HE COMETH NOT, SAID SHE

Strange Actions of a New Bern Man Who Was a Prospective Bridegroom.

The following story from the Wilmington Star of Sunday June 3, will be read with interest by many friends of the missing bridegroom who is well known in this city:

"The unexplained absence of a bridegroom thwarted a wedding ceremony that was appointed to have taken place yesterday morning at the parish house of St. James at 8 o'clock. The parties to the marriage were to have been Miss Maggie Douglas, of this city, and Mr. E. G. Hill, of New Bern, but the latter failed to call for the bride at the home of Mrs. J. H. Bornemann, on Orange street, as had been agreed and to this moment, there are no tidings of him. He is said to be a man of some influence and property and his actions upon the occasion are exceedingly difficult to explain. At the Bonita House where he had been rooming for some time, he left an order for his trunk to be sent to the depot yesterday morning and that was the last seen of him. It is surmised by those acquainted with the facts that he has gone to Saluda, N. C.

The young woman who was to be his bride is much distressed over the affair.

CATARH FROM CHILDHOOD

Cured by Hyonol, the Only Medicine for Catarrh That F. S. Duffy is willing to Guarantee.

The popularity and growth of Hyonol are unique in the annals of medicine. The demand for Hyonol outlasts and the extra bottles in New Bern has been something phenomenal, and F. S. Duffy says that he has never sold any other remedy which gave such universal satisfaction and made so many remarkable cures.

The worst and most chronic case of catarrh readily yield to the use of Hyonol. People who have suffered from childhood have been cured by this remedy. J. S. Magdal, treasurer of the American Union Insurance Co., New York City, writes: "Hyonol has completely cured my daughter of catarrh, from which she had been suffering for years."

So many remarkable results have attended the use of Hyonol amongst the customers of F. S. Duffy, that he feels justified in using the strongest possible language in speaking of its efficacy, and when you read that its sale is under an absolute guarantee, you will see that he fully believes in its curative powers. A medicine which cures only one ailment, catarrh, is of little value.

Waterbury, Conn. Hyonol is sold by F. S. Duffy, New Bern, N. C. and by all druggists.

SLAUGHTER HOUSE EXPOSURE

Shocking Disclosure of Beef Trust Packing. How Can People Eat Meat.

(Special Correspondence.)

Washington, D. C. June 4.—The most interesting subject before Congress and the country at present is that of the exposure of the outrageous conditions which prevail in the great slaughtering and packing houses of the West and possibly of the East. In fact all other questions are for the time obscured by this and there is little doubt but that other business in Congress will be put aside for the enactment of legislation that will look toward improving the situation there. The government has long been dilatory in regard to the beef trust and ever since the day of the embalmed beef scandal during the late war the subject has from time to time been revived but it was not until the publication of "The Jungle," a novel revealing the disgrace of "Packingtown" that the President and the country at large became thoroughly aroused and a serious movement was undertaken to clean house there. The report secured by the President from his two representatives sent to Chicago to investigate the slaughtering and packing industry has not been made public but it is said to confirm the statements of Mr. Sinclair as to the diseased and poisoned meats which are sold with the government stamp upon them. Investigators report that meats are packed in surroundings abhorrently filthy, and by employees having tuberculosis and leprosy disease; that cattle and hogs suffering with tuberculosis, lumpy jaw, ulcers and other diseases are not destroyed but packed and sent out whenever the traces of disease can be removed, or when this is impossible used as sausage, potted meats and other delicacies in which the defects can be concealed and that the refuse of diseased animals, the lumpy jaws, ulcers, flesh, tubercular glands, unborn calves, cow udders and gristle masquerade as sausage, real loaf potted chicken, canned breakfast bacon and the like, while decayed and putrefying meats are treated with formaldehyde, painted and dyed to the color of fresh meats and doctored with borax and other preservatives. Senator Beveridge bill which provides that an adequate number of inspectors shall be employed to inspect the meat and that they shall have the power to destroy meat condemned has passed the Senate and is likely the pass the lower House though it will have serious opposition there as Speaker Cannon comes from the Beef Trust centre and has declared that he will look after their "interests."

There's little room in this great world of ours for the "Fat Woman." She's a hindrance to herself in street cars, flats, elevators; but what can she do, poor thing—take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, tea or tablet. Sold by F. S. Duffy.

Increased Cotton Acreage

Special to Journal

Washington, June 4.—The crop estimating board of the Agricultural department estimates increase of cotton acreage to be 5 per cent over last year. Build Roads, Then Take Care of Them.

The work on Trent road is progressing very nicely, four miles being about completed in a substantial manner. Persons passing across the road are well pleased with the improvement. However, a little carelessness may undo a part of the good work. It is noticed that along the fields adjacent, plowmen drive their horses out into the road to turn, thus letting their plows cut furrows leading into the ditch, and the dirt from the furrow is thrown in the ditch where it is allowed to remain. When it rains much sand and dirt is washed from the fields through the furrows, and in a short while the ditches will be filled up and the condition of the road be about as bad as ever.

A NEW BRIDGE OVER THE NEUSE

Residents of Fort Barnwell and Maple Cypress Are Anxious For It.

A large delegation from Maple Cypress and Fort Barnwell were in the city yesterday and waited on the County Commissioners at their regular monthly meeting and presented a petition for the construction of a bridge over the Neuse at a point between the two places.

The County Commissioners are reported to be in favor of the project and while nothing definite was done it is probable that the desire of the people will be fulfilled. Prominent in the delegation were Messrs M. D. Lane, B. E. Wootton, W. R. Sams and others. Other Fort Barnwell, J. J. Dixon, J. J. Blund, J. A. Aldridge and others from Maple Cypress and Mr. W. C. White of Vanceboro.

A BREACH OF PEACE

A Busy Day in Justice S. R. Street's Court.

An unusually long period of peace and quiet was broken yesterday by quite a spirited scrap. The fight began in the Red Cross barber shop and Tony Monaco the proprietor of the shop was the defendant. Abs. Bloomberg swore out a warrant for assault and the trial was before Justice S. R. Street. Monaco was found guilty and fined ten dollars and costs.

On account of a remark which Monaco was alleged to have made to an employee, Ernest Cowan, was arrested for larceny. Their trial was held before Justice Street last evening and the defendants were discharged for want of evidence.

HORRIBLE REVELATION.

The Beef Trust Investigation Shows the Corporation a Shameful Mess.

President Roosevelt Urges Immediate and Drastic Measures to be Used Against Them.

Special to Journal.

Washington, June 4.—President Roosevelt accepts the challenge of the beef trust and today gave the first blow by sending a special message to Congress a special message on the conditions of the Chicago stock yards as reported by the special commission. The President urges immediate legislation on this matter, giving the United States Agricultural department ample power to inspect all meat products entering into Interstate Commerce.

The report shows sickening conditions at the packing establishments. The employees had an utter disregard of cleanliness. False labels were placed on cans, meat scraps shoveled from dirty floors, ground up and put in cans. The revelations are horrible in the extreme.

In order to bring the high school up to college entrance requirements, an extra teacher was elected, the lady being Miss Mabel Chadwick.
