New York, August 13.—The number of telegraph operators on strike is increasing all the time. Up to date, there are about 20,000 who have obeyed the call. There is no indication of a settlement. Labor Commissioner Neill will try to adjust the differences but the end seems distant.

Tangier, August 13.—A desperate battle was fought this morning between the French and Moors, the latter being the aggressors for the second time. The Moors numbered 5,000 men, while the French had only 1,500 soldiers. Fully one half of the Moorish army were killed in the engagement.

St. Paul, Minn., August 13.—Events of the past few days indicate that the powerful grip on the railroad interests of the Northwest, which has been held by J. J. Hill, president of the Northern Pacific road, is loosening and it is probable that he will be superseded by another. At a meeting of the stockholders and directors held today, he was defeated at re-election.

Onahock, August 13.—The race war started here by a negro editor uttering and publishing threatening language, and attempting murder, is subsiding and it is not now likely that there will be any trouble. Montgomery, Ala., August 13.—The Alabama legislature has passed a law against the labor in histories of children under the age of 16 years.

Norfolk, Va., August 13.—Gov. Guild of Massachusetts, commanding an admiral, the Massachusetts State naval militia, arrived in Hampton Roads today on the United States gunboat, Newport, for the Massachusetts and Boston day celebration at the Jamestown Exposition tomorrow. A Tucky Party.

Miss May Dawson, of LaGrange, is the guest of Mrs. M. B. Bell and John C. Stanley at their home at 152 George street. Last night she tendered a very delightful reception by the ladies in the way of a "tucky party," and all had a most enjoyable time. Delicious refreshments were served.

Police Court Proceedings.

Measures Tom Bowden and Gary Hawk were taxed the costs in the mayor's court yesterday for disorderly conduct.

Mr. Mark Stevenson, Jr., was taxed the costs for riding his wheel on the sidewalk.

An interesting combat took place after the disposal of the latter case between Mr. Mark Stevenson, Jr. and Mayor Bryan. It was in regard to the amount of costs paid. Mr. Stevenson held that in the case of his son, he had paid 40 cents too much, having paid for a warrant and a subpoena. His claim was not a personal one, but he made it to establish a precedent and precedent which was undoubtedly accomplished.

GAY SOCIETY FUNCTION AT MOREHEAD

Brilliant Events Given at the Atlantic Hotel by the Guests. Most Lively Season for Years.

Special to Journal.

Atlantic Hotel, Morehead City, N. C., August 13.—On last Friday morning Mrs. William B. Hill of Danville, Va., delightfully entertained at progressive bridge. There were sixteen ladies playing. The first prize a beautiful crystal white and gold bonbon dish, was won by Miss Eliza Simmons, who graciously presented it to Mrs. James A. Bryan; consolation won by Miss Celia Hunt, of Pensaola, Florida, delightfully light refreshments were served, and all thanked Mrs. Hill for a most enjoyable evening's pleasure. Those playing were: Mrs. Charles Dutton, Mesdames J. A. Bryan, W. E. Weatherly, Gary, J. E. Robinson, G. B. McGehee, W. L. Kennedy, J. M. Turner, F. P. Morton, Harry Skinner, Misses Gary, Core, Hunt, Eliza Simmons, Isabelle and Luch Fleming, and Clara Gray.

The dance given to the soldiers of the First North Carolina Regiment last night, in the spacious and grand ball room of the old Atlantic Hotel, was a great success, there were a large number of couples on the floor, and the Elan's Orchestra, of Greensboro, was as usual, mighty fine, and the evening was passed all too quickly. The first regiment left Tuesday afternoon in two sections via New Bern, enroute for Jamestown Exposition, where they will spend several days, camping. There was a goodly number of ladies with the boys. Much was said of the orderly manner of the boys and much credit due Col. Gardner, of Shelby, for the way he handled them. Mr. C. D. LeGrande, manager of the E. C. D. Line had charge of the trains between Morehead City and Norfolk, and as usual, everything moved along smoothly.

The climax was reached in the way of parties at Morehead, when Mrs. James A. Bryan, of New Bern, made the favored few, happy participants of a charming party, given in honor of Mrs. M. A. Moore's 79th birthday.

Tonight were flying on every passing zephyr. Mrs. T. J. Jarvis wrote a poem, fraught with most tender and loving sentiment. She wields a graceful pen, and the rare and beautiful thoughts, and good wishes were as precious stones in a setting of gold.

The presents were numerous, dainty finger-lets, cut glass, flowers in enchanting profusion. "The piece de resistance" was a grand and delicious birthday cake with its proper quota in candied and floral decorations was pink, happily appropriate as Mrs. Moore's life and surroundings are truly "coulleur de rose." Mrs. Bryan, as usual was a most gracious and elegant hostess, by acclamation, the party was voted a great success, and hearty wishes were expressed that all present might again have the pleasure of congratulating Mrs. Moore when she has added another to the years she wears so gracefully.

Yesterday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Turner of Augusta, Ga., gave a delightful sailing and surf party, there were about thirty present, and in Mrs. Turner's usual way, she gave them a most charming time, and it was with regret that night came so quickly and the party had to return to the hotel to prepare for the evening dance. Mrs. Turner served the fortunate ones with light refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Turner left this afternoon to spend some time at the Jamestown Exposition.

What proved to be one of the most brilliant events of the season at the dear old Atlantic, was the pretty party given last night by Mrs. L. Harvey, of Kingston, N. C., in honor of her birthday by Mrs. Frank P. Morton, there were about thirty present, and delicious fruit punch with Lady Baltimore Cake, was served in elegant style, the evening was long to be remembered by all.

There is still a large crowd here, and everyone is enjoying themselves. The fishing still continues to be fine, a party from Jackson, Tenn., having caught over five hundred trout and catfish here, last Friday, and they say they have never seen finer fishing anywhere than you find around the Queen of the Roanoke Resorts.

Admission Cut Down to Five Cents.

Mr. Lewis, the manager of the moving picture show at the opera house, announces that the price of admission will be only five cents during the balance of the season. Tonight an all-features program will be given with a complete illustrated song. Every one who goes is glad.

LABOR UNIONS IN CONFERENCE

A Representation of the Greenboro Craftsmen Will Attend Federation Session

CONTRACTS AWARDED FOR NEW BUILDING

For the Central Carolina Fair. Special Preparations For The Coming of W. J. Bryan. Firemen and Engineers Organize. Death of Poplar Young Lady

Special Correspondence.

Greensboro, August 13.—Greensboro will be well represented at Jamestown this week, as every train leaving here bound for the exposition is crowded to its utmost capacity. The final preparations of the Gate City Guards for the annual encampment have been made, and the company will leave on a special train tonight at 1:30 o'clock. They will go by way of Durham, and will be joined by companies from several towns along the line. The members have been drilling regularly during the last few weeks, and present a good appearance. They are equipped with new uniforms of the regulation type. The regiment to which they belong will be in camp about ten days.

The following representatives from Greensboro, left today for Charlotte, to attend the third annual session of the North Carolina Federation of Labor, which is to be held in Charlotte, tomorrow: J. W. Thomas, and E. J. Tally, of the Carpenters' Union; A. J. Williams, of the Typographical Union No. 397; C. C. Lewis and Lewis Burnett, of Greensboro Trades Council; High Point Carpenters, woodworkers and glass workers will also send delegates.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Leisle Color Company, of this city was held Saturday evening and the following directors were elected: Julius Leisle, president and general manager; J. A. Davidson, vice-president and treasurer; C. S. Adams, secretary and assistant treasurer. This concern was chartered for the purpose of acting as purchasing agents for all dyes and chemicals used by a number of cotton mills in this section making Greensboro the distributing point, with branch offices in several North Carolina towns.

In the county court house Saturday a meeting was held by the school committee of Guilford county for the purpose of going through with a general discussion of the conditions of the county schools, and of taking up in detail the power and duties of the school committee. The committee were instructed to put into operation the regulations and matters already decided upon. Speeches were made by several of those present, among those speaking being Mr. C. H. Ireland, and Mr. John C. Kennett. There was a good attendance on the part of the committee of the county.

A contract has been awarded to A. F. Brooks, for an addition to the grand stand at the Central Carolina Fair. The addition will seat at least 1,500 people. Blowers with a seating capacity of 2,000 will be erected along the race track, and every preparation will be made to accommodate the large crowd which is expected to attend the fair this year, for Sec'y Garland Daniel says that the fair this year will be bigger and better than ever before. The fact that William Jennings Bryan is to deliver an address draws an enormous crowd. The exhibits bid fair to be the best ever shown on the local fair grounds.

The firemen and engineers of the city have organized a lodge, known as the Brotherhood of Firemen and Engineers. The lodge begins business with a charter membership of 30. It is known as lodge No. 728. The following officers were elected: Past Master, Adolphus Robinson; Master, Charles L. Pollard; Vice-Master, Geo. C. Criss; Secretary and Treasurer, David M. Quate; Collector, Alton H. Bruster; Board of Trustees, James K. McLean, Victor H. Ballard; Local Protection Board, D. M. Quate, chairman, John L. Wilcox, Charles H. Edwards; Legislative representative, Charles H. Edwards; Medical Examiner, Dr. J. V. Shivers.

Miss Annie, the thirteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Newberry of this city, died at the home of her parents this morning at five o'clock of typhoid fever. The funeral services were held this afternoon at the home of her parents in the presence of a large number of friends.
