We received a very interesting letter county, seventeen years ago, but has a few days ago from Senator Walker Leen a resident of New Bern most of Meares who is so well known in this his life. A strange and sad coincident is that his disease and death were very similar to that of Wade Land, his cousin, who died in April, and to whom he was very much attached, the two being nearly the same age. He was an industrious, steady and reliable young man and had a host of friends who are manufactured in the cotton trade for Messrs Alex Sprunt & Son of Wilmington. He is now in Hartsville, S. C. busy in the work. He writes that the farmers are yet holding large lots of cotton.
