OME THINGS CONCERNING THE GRADED SCHOOL

The most important institution in w Bern receives less actual attention. probably any other institution in city, and this neglected institution, point of receiving personal attention the part of those most deeply and itally concerned in its management, is e Graded School, and those neglectful, the parents of the hundreds of hildren who attend, and whose future ves will be largely influenced by those roundings and conditions which go make up the hours of school attendice, and the hours which school influences affect, outside of the school.

Parental duty in the education of the shild is not fulfilled in seeing the child et off to school in the morning. eeing the child return after school, nd when school reports are brought me, giving these a look over. with perhaps a question of two conerning them. There is too much I the idea that children are to be edcated by the teacher, with the simple progrement of the parent to go ahead nd do the best you can, encouraging punishing as they may judge best and it is very largely this mistaker ea, that the teacher is to have sole harge, that keeps parents away from visiting the school room, and by per onal observation understand what the hild is doing, and what its surroundgs are, therefore a knowledge of what o-operation is needed to assist the eacher in the child's educational life. Another neglect of this most imporint institution, the Graded School, is shameful exposure of the school grounds to the public which is not conerned in its welfare, and through this penness, the annoyances which teachers and pupils are subjected to during the engaged in study. Here are the most important matters calling for not a mere notice on the part of the Journal, but the thought of hose vitally concerned, the parents the children who should acquaint nselves with the school room, and he friends of education, and every ablic spirited person, who should see at the school buildings are kept with ich proper restrictions, as to preserve helr character and dignity as educanal institutions, which the presen a campus does, not, being ight, as much so as the open street school building and grounds are mir proportionate degree as sacred a church and its premises. FIRST CARRIAGE IN MAINE.

How a Mintefer Came to Day It and

Why He Sold It. The Rev. Francis Winter was a native of Boston and a graduate of Hur-vard college. He went to Bath carly in 1767 and, after preaching on probation

Mr. Winter married Miss Abigail Alden in 1768, and it is through her that the Winters of today trace their ancestry back to the "Puritan Maiden of Plymouth.'

Three years after the marriage of the Rev. Francis Winter and Abigail Alden they started to visit a sister of Mrs. Winter living in Connecticut and intended to ride all the way on horse back, but Mrs. Winter became so fatigued that Mr. Winter sold one of the horses for a carriage and harness. It was the first carriage that ever came into Maine and was called a chaise. Traveling was so difficult that two negroes were employed to accompany them with shovels and axes to clear the road. Several times the chaise had to be taken apart and lifted over fallen The minister's parishioners thought that it was putting on too much style for their pastor to ride in a arriage, and in consequence Mr. Winter sold it. This was in 1771. It was a two wheeled chaise, the body resting on leather braces, which were attached to wooden springs.—Lewiston Journal.

A DAZZLING EFFECT.

6ld Time Illumination With Lantern and Candles.

In these days of electric lights, with all their capabilities for brilliant illumination, it is amusing to read what the subjects of George II. considered a dazzling effect. A Frenchman visiting in London at the time of the coronation of that monarch in 1727 writes enthus lastically in praise of the lighting of the city as well as of a banquet display.

"Most of the streets." writes M Saussure, "are wonderfully well lighted. In front of each house hangs lautern, or large globe of glass, in side of which is placed a lamp which burns all night. Large houses have two of these suspended outside the doors by iron supports. Some even have four."

How one are light would have daz zled the good people of that day! "When the coronation procession en tered Westminster hall," the writer continues, "the light of day was beginning to fade. Forty chandellers, in shape like a crown, hung from the cell ing, each having thirty-six wax can

"On the king's appearance all suddenly lighted, and every one in the room was filled with astonishment at the wooderful and unexpected illumination. Little cords of cotton wool, imporceptible to the eye, saturated with sulphur of saltpeter, spirits of wine and other ingredients, had been prepared and arranged so us to carry the flame rapidly from one candle to another. The arrangement had been so skillfully prepared that scarcely a caudle failed to take fire."

For Doning Oneself. A physician recommends rochelle salts for amateur doctoring. He says that it is an excellent thing, several times a day, to take as much of the salts as mer be put on a cent in a little wa ter. That will sweeten the stomach and not as a very desirable spring medicine. He also speaks highly of sods, having no patience with those timid people who have an idea that it is a daugerous dose, doing some vague harm to the coating of the intestines.

"Why, everything we eat, simost, has sodn in it." he cried in disdain. "It is an admirable thing to take half rochelle salts and half bicarbonate of soda, as directed, several times a day I know of few gentler and still more beneficent general medicines."

A Poisonous Frog.

People in general look upon all spe cies of the frog as being perfectly barmiess. Should you be traveling in New Granada (United States of Colombia), however, you would do well to let a certain little tree croaker severe ly alone. He secretes a poison equally as deadly as that of the rattleanake It exudes from his skin in the shape of a milky liquid and is used by the natives as a poison for their arrows.

AN EFFORT TO PULL THROUGH THE DAY.

I have used S. S. S. quite extensively and unhesitatingly recommend it as the best blood purifier and tonic made.

I am a machinist by trade and at one time my system was pletely exhausted, and it was with the greatest effort that and blood purifier it is all you claim for it.

771 E Main St., Springfield, O. MRS. G. WIEGEL.

On two occasions I have used S. S. S. in the spring with

The ingredients that enter into S. S. S. and the method of combining and preparing them so that they build up and strengthen every part of the body, make it the greatest of all tonics. S. S. S. is nature's remedy-PURELY VEGETABLE-and while it is restoring the lost appetite, overcoming that tired, run-down feeling, and other ailments common to Spring, which warn us that it is necessary to take a tonic, it is purifying the blood of all poisons and waste matters so that it can supply to the system the strength and nourishment it needs to keep it in perfect condition during the depressing summer months that are to follow.

Spring is the season when most every one needs a tonic. It is nature's time for renewing and changing; and as everything puts on new life, the sap rises in vegetation, the earth thaws out from its winter freezes, and all respond to Spring's call to purge and purify themselves, there is a great change also takes place in our bodies. The blood endeavors to throw off the poisons and accumulations which have formed in the system, and been absorbed by it, from the inactive winter life, and calls upon every member to assist in the elimination. The system is often unequal to the struggle, the appetite grows fickle, the energies give way. the spirits are depressed, and a general rundown condition is the result.

Then the body must have assistanceit must be strengthened and aided by a tonic, and S. S. S. is the ideal one. Being made entirely from roots, herbs and barks, it does not disagreeably affect the system in any way as do most of the so-called tonics on the market, which contain Potash or some other harmful mineral ingredient to derange the stomach and digestion, unfavorably affect the bowels, or otherwise damage the health. S. S. S. tones up the stomach and digestion and assists in the assimilation of food; it rids the system of that always-tired, worn-out feeling, and imparts vigor and tone to every part of the body. It reestablishes the healthy circulation of the blood, stimulates the sluggish organs, and calms the unstrung nerves which make one feel that he is on the verge of prostration. S. S. S. gives an appetite and relish for food that nothing else does, and by its use we can find ourselves with as hearty, hungry an appetite in Spring as at any other season.

It acts more promptly and gives better and more lasting results than any other remedy, and is absolutely safe because of its vegetable purity. Dyspeptic, irritable, nervous, debilitated people will find S, S, S, is just the medicine that is needed for the purification of the blood, which, from its diseased or impure condition, is causing their trouble, as well as for toning up and helping the entire system. When you take your tonic this Spring do not experiment, but get the best-the tonic with forty years of success behind it, and the one endorsed by the best people all over the country-S. S. S., THE GREATEST OF ALL TONICS. It is necessary at this time, when the system is depleted and weakened at every point, that the right remedy be used-one that is especially adapted to the condition, and S. S. S. has proved itself to be this remedy for many years. If it is taken at the first sign of Spring the system will be so built up and strengthened that the disagreeable affections of the season will not be felt as warmer weather comes on.
