A Message From Mars.

"A Message from Mars," one of the most talked about comedies of recent years will be the attraction at the opera house Saturday Jan 12, 1907. Not until the present time has this play ever visited this section of the country. Its managers have found so great a demand for it in the Eastern states, that never before has it been possible to send it into this section of the country. When "A Message From Mars" was first brought to the United States after a run of three consecutive years in London, it attracted so great attention in New York that it remained there uninterrupted for a period of two years. This in itself should be sufficient recommendation for any play. All of the other large Eastern cities were visited and everywhere it was presented and thronged the playhouses to their seating capacity. This in brief has been the history of "A Message from Mars."

"A Message from Mars" is credited with being one of the most amusing and entertaining and interesting comedies that has been placed before the public for the past quarter century. It has a reputation also of being intensely instructive, as it deals with a great truth.

It is said to be cast upon original and novel lines, making it, in fact, something out of the ordinary. It is believed to be as unique, in its text and general architectural construction, as any play that has ever been seen. In this respect it is said to be a wonder. It is being presented by a company of about twenty-five players, many of whom were in the original London and New York productions.

NEGRESS FOUND DEAD

Annual Meeting of M. and M. Club. Removal of the Office of the Christian Sun Sportsman go to Virginia for fox hunt.

[Special Correspondence.]

Greensboro Jan 11.—Lizzie Morehead, colored, was found dead last night about six o'clock along side of the road leading from the Nursery company's office on the street car line. She was on her way to a wedding and it is supposed that heart failure caused her death. Her hat and one or two bundles she had carried were found lying in the road near the streetcar line, but her body had fallen down the embankment. The woman was the wife of Jim Morehead, who was at the Nursery and was a highly respected negro.

The annual meeting of the Merchants and Manufacturers club was held in the assembly room of the club last night. The meeting was largely attended and the following officers were elected for the coming year: J. L. King, president, G. S. Bradshaw, first vice president, G. S. Ferguson, Jr. second vice president, Lucy H. Sellers secretary and treasurer. The following were elected as the board of directors: Dr. L. M. Humphrey, M. K. Newell, Garland Daniel, W. B. Sprout, J. W. Cone and A. H. Alderman. The election committee was elected as follows: R. F. Dalton, Edgar D. Broadhurst, Paul Schoeck, Thomas S. Beall and James E. Mann.

After the election of officers and all other business transacted refreshments and cigars were served.

The office of publication of The Christian Sun, the official organ of the Southern Convention, has been moved from Elon College to Greensboro. Rev. J. O. Atkinson, the editor, will remain in Elon College where he has had his office since he assumed the work.

About ten of Greensboro's sportsmen left yesterday afternoon for Manchester, Cumberland county, where they expect to enjoy a fox hunt.

Miss Fannie Amick died of pneumonia Tuesday afternoon. The burial took place at Mt. Hope, twelve miles from the city yesterday afternoon.

"My Wife's Family."

It has often been said that bad news travels fast, but at times good news seems equally as speedy. There is a theatrical attraction which will be seen here Tuesday January 15, which according to the reports received from other cities, where the company has appeared this season, is deserving of a crowded house. It is a musical farce comedy in three acts entitled "My Wife's Family," which was produced three years ago at the Madison Square Theater, New York, scoring an instantaneous success, and since then it has met with the approval of theatre patrons in all of the principal cities throughout the country. Although the itinerary this season embraces several of the smaller cities, the company is guaranteed by the management to be practically the same as heretofore and not to have cheapened or curtailed in any way.

Fine Example of Self-Sacrifice.

Mr. T. B. Lave went to Raleigh this week expecting to be appointed door keeper of the House. He had the endorsement of Senator Simmons and Congressman Thomas, and had good reason to think he would be the successful man. But when he got to Raleigh and learned that a Confederate veteran was trying for the same appointment he very graciously withdrew stating that the other man should be considered first. His act of self-sacrifice is worthy of commendation.

GOVERNOR FAVORS REFORMATORY

Suggests Appointment of Commission to Make Full Examination of the Matter

Special to Journal.

Raleigh Jan 11. Governor Glenn said today, in conversation. "People are much mistaken if they think I am opposed to a reformatory, my idea is to go slowly, and surely and for this reason I have suggested a wise and humane committee or commission, to make a full investigation and ascertain exactly what is needed and then provide it." The Governor issued commissions to Senators Overman and Simmons and to the various congressmen except Blackburn, (who has no commission) and to Congressman elect Hackett as delegates to the national convention for the extension of the foreign commerce of the United States which is to be held at the New Willard hotel at Washington January 14th.

Condemned Men Get no Pardons.

Special to Journal

Raleigh, Jan. 11.—The governor refused four pardons today and granted four. Pardon is refused to Sylvester Barrett, convicted in January of last year, in Pitt county, of murder in the first degree, who will be hanged in February. He appealed to the Supreme Court which affirmed judgment. The governor is satisfied the conviction was legal and right.

Pardon refused Freeman Jones, convicted last August in Durham of burglary in the first degree and sentenced to be hanged, but was reprieved until February 8th.

The Governor says that owing to the importance of this case he has given it unusual attention, and finds as facts, that the man entered a dwelling, made a felonious assault upon Mrs. Jack Barker. His only excuse was that he was drunk, which is not an excuse but an aggravation. The governor says "the home and defenseless women must be protected. Men cannot in the dead hour of the night assault helpless women, commit a crime which generally brings about a lynching, and then expect the governor to show clemency." The sheriff is directed to hang Jones.
