation Sprung at Superior Court Yesterday. Session Held Until Long in the Night.

The Superior court convened at nine o'clock yesterday morning and began a day of strenuous work. A rather unlooked for denouement was the absence of parties for whom true bills had been rendered for selling liquor without a license. The names of Messrs. J. O. Land and James Harrison, and the colored men Providence Bryan and Gordon were called in court and failed to find. Bonds were ordered forfeited and capias issued for each. It was found later that James Harrison was at his home confined to his bed by sickness and his bond was restored, the officers were unable to locate the other men. The other cases passed upon were:

State vs Paul Venable, fraud, 8 months in jail; assigned to work on roads.

State vs Thomas Midyette, assault, $10 and costs.

State vs Joe Green, obtaining money on false pretenses, case taken on appeal from magistrate's court; judgment of lower court affirmed.

Jas. A. Bryan, assault with deadly weapon, six months in jail or to work on roads.

The case of William Sultan for selling liquor without a license was called after the noon recess and continued until night. The testimony was quite involved and in some instances was the cause of a deal of wrangling.

Judge Long being anxious to adjourn court held the case last night.

Letter to J K Land

Dear Sir: Some think we take a good deal of risk in inviting complaints of Devoe lead-and-zinc—we authorize our agent to sell it under this guarantee:

"If you have any fault to find with this paint, either now in putting it on, or hereafter in the wear, tell your dealer about it."

"We authorize him to do what is right at our expense."

The following story tells how little the risk is:

J. H. Asher & Co., hardware dealers, Rhinebeck, N. Y., have sold Devoe from '78 to now: have sold thousands of gallons and have had just one complaint in all this time.

Three sides of a house were perfect; the fourth was as bad as the three were good.

Explanation—It rained the night before the fourth side was painted, and the painters didn't wait for the wood to dry.

What is done in such a case? What ever the dealer, who sold the paint, considers it fair to do. We leave it to him. He may not do exactly what we should do if we were there. The best we can do is to leave it to him.

Yours truly,
F. W. Devoe & Co.

More Local Manufacturing.

There was told in these columns a few weeks ago, that a carload of agricultural implements had been shipped from this city, these implements all being manufactured here.

Another manufacturing item to be added to the above is the shipment of a solid carload of buggies, all made in New Bern, and probably the first shipment of the kind ever made from here.

These buggies, top buggies, were manufactured by G. S. Waters & Sons, and bought by J. A. Jones, the well known dealer in horses, mules and all kinds of goods which are used in connection with a sales and livery stable.

Mr. Jones who takes the entire output of Waters & Sons, made the shipment to J. M. Roane at Mayville, N. C.

ARGUMENTS BEFORE SUPREME COURT.

Lillian Seeks New Trial. The Council Case Passed Upon.

Special to Journal.

Raleigh, N. C., April 11.—In the Supreme court there was conclusion of argument in the very remarkable case of Bob Lillian the fakir convicted of killing Charles G. Smith of Petersburg here, who was sentenced to fourteen years in the penitentiary for murder in the second degree. Attorneys for Lillian lodged a motion for a new trial upon the ground of newly discovered evidence, this being that of a woman, given since the conviction in the Superior court. It is said the Supreme court will hardly grant the motion after its action in the Council case from Cumberland county. In this case associate Justice Douglas resipited Council who was convicted of rape, on the ground of newly discovered evidence, until the full bench could pass upon the evidence.

The court decided this was not the practice and there was no precedent. The court has affirmed this doctrine in the Register.

Speaks for Itself.

The following letter was received from James D. Nutt, State Deputy Grand Chancellor K. of P. of Wilmington, N. C., and it is one that reflects great credit upon the attraction that is to be exhibited here on April 30th to May 5th inclusive:

Wilmington N. C., April 5, 1906.
Mr. Jas. H. Smith, K. of R. & S., New Bern, N. C.

Dear Sir and Brother:

I understand that you are to have the Pierce Amusement Company in your city shortly, for a week's stand, and that it is under the auspices of Athena Lodge, K. of P., and I thought a word from me would not be amiss.

I have seen these shows, and I pronounce them clean and wholesome. There is not a bad feature among them, and the absence of "Preks" is certainly refreshing.

I thought, maybe, a word from one who had seen them would help to swell the crowd and make glad the "timid" ones, as there is absolutely nothing that will mar the feelings of the most sensitive.

Trusting that you may do well, and with best wishes, I am
Fraternally yours,
J. D. NUTT.

A Card.

I have just learned that some of my opponents have seen fit to circulate the report that I have withdrawn from the race for Register of Deeds, which is false and without any foundation whatever. I wish to say to my friends and enemies, that I am in the race to a finish and can truthfully say that I have never thought once of withdrawing, therefore I utterly fail to see how such a report could ever have been circulated.

Respectfully,
RICHARD P. LANE.

How Japs Keep Strong

Journal Readers Can Learn Something of Value from This

Such a thing as a weakling is hardly known in Japan. The wonderful endurance of the Japanese soldiers and sailors in the recent war has been the marvel of all nations. Both men and women are well, happy and strong.

The reason for this, so careful investigators tell us, is that the Japanese from childhood up know how to keep well through care of the digestive system. If they have trouble with indigestion, heartburn, wind on the stomach, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, headaches, rheumatic pains, back-aches, or any of the other troubles caused by a weak stomach, they treat themselves with some of the principal remedies that compose Mi-o-na, a stomach remedy that has already a large sale in New Bern at F. S. Duffy.

So uniformly successful has the remedy been in curing all stomach troubles where it is used in accordance with the simple directions given with each box, that F. S. Duffy gives a signed guarantee with every 50 cent package to refund the money if Mi-o-na fails to benefit.
