BERNBANKING 8 TRUST CO

Temporary Investment

If you have funds temporarily idle, the best possible statent for them is a Certificate of Deposit in this Bank. The fine thing about these certificates is that if you need the money you can always get it whether the Certificate is due

If the money remains here for six months interest is paid at four per cent per annum.

This is better than temporary loans to friends who usually unnot repay you in case you need the money unexpectedly.
