STORY OF THE FLOOD

THERE ARE MANY AND VARIED VERSIONS OF THE DELUGE.

The Great Event is Chronicled Not Only in the Talmud and Koran, but in the Legends of Almost Every Race That Ever Lived on Earth.

One of the most powerful and vivid descriptive portions of the book of Genesis is that devoted to the wonderful story of the deluge. Together with the accounts of Adam's fall, the slaying of Abel and the turning of Lot's wife into a pillar of salt, every one remembers from childhood how Noah was warned of the doom impending over the children of men and how he constructed a huge ark in which he did live, himself and his family, two of every beast of the field and fowl of the air, for the space of 100 days, until the waters subsided and the dry land appeared. But the Biblical relation of this terrible visitation of divine wrath is by no means the only one. In fact, the most skeptically inclined must believe that something of the sort actually occurred long ago, for it has been perpetuated not only in the Talmud and Koran, but in the legends of almost every nation and race that ever lived on the face of the earth, including the Chinese, the ancient Aztecs of Mexico, the Indian tribes of North and South America and even the savages of Africa.

The story, of course, varies materially in the multitudinous traditions, but the gist of it remains substantially the same—namely, that the earth was visited by a great flood in which nearly every living thing was overwhelmed and lost. Thus in the Koran we read that Noah constructed the ark with divine assistance and was called for his pains by the wicked. When the time prescribed for the punishment of mankind arrived, water was seen to flow from the burning oven of Noah's wife, and immediately all the wild and tame animals of the earth broke and gathered on water.

Noah was then admonished in these words: "Take and bring into the ark two couples of every kind of animal, male and female, with all your family, except him who has been condemned by your mouth, and receive the faithful and even the unbelieving, but few only will enter." The Koran also says that the ark was built in two years and that it contained three stories, the upper one for the birds, the middle one for the men and the provisions and the hold for the beasts. Canaan, the son of Ham, refused to be saved. Therefore Noah cursed him, and his posterity became black and were enslaved. The Persians assert that Ham incurred his father's malediction as well. When six months had passed the ark rested on the top of Mount Djondj (Ararat), after having made the circuit of the world. Tabari says that two sorts of animals left the ark, which had not entered it—the pig and the cat. Concerning the latter we have this interesting piece of information: When the rats began to make trouble the voyagers complained to Noah. Whereupon the patriarch "passed his hand down the back of the lion, who sneezed, and the cat leaped out of its nose. And the cat ate the rats."

According to the Talmud, Noah and his family and one pair of each kind of beast were to be saved in the ark, but of every clean beast seven were to enter in. The rhinoceros, however, had to be left out, for the simple but sufficient reason that its neck alone was three miles long. Nevertheless all the rhinoceros survived the flood; hence it is reasonable to suppose that the huge beast was taken in tow by a rope attached to its horn. Some authorities likewise declare that Noah extended his hospitality to another outsider in the shape of Og, the giant, who climbed on the roof of the ark and received his daily food through a hole bored in the side of the vessel.

Ararat has been known under this name for 3,000 years, and an Armenian writer declares that an entire country was so called after Arat the Fair, an ancient Armenian king, who lived about 1500 B. C. He fell in a bloody battle with the Babylonians, and the scene of his death was theocrothous known as Arat-Arat, or the Fair of Arat. Josephus refers to the mountain as Nasanna and declares that the remains of the ark were there to be seen carefully preserved.

Almost all the Asiatic traditions closely resemble the Biblical account. Berosus in his Chaldean history (B. C. 200) speaks of ten kings, who appear to correspond to the ten patriarchs in Genesis before the flood. The last of these kings was called Xisuthrus. Berosus relates that Xisuthrus appeared to Xisuthrus in a dream and warned him that all men would be destroyed by a deluge on the 15th of the month Deceis, and commanded him to write down all the learning and science of men and to hide it in the sun city Siparis and then to build a ship and enter it along with his family and relatives and nearest friends and to take into it with him food and drink and beasts and wild fowl. When he was asked whether he was about to die, he was told to reply: "The gods do not destroy them that mean to prosper." Xisuthrus did as he was commanded, and when the flood showed signs of abating he sent three birds to see reason. The first and second came back, the latter with mud on its feet, but the third returned not. Soon after this the ship was stranded on a mountain, and Xisuthrus disembarked with his family, offered thanks to the gods and visited his relatives. He then set out on a journey, and the first man he met was a man named J. W. BIDDLE, Sheriff.

A JURIST WITH GREAT HONOR

Hon. Hannis Taylor, LL. D., the Author of Legal Books Which Command the Respect of Lawyers of all Nations.

In the person of Hon. Hannis Taylor the City of New Bern is entertaining an extraordinary man. He is one of the most illustrious sons of the Old North State and has won well earned laurels. He returns to New Bern to renew the memories of old scenes and acquaintances and during his brief stay has been one of singular feelings and emotions. His ancestors, the families of both his father and mother settled in New Bern before the revolutionary war. They were of Scotch origin and all maintained the high character and integrity for which the Scotch are noted. His father, Richard N. Taylor was a prominent merchant here for many years and was an elder in the Presbyterian church. In the year 1868 the family removed to Alabama and Taylor's course in the University of North Carolina was temporarily discontinued. He studied law at his new home and later finished his college training.

Mr. Taylor, while he has been honored by the United States Government as minister to Spain and counsel in one of her most celebrated cases does not attribute his best work in that capacity but to the contrary believes the crowning work of his life is his literary productions, and to them he owes his later honors. His "History of the English Constitution" is the standard work adopted by colleges all over the country. It won high praise from the Statesman Gladstone and eminent lawyers of the English courts have written eloquent encomiums on the treatise. Another book, "International Law" has been a book which has found a place in memorable legal literature.

His life has been quiet and unostentatious but that he has not lived in vain is sure. The people of New Bern greet their distinguished visitor and as he turns his feet away extend a cordial welcome to return and make a more extended visit.

Don't forget to take a look with you on your summer vacation? A full line of Eastman's at J. O. Baxter's, the leading jeweler.

Lightning Destroys Schoolhouse.

Raleigh, June 26—During a heavy storm at Garner, six miles from Raleigh, lightning struck the new school house and academy totally burning it together with contents. The building was two stories and the second floor was occupied as a lodge room by the Junior Order United American Mechanics. The insurance is nine hundred dollars. It will be rebuilt.

Wire Grass

June 22.
Too much rain is all the cry now. It was never intended that people should be satisfied.

The farmers are out at their work again after the hindrance of two weeks by rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis of Beaufort passed through Sunday enroute for Harlowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill of Bladen were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sabiston Sunday.

Dr. C. N. Mason was called in our berg Sunday afternoon.

Mr. J. M. Buck takes his pack of hounds out occasionally and trains them preparatory to running deer next fall.

Messrs. Clyde Campen and William Hunning made a flying trip to New Bern on business a few days ago.

Miss Lula Hardesty of Harlowe passed through here last week accompanied by Miss Vivian Hill of Atlantic who was her guest for a few days.

Many of our farmers have not shopped their cotton for the first time.

Messrs. M. Fridgeor and L. C. Carrol of Newport were here yesterday doing business in their line, selling and trading horses.

Mr. John Dickinson is nearing the completion of his new dwelling on Laurel road. The carpenter work has been superintended by Mr. Clarence Simpson and it is a neat and comfortable one.

Most of our people have finished digging potatoes and while the price is fairly good they have not had more than half a yield.

Mr. J. H. Norcia has completed his new dwelling and is having it painted.

The out cry is that we will have a full crop of politics this fall if nothing else. Some of our citizens attended the county convention on the 24th of June and there seems to be much to be gained in the coming year's session to be held on the 26th and 27th at Kinston and Goldsboro also the annual convention which will probably be held at Harlowe City.

NEW BERN GAS & FUEL CO.

Enterprising Capitalists will Rebuild the Gas Plant, Conduct Business on Large Scale.

Mr. J. M. Cox, secretary of the new gas company which is to be known as the New Bern Fuel and Light Co., arrived Monday and gave the Journal a brief interview and told of some of the things the new company proposes to do. The present plant will be thoroughly overhauled and improved. The capacity will be 120,000 cubic feet daily and will be able to supply gas for any purpose whatsoever. In connection with the manufacture of gas they will have a gas fixture store where they will sell all gas appliances, lamps, stoves, burners, chandeliers and everything of the most modern and approved style. The vacant store in the Hazleton hotel block is being equipped for this purpose, and there is nothing in the line of lighting, heating or for the utilization of gas as a motive force that cannot be found there. Mr. Hugh Wood, who for fifteen years rendered valuable assistance to the former gas company has been retained by the new concern.

In the re-organization and improvement of the gas plant New Bern people will have a RELIABLE source of light and if the citizens show the proper appreciation it will develop into a prosperous industry. The men who have bought the plant are experienced on the subject. They own a similar plant in Fayetteville and they both have been connected with syndicates controlling gas and other franchises in northern cities and their judgment may be relied upon. Full possession will be given July 1, and they will begin their work of enlargement at once.

Before going away call in and see if your diamonds are mounted secure. J. O. Baxter, the leading jeweler.

A Pleasant Place.

A large crowd of ladies and gentlemen enjoyed the cool breeze Sunday at Mr. A. B. Wallace's pavilion. This is getting to be one of the most popular places on Neuse river to spend the afternoons and enjoy the cool breezes. Bathing, eating ice cream and drinking cool drinks. The balance of the summer now when the weather is good, we will have the pavilion lit up every night and want everybody to come over and dance and have jolly times, use of pavilion free of charge.

NOMINATED BY ACCLAMATION.

Hon. O. H. Gulon Named For Judge of Third Judicial District. L. I. Moore Nominated For Solicitor.

Kinston Free Press 26th.
The Democratic judicial convention for the third district was held in the court house in this city this afternoon and nominated a judge to succeed Judge Henry R. Bryan, and a successor to Hon. L. I. Moore, solicitor for the district. There was a pretty good attendance considering the fact that the convention was held outside the district, and Pitt and Craven sent very full delegations. It was a fine body of men which composed the convention and the spirit of harmony prevailed throughout. In the absence of the chairman, Mr. L. V. Morrill, of Greene, who was absent on account of sickness, Mr. A. D. Ward of New Bern was selected as temporary chairman, and called the convention to order. Mr. Ward made a short speech setting forth the object of the convention and then Capt. W. T. Cabo, of Pamlico, was made secretary of the convention. Capt. Swift Galloway, of Greene, was made permanent chairman and the convention settled down to business.

A roll call of counties showed every one of the counties represented as follows: Carteret, Craven, Greene, Jones, Pamlico and Pitt.

Nominations for judge were declared in order and Carteret yielded to Craven. Mr. James A. Bryan, of Craven, in a very happy speech, placed in nomination his countryman, Hon. Owen H. Gulon. Hon. T. D. Warren, of Jones, seconded Mr. Gulon's nomination and read resolutions of Jones county convention endorsing him.

Mr. F. C. Harding, of Pitt, arose and stated that by request of Mr. Morrill he would withdraw the name of Mr. Morrill as a candidate for judge and moved Mr. Gulon's nomination be by acclamation. Capt. Galloway then called Mr. Harding to the chair and after a splendid tribute to his countryman, Mr. Morrill seconded Mr. Harding's motion and Mr. Gulon was unanimously nominated by acclamation.

In the roll call for nominations for Solicitor, Carteret yielded to Pitt, not having a candidate, and Mr. F. C. Harding in a very pretty speech placed before the convention the name of the present incumbent, Hon. Larry I. Moore. Mr. Ernest Green, of Craven, seconded the nomination of Mr. Moore, and moved that it be made by acclamation, which was carried unanimously. Hon. T. D. Warren, Jones and J. E. Debnam, Greene seconded Moore's nomination also.

Mr. Moore was present and a loud call being made for a speech responded in a very graceful speech of acceptance, which was applauded long and heartily. Mr. Ernest Green, of Craven, then in the absence of Mr. Gulon, on behalf of the nominee and the delegates from Craven, made a short speech accepting the nomination for Mr. Gulon. Just before adjournment Mr. Green introduced a resolution endorsing the official record of Judge Henry R. Bryan, who has been judge for 16 years, and who voluntarily retires from the bench, which was unanimously adopted and was as follows:

Whereas, We feel that the Judge who wears the ermin, conferred by the people, in honor, and keeps it spotless, is as worthy the admiration of men as the soldier who upholds the honor of the flag.

And whereas, the Hon. Henry R. Bryan voluntarily retires from the bench of this district after serving the people for sixteen years with honor to himself, the district and the State. Therefore be it

Resolved, that the democracy of the third judicial district extends its greetings to the Hon. Henry R. Bryan, Judge and assure him that he carries with him into a retirement crowned with years and honors, the respect and admiration of the people of his district. Resolved further, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Hon. Henry R. Bryan by the Secretary of this convention.

The following executive committees were named for the several counties to serve for the next four years: Carteret—W. M. Webb, Craven—Ernest M. Green, Greene—B. W. Edwards, Jones—T. D. Warren, Pamlico—W. T. Cabo, Pitt—F. O. Harding.

E. M. Green was made chairman and W. M. Webb secretary of the Judicial Executive Committee.

Those attending from New Bern, were: E. M. Green, D. L. Ward, A. D. Ward, Wm. Dunn Jr., D. E. Henderson, O. R. Thomas, R. A. Nunn, Wm. Dunn, Sr., John Dunn, B. S. Gulon, C. E. Foy, James A. At the Mecklenburg

Chase City, Va., June 25—The latest addition to the facilities for giving pleasure and enjoyment to the guests is the opening of the splendid pavilion, which on Wednesday evening was used for the first time this season and presented a very gay and animated scene, being liberally patronized by the guests of the hotel and many visitors from Chase City. The situation of the pavilion is admirable, adjoining the ever popular Springs House and at an easy distance from the Hotel, thus making a delightful rendezvous during the evening hours.

The new orchestra from Washington, D. C., led by Mr. I. N. Boernstein, a violinist of considerable reputation, which is to delight the guests of the Mecklenburg during the summer season, arrived on Saturday, and will render a splendid program of inspiring music during the dinner hours and evenings, and add to the sweet-do-nothing hours the charm and beauty which only music can give.

Maj. and Mrs. S. P. Halsey, who have been such delightful guests at the Mecklenburg for a month, left on Thursday for their home in Lynchburg.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Cotter, of Pinehurst, N. C., are guests at the Mecklenburg. Mr. Cotter is general manager of the famous Pinehurst properties, owned and operated by the millionaire Tufts of Boston.

Mrs. Van B. Moore and daughter, Miss Lucy Moore, of Raleigh, N. C., are numbered among the very delightful guests here.

Mr. W. T. Harris, one of Danville's most prominent lawyers, accompanied by his son, Mr. T. M. Harris, arrived on Saturday for a stay of several weeks.

In the list of names on the hotel register for the past week we find the following:

Mr. H. T. Connally, Leesburg, N. C.

J. F. Connally, Pamplin City, Va., Dr. A. H. Boyd, Virginia; R. E. Turner and wife, Norfolk, Va.; J. H. Haywick, High Point, N. C.; J. M. Stephenson, Kinston, N. C.; J. H. Cobb, Jr., Goldsboro, N. C.; Miss Mary Long, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. F. E. Couch, Boydton, Va.; J. M. Curran, Oxford, N. C.; A. H. Egwell, New Orleans, La.; Mrs. Van B. Moore and Miss Lucy Moore of Raleigh; N. C.; W. T. Harris and son, W. T. Harris, of Danville; Mrs. F. E. Hazel, Raleigh, N. C.; Henry P. Hynson, Jr., Baltimore, Md.; J. W. Moseley and wife, and Mrs. S. E. Moseley, of South Boston, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Cotter, Pinehurst, N. C.; J. I. Pritchett, Danville; L. N. Boernstein and Urie Davis, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Mary D. Bright, Richmond; J. D. Borson, Misses Wilson and Hardy of Chase City.
