Greensboro's Philanthropic Rejoices Warm Welcome From Neighbors and Friends

MADE FLYING LEAP GOT HEAD CRACKED

Subway Finished. Investigation of Collision at Pomona Results in Discharge of Train Crew.

Negro Didn't Know he Committed Murder. Gate City News of Interest.

Special Correspondence.

Greensboro, August 14.—As a result of the investigation Sunday into the head on collision at Pomona, Friday night, between the Winston-Salem train, and a shifting engine, the yard crew at Pomona consisting of an engineer, fireman, conductor and two train hands, have been discharged. The engine of the Winston train was badly damaged by the accident, while the shifting engine sustained little damage.

Deputy sheriff W. J. Weatherly visited the Southern Railway double tracking camp about a mile from Greensboro, this afternoon at three o'clock, and placed under arrest Lawson Addison, colored, wanted for the murder of Matilda McMaster, and Mamie Halsey in Chester county, South Carolina, last September. He made no denial of the fact of shooting, saying that he shot and ran, and was not sure that they were killed until he was told today.

Mr. Paul G. Lindner, of the J. Van Landuy Nursery Company, and Mr. John A. Young, of the Greensboro Nurseries, left yesterday afternoon for Richmond, Va., to attend the annual meeting of the Southern Nurserymen's Convention which will convene in that city tomorrow. The trains bound for Richmond had on board a large number of nurserymen from all over the South.

The reception and banquet given by the Chamber of Commerce to celebrate the home coming of Mr. Moses H. Cohn, who has been absent from the city on an extended tour of the world for a year and a half, took place Monday night in the spacious dining room of the Guilford-Beechwood hotel, where an elaborate spread had been prepared for 250 guests. An informal reception was held in the parlors of the hotel, where from 3:30 until 10:00 greetings were exchanged between the guest of honor and more than 300 representative business men of the city, after which the guests adjourned to the banquet hall to enjoy the elaborate menu consisting of a long list of palatable and tempting delicacies.

Mr. G. Sam Bradshaw, as toastmaster, measured up to his usual standard as a clever wit and master of ceremonies. During the evening a number of excellent and entertaining speeches were made, but the climax of the evening was reached with thunderous applause when the guest of honor, Mr. Cohn, was presented. Mr. Cohn said in part: "I am overwhelmed, I had not expected anything of this sort. The things you have been saying about me are the kind of thing you usually hear at a man's funeral. He said he wanted to correct some misinformation. He had been given more credit than was his due. His brother, Caesar Cohn, was entitled to the credit for White Oak and for some other things which had been mentioned by the speakers of the evening."

Mr. Cohn was deeply sensible of the high compliment being paid him, by his fellow citizens. He said his heart was as full as it has ever been in his life. He never dreamed the reception to be given him would be of such magnitude. He said he did not believe that such a reception would be possible in any other section of the country. That nowhere in his travels had he found people more hospitable, or more generous to a home than North Carolina and Greensboro.

After profusely acknowledging his appreciation, Mr. Cohn proceeded to give a description of his new home in the western part of the country, and more delighted the company with a recollection of some of the things he saw, and heard during the year and a half in foreign lands.

Superintendent of streets, Geo. Kennedy, finished the granting of the 147th street license and the street is now open for the passage of vehicles. The Southern Railway authority had not yet allowed the train to pass the bridge.

CUPID WON OUT IN GAME OF LOVE

Young Couple Outwitted Bride's Parents' Opposition to their Marriage.

Special to Journal. Raleigh, August 14.—It develops that Miss Hortense Foushee and Mr. Ormond C. Liles, of Jonesboro, the procuring of marriage license for whom here last week created something of a sensation, have been married in spite of the opposition of parents and that the parents are now reconciled to the match, and have bestowed their blessing. The next day after the issuance of the license here to the groom himself on affidavit that the young lady was eighteen years old, the father of the bride, Mr. Lennie Foushee, came here and declared that the bride was only fifteen, and that he would prosecute the young man for false pretense. In the meantime the couple, who were advised that the parents were on their track, they were married on the railroad train just before the father came up with them. He denounced the groom and declared his purpose to prosecute, but now comes the news that he has forgiven both, and a complete family reconciliation has followed.

Messenger Boys Join the Strikers.

Special to Journal. Washington, August 14.—This city does not suffer as much from telegraphers strike as do other places, and a small working force has been left in the office of both companies. About 178 out of 202 operators are at work or enough to handle the work in fairly good shape.

The messenger boys have struck in sympathy with their older brothers, and today solemnly walked out. The extent of their strike is to bother and abuse the boys who stick to their jobs. The police broke up one gang who had badly injured one boy, and several arrests were made, at the request of the parents of the injured boy.

Both sides are optimistic as to the outcome of the strike and it is probable that the difficulties will be adjusted within a week.

The strikers fund amounts to $4,000,500. An appeal will be made to President Roosevelt for intervention.

convenience, as heretofore vehicles have had to cross either at the highland avenues of Jackson street crossings.

While attempting to board a flying freight train at the East Washington street crossing yesterday, H. Hardman, a young white man, who says that his home is in South Carolina, was thrown through the air several feet and sustained a fractured skull and other injuries. He had been warned by the watchman not to board the train at that point, but he persisted in trying. When he struck the ground he sprang to his feet and screaming with pain, rushed blindly for the train again, being seized by a man just before he plunged head-first into the cars. He then screamed, and with unconscious was taken to St. Luke's hospital. It is thought that he will recover.

The officer released woman and one of the highest estimated, in the entire part of the country, that all the same some localities are still in the grip of the epidemic. The Southern Railway authority had not yet allowed the train to pass the bridge.

ARRAIGNED ON THE CHARGE OF MURDER

Edward Westall in Jail, Suspected of Killing the Little Tieschler Girl.

Special to Journal. New York, August 14.—Edward Westall has been arrested on the suspicion that he is the murderer of Katie Tieschler, one of the girl victims of the numerous assaults and murders in this city the past few weeks. Police were put on the case by the woman, Doris Messner, who is held as accessory.

Sweet Potatoes are Here.

Hudson & Company received the first lot of sweet potatoes yesterday. Messrs G. A. Williams and Draughton arrived with a boat load from Dawson's Creek, amounting to between 50 and 60 bushels. The sweet potatoes are firm and in fine condition. The crop is said to be as large as conditions.

INTEREST FOR THE STAT FLAG

State Patriotic Society is Striving to Sustain and Extend the Same.

Special to Journal. Raleigh, August 14.—The North Carolina Patriotic Society, P. C. Ennis, secretary, is doing much to awaken interest in the North Carolina flag, so much that it is hard to supply the demands for these flags, the orders for them coming in for all sizes and fabrics. The flags are now waving over practically all the State and county buildings in compliance with the act of the last legislature. More than five hundred State flags were shipped the past two weeks to the Jamestown Exposition in preparation for the North Carolina week events. The society has just furnished two very handsome State regimental flags for the three regiments of North Carolina National Guard, that will spend the week in camp at Jamestown. They are of the finest field flag silk, gold braid, is trimmed with other regulation trimmings.

Morocco, Morocco, August 14.—An army of 7,000 Moors, attacked the French troops early this morning at Casablanca, and drove them from their position, but after a fierce fight it was regained. The loss on both sides was large. France will send an expedition into the interior of Morocco now.

Elixir Out!

The city was again in darkness last night, owing to the breaking of the belt, which occurred at four o'clock yesterday morning. It does not seem to be for no amount of nothing will bring back the light and as it is believed the difficulty is with the belt it might be well to remind the power that he believes, that it is not long since the city was a well lighted city on just one belt. It is believed that the difficulty is with the belt it might be well to remind the power that he believes, that it is not long since the city was a well lighted city on just one belt.

SEABOARD AIR LINE SUED FOR DAMAGES

Farmers Institutes Awakening Interest in Eastern Section of State

REVENUE OFFICERS CAPTURE STILL

Quiet Name on Pension Roll. Receipts of Department of Insurance. The Strike in Raleigh Operators Fight and Then Make Up Important Improvement on Railway.

Special to Journal.

Raleigh August 14.—A suit for $30,000 damages against the Seaboard Air Line, is instituted in Wake court by J. H. Griffith, engineer, for injuries sustained in an accident at Deep Creek bridge, March 21, when a string of freight cars ran down grade into his engine. R. N. Simms is attorney for Griffith.

The interest which farmers of N. Carolina are manifesting in the Farmers Institute, being held under the auspices of the State Department of Education is an inspiration to all interested in agricultural progress, so declares Col. R. J. Redding, of the Georgia department of agriculture. He has been in this State several weeks, delivering lectures at many of these institutes. He says he wishes very much that the farmers of Georgia could be brought to manifest such an interest in the institutes provided in that State. He will spend the next week or so with institutes in the eastern section of the State.

E. S. Dollar is an unusual name, which appears this year on the State Confederate pension roll. He is a citizen of Ashe county, and his pension is $18 per year.

The Raleigh Electric Company, operating the street railway system and furnishing the city lights has under way extensive preparations for improved service. A new 500 h. p. kilowatt steam turbine generator has just arrived and preparations for its installation are under way. The car sheds and general office and repair departments of the company on West street are being enlarged and entirely remodeled, converted in fact into a structure of brick and steel with modern appointments. There will be a new 440 horse power boiler installed along with those already in use in the local station. All this in addition to the splendid power generating plant of the company at the falls of the Neuse, six miles from town. All this work is to be completed by the opening of the State Fair, when it has already been announced, the fare to the fair grounds from the city will be five cents instead of ten cents, as heretofore.

The general telegraphers strike reached here last night about eight o'clock, when the operators in the Western Union office walked out leaving their keys with only Manager Bannister to scuffle along and do the best he could to handle the more important business to what points he can obtain communication with. The strike will not effect the Postal office here, for the reason that none of the operators are union men.

A short while before the Western Union operators walked out there was a fierce fight between two of the operators. Lee Dugli and John Burleson. Burleson is not a member of the union and the Dugli is. They quarrelled over matters pertaining to the strike, and the obligation of non-union men to go out and help along the cause. Several blows were passed. Later the two made friends and Burleson walked out with the other operators when the Raleigh strike was ordered.

The receipts in the State Department of Insurance for July aggregated $27,544. And this amount has just been paid into the State treasury by Commissioner of Insurance, J. E. Young. He has also collected and paid into the State treasury $250,41 being a part of the 5th fund in the State by the recent burning of the State University.

R. C. Downing and J. F. H. Adams deputy internal revenue officers are just back here a successful raid near Cary, this county, in which they captured a still of large capacity, and destroyed 1,000 gallons of beer and a number of brewers. Two men who were at work at the still, were arrested.
