resent Golden Seal as an unsurpassed tonic for the muscular system in general, and as the heart is almost wholly composed of muscular tissue, it maturally follows that it must be greatly strengthened by this superb general tonic. But probably the most important ingredient of "Golden Medical Discovery," so far as its marvelous cures of valvular and other affections of the heart are concerned, is Stone root, or Collinsonia Can., Prof. Wm. Paine, author of Palne's Spitomy of Medicine, says of it:

1. not long since had a patient who was so much commend with rativatar disease of the heart that his friends were obliged to carry him upstairs. He, however, gradually recovered under the influence of Collinsonia imedicinal principle satracted from Stone must, and is now attending to his business. Havetoner physicians knew of no remedy for the removal of a distressing and so dancerous a malady. With them it was all rouse work, and is for the fearuity warmed the allicated that death was near at hand. Collinsonia unquestionably affords relief in such classes and in most instances effects a gare.

Stone root is also recommended by Drs.

Store root is also recommended by Drs. Hale and Ellingwood, of Chicago, for valvular and other diseases of the heart. The latter says: "It is a heart tonic of direct and permanent influence."

"Golden Medical Discovery," not only sures serious heart affections, but is a meet efficient general tonic and invigorator, strengthesing the stomach, invigorating the liver, regulating the bowels and curing catarrhal affections in all parts of the system.
