OFF FOR ATLANTA

But Party Was Criminals Not Exonerated.

Prisoners are Product of Last Federal Court Unusual Occurrence in Connection Blackburn Case, Fall off Steam Roller, Visitors To City Married.

(Special Correspondence.)

Greenboro, N. C. April 13.—Last evening eight men in double file, two handcuffed together, marched in procession down Main street to the Southern Railway depot. Bringing up the rear was a well dressed and handsome woman escorted by Deputy Marshal Holton of High Point. Leading the procession was United Marshal J. M. Millikan. The eight men and one woman were being taken from the jail to the station, and at seven twenty o'clock the whole crowd boarded the train for Atlanta, where they go to begin serving sentences in the penitentiary. All of the prisoners, except Mr. and Mrs. Smoot who go for counterfeiting, were convicted at the present term of Federal court for illicit distilling. Last week B. F. Sprinkle of Rockingham, who was convicted two years ago of defrauding the government by juggling with revenue stamps on whiskey packages, was sent to Atlanta to begin serving his sentence of two years.

An unusual occurrence developed to day when it became known that Acc Dinkins, W. R. Kridler and Frank Edleman, whom the government alleges paid Congressman Blackburn the money as fees for settling their cases before the Internal Revenue Commissioner, and who are the principal witnesses on the three grand jury indictments, were not only in Greenboro but were in conference with Blackburn and his attorneys. Enquiry developed another fact, that these men had regularly subpoenaed to appear in court to day at this term of the Federal court as witnesses for defendant in the trial of the case of United States against E. Spencer Blackburn. As the trial has all along been set for next week, and is designated as special term of the Circuit court, the proceeding are considered novel. Asked as to the matter, both Judge Boyd and District Attorney Holton said they knew nothing at all about it, and the Clerk of the court said that as he issued subpoenas in blank he had no means of knowing for whom they were wanted. Marshal Millikan admitted that his deputies had served the subpoenas but said he knew nothing more about it and that it was not an unusual thing so far as he knew.

The Woman's Missionary Society of Forest Avenue Baptist church was recently organized with fifteen members and with prospects of an active and usual career.

Mr. H. T. Trickett, foreman of the Street Paving Company in stepping off the steam roller, used in smoothing the surface of the pavement, slipped and sprained his back, yesterday afternoon. Miss Helen N. Eveland, of Newark, N. J. was married to Gardner A. Callahan of Toledo O. in this city yesterday. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Vincent Taylor, rector of St. Benedict's Catholic church at the rectory.

Democratic Primaries.

Democratic primaries were hereby called in the various wards in the city of New Bern to meet on the night of Friday, April 20th, 1906, at 8 o'clock, p. m., to select delegates to the County Convention, which is called to meet at the Court house in New Bern on Friday, April 27th, 1906, at 12 o'clock.

Primaries are hereby called in the precincts outside New Bern to meet on Saturday, April 21st, at 3 o'clock p. m. Precinct committees of five are to be selected at the same time delegates are chosen to the County Convention.

The County Convention is called for the purpose of sending delegates to the State Judicial, Congressional and Senatorial Conventions.

By order of the Executive Committee. ERNEST M. GREEN, Chairman.

SULTAN FOUND GUILTY.

An Important Case Ends in an Unexpected Manner. Grand Jury Recommendations.

The trial of William Sultan, which has been of all absorbing interest since it commenced on Wednesday came to an end last evening by the jury bringing in a verdict of guilty. A unanimous recommendation to the court for mercy accompanied the verdict. The trial of this case was quite strenuous and its progress was impeded by almost constant exceptions and objections. The trial consumed considerable time at the court hours but the jury was only twenty minutes deliberating on the merits of the case.

Before the session ended in the afternoon the grand jury made its report and was discharged. Judge Long complimented the jury in high terms of praise on its excellent work and good suggestions for improvement of county institutions. The report was as follows: 107 bills were presented, of these 65 were returned as "true," 25 as "not true" and 17 continued. They recommended that the county jail be supplied with new steel cells, that it have a new floor and that the court house and jail be heated by steam; that a kitchen be placed on the county home and that court room and offices be painted and otherwise improved. The judge ordered the clerk to make entry in the books of record.

The last session was called at eight o'clock to complete the business of the court. Just after the opening the jury on the first case of the State vs Sultan came into the room and reported that they were not able to obtain a verdict. They had been deliberating on the case for nearly 48 hours. No further service required of them so they were discharged.

The attention of the court was then called to the disposition of the second case against the defendant, William Sultan, he having been found guilty the counsel were given the opportunity to prove the financial condition of the defendant and give all such facts as would be helpful to his case. Several witnesses were examined to establish his character.

Judge Long entered on a brief review of the case. He stated that the defense had failed to deny several statements made by the State, the defendant not having testified in his own behalf, it was the province of the court to only consider what had been said and done and to take cognizance of evidence. He talked strongly and plainly on the case and said that the only way to get rid of a bad law was to repeal it. Nothing was gained by disobeying its provisions. He closed his talk with imposing a sentence of a fine of $500 and five months in jail. The defendant's attorneys immediately gave notice of appeal to Supreme court.

Assisting Solicitor Moore were Messrs A. D. and D. L. Ward; and the counsel for Mr. Sultan were Messrs W. W. Clark, W. D. McIver, M. DeW. Stevenson and R. B. Nixon. The court then adjourned for the term.

Mad Dog Attacks Small Girl.

Florence Jones, a small colored girl, living up town in the vicinity of Richardson's alley, was attacked by a dog that proved to be mad Thursday afternoon and was terribly bitten. The dog is said to have attacked several other dogs both before and after, and it is also said to have bitten a man.

Policeman Lon Bryan who was on duty at Five Points was notified of the attack and went to the place and ran the animal down and killed it. Other dogs suspected of having been bitten will be killed.

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate gland. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rock Port, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 61 years old."

Trip to India Was Great.

Kinston Free Press 13.

The Herald Square Opera Company lived up to its reputation made at its former appearance in this city by presenting "A Trip to India" at the local theater Thursday night in a manner that was entirely acceptable to the fair sized audience, which evidenced its approval by frequent bursts of applause on certain calls. The company is a good one all the way through and with the exception of the small chorus has no weak points.

"A Trip to India" is a musical extravaganza with an abundance of comedy running through the entire play and both features were well done by well trained players. The singing, especially of the tenor and the leading lady, was the best heard on the stage here in a long time and the two leading comedians were very good indeed. The costumes were gorgeous and expensive.

The Herald Square Opera Company proved themselves capable entertainers and deserved a crowded house.

The Herald Square Opera Company appears here Monday and Tuesday nights and at Tuesday matinee. The public may expect an unusually good show.
