OLD AND YOUNG Find in Pe-ru-na a Reliable Friend.

For the Debility of Old People—The Catarrhal Diseases of the Middle Aged—The Coughs and Colds of Children and the Various Ailments of Infants—Pe-ru-na is Used and Recommended.

Mrs. Helen Dawson, Swedes, Tex., writes: "I believe Pe-ru-na to be the best tonic in use for a run-down system of general debility, also for all throat and lung trouble, and ailments originating from colds."
"I believe Pe-ru-na and Manilla would cure anything."
"I have used them in my family for years and never have a doctor bill to pay."
"I know the medicine to be all that is claimed for it."
"I recommend it to all."

Mr. Caleb Conklin, Midland, Ohio, writes: "After studying and watching my grandson's case, I can truthfully say he is a well boy with no symptoms of catarrh at all."
"Before taking your treatment, he was constantly clearing his head and throat and gagging. The glands of his throat were swollen badly and he was very pale."
"He is quite a different boy now. The rest of us had heavy colds during the past winter so as to be laid up for several days, but he seemed to be fortified."
"Revised Formula: "For a number of years requests have come to me from a multitude of grateful friends, urging that Pe-ru-na be given a slight laxative quality. I have been experimenting with a laxative addition for quite a length of time, and now feel gratified to announce to the friends of Pe-ru-na that I have incorporated such a quality in the medicine, which, in my opinion, can only enhance its well known beneficial character."

CLASS OF 1906

Commencement Day Exercises of Graded School at Opera House. Interesting Exercises. Four Graduates. Reception Last Night.
To the pupils, and the relatives and friends of those attending the Graded School, yesterday was a most important day, marking as it did closing exercises of the school, and the exercises which accompany commencement day.
The New Masonic Opera House, on the lower floor was comfortably filled, while on the stage were the class of graduates, four in number, Supt. Craven, Miss Hendren, Principal, County Supt. Brinson, President Green, and Trustees of the Academy, and Dr. B. F. Dixon, Speaker of the day.
Shortly before 11 o'clock the following program of the day's exercises began and was carried out:
Song—Star Spangled Banner.
Invocation—Rev. L. G. H. Williams.
Essay—New Bern in Colonial times. Esther Howard.
Essay—Public Schools in North Carolina. Fannie Smith.
Song—Soldiers Chorus.
Essay—Panama Canal. Clyde Hardison.
Presentation of Diplomas by T. A. Green.
Presentation of Medals by S. M. Brinson.
Presentation of Scholarships.
Literary Address by Dr. B. F. Dixon.
Announcements.
Benediction.

The essays of the graduating class were well read and splendidly gotten up, the subjects all being of interest. President Green of the Trustees, in a few well chosen words presented the diplomas to the graduates, Misses Esther Howard, Fannie Smith, Carita Wallace and Mr. Clyde Hardison. Miss Howard was valedictorian.
The awarding of the four gold medals by Supt. Brinson was of special interest. With his usual pleasing and happy address Mr. Brinson made those receiving the medals greatly pleased, and also left those who had failed feeling that their efforts were appreciated, and their striving was not without good to them.
The medal for highest in mathematics went to Miss Esther Howard, for English, to Miss Sadie Rice, the Latin, to Misses Katie Styron and Mary Ward, who tied.

Other awards were, scholarship to Elizabeth College, Charlotte to Miss Howard, and scholarship at A. & M. College, Raleigh, to Mr. Clyde Hardison.
The literary address of Dr. B. F. Dixon, of Raleigh, was in the gentleman's best style, and full of interest in every sentence to those who heard it. Doctor Dixon is one of the most pleasing of speakers, and his addresses all teem with valuable advice, delivered in the most convincing manner. He is always a welcome visitor in this city, where he has many friends.
The Reception.
The reception given by the juniors to the graduating class was a brilliant and very enjoyable occasion. There were many present who have an earnest interest in the welfare of the school. Dr. B. F. Dixon was the guest of honor for this occasion. Those receiving were Prof. Craven, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Green, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Munger, Dr. Dixon, W. H. Oliver, and H. C. Whitehurst.
The company was pleasantly entertained by musical and literary numbers by the pupils and afterwards refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served.

CONGRESSMAN COMMITS SUICIDE
Debt and Speculative Losses Cause Robert Adams of Pennsylvania to Shoot Himself.
Special to Journal.
Washington, June 1.—Hon. Robert Adams, representing the second Congressional district of Pennsylvania, shot himself with fatal result this morning at his room at the Metropolitan Club. He had taken a bath and was sitting nude in a chair and shot himself in the mouth. The report of the pistol was heard by an attendant of the club. He removed to the hospital where he died a few hours later.
Speaker Cannon read a letter from Adams in the House which was received while he was dying, stating that debt and losses by speculation in stocks was the cause of his suicide. He requested that a committee be appointed or memorial services held. He was popular with his colleagues.

The Elks Bazaar
The crowd at the bazaar last night was not diminished from other nights. From the opening at four o'clock, when the people assembled to see the reception of the pretty dances given Wednesday evening until late last night the Elks entertained hosts of their friends. The booths keep up their attractions and during a dull period the band plays and the dance begins.
The course supports are features that have made considerable money and they have been nicely arranged and served.
Today is the last day and every one should take advantage of this splendid opportunity to see the show. There are several additional features which have not been mentioned, but they will be immensely enjoyed. Remember the doll show tonight and the prize to be given to the child having the prettiest doll, also a prize goes to the one giving correctly the name of one of the dolls.

A WILKES COUNTY STORY

Senator Blackburn Reported Shot At
Vanstory Clothing Company to Close Up Business. Conscience Fund Started by Electric Company. Petty Thief Caught. (Special Correspondence)

Greensboro, June 1.—The Beall Hardware and Implement Company is the name of a new hardware business to open here in June, on West Market street.
M. C. N. Vanstory, who for 25 years has been president and manager of the Vanstory Clothing Company, one of the largest retail clothing stores in the State, has resigned, on account of ill health. At a meeting of stockholders yesterday, it was determined to sell out the stock, valued at $60,000 in bulk or by retail according to conditions. The immense stores of South Elm street will be closed tomorrow for the purpose of putting the grounds in shape and making the necessary classification. The stockholders were not willing to continue the immense business, without the active attention and services of its founder and builder, Mr. Neil Vanstory.

A new field of petty thieving has been developed here by the stealing of the little iron chips on the street car rails known as the bond wires. For some time the electric car people have been on the lookout for the thief, and this morning he proved to be a little negro named Joe Burton. A policeman caught him in the act of trying to sell a large bundle of the wires, prized from the rails, to a junk dealer.
A conscience fund has been started by the Greensboro Electric Co. The initial contribution is 10 cents which was received yesterday with the following letter.

Danville, Va., May 14, 1906.
Greensboro Electric Co.:
Enclose please find 10 cents for car fare that I owe you as I was on the car and the conductor did not collect my fare and I believe the Lord wants me to pay it.
(Signed) B. R.
It being the first letter of the kind ever received by the company they carried it to Smithdeal's book store and had it framed, and it will hang in their office on North Elm street. Between the latter and the glass in the upper corner of the frame is placed the five cent stamp. In the lower corner is the envelope bearing the address of the company as put on the conscience amitee person, the letter being in the center of the frame.

A Wilkes county republican, who was here yesterday is authority for the report that at a caucus held in Wilkesboro, over the nomination of republican candidate for county officers Monday, Congressman Blackburn was an active supporter of one candidate for sheriff, while S. H. Hardin ex-revenue officer, and Blackburn's former chief supporter, was championing the cause of the man who was defeated. The two men became so hot in the conference, which was a secret one behind closed doors, Hardin is said to have shot at Blackburn, the pistol ball going wide of the mark. It is being said here, that in making Judge Adams chairman, the organization completely debauched Blackburn, since Adams is looked upon by all the whiskey element which had been following and supporting the congressman, as their own peculiar and original friend.
