

BROAD CREEK NEWS
Special Correspondence.

Broad Creek, N. C., June 4.—We are having a lot of rain this week, everything is nearly drowned.

Mr. Francis Oglesby and children of Swansboro, who have been visiting their mother, returned home Wednesday.

Miss Daisy Gaskins of Hollywood, who is spending the summer with her grand-mother, Mrs. Leah C. Moore, went to Swansboro, Wednesday to visit her aunt.

Mr. Edmond Oglesby of Swansboro, was with us Sunday.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Smith last Saturday morning. It was a fine girl.

Little Miss Leah Edna Guthrie was taken very sick last Saturday night, but thanks to Dr. J. W. Sanders, she is up again.

Mr. Potter and brother of Beaufort, were in our neighborhood last week, buying chickens.

Mr. E. S. Garner and son, are both quite sick, but we hope to see them out again soon.

Mrs. Carrie Godwin, and son, of Havelock, were the guests of Mr. E. S. Garner Wednesday.

Mr. George Smith of Salter Path, was in our neighborhood Saturday.

Mr. W. H. Moore went to Beaufort Tuesday and returned Wednesday.

BROAD CREEK NEWS
Some Wanderers of New York City
Success Magazine.

Over 250,000 people work at night. Coney Island is sometimes visited by 500,000 people a day.

There are 185 department stores, employing over 15,000 people.

The population is now 4,500,000. London's population is 600,000 more, but New York is growing seven times as fast as the British metropolis, and should become the largest city in the world inside of ten years. The population increases at the rate of five to one, compared with the increase of the rest of the country.

There are 113 theatres and two grand opera houses, seating about 110,000 people.

About 45,000 marriages are solemnized every year. One in every eleven minutes.

In 1885 New York had only twenty-eight millionaires; now it has over 2,000.

Over 476,000,000 gallons of water are used every day in the greater city.

A child is born every four minutes, and a death occurs every seven minutes.

The city contains 8,000 lawyers, 5,000 actors, 3,000 actresses, 6,000 artists, 10,000 musicians, 15,000 stenographers, 8,900 salesmen and saleswomen, 1,900 farmers, 1,000 undertakers and 852 female barbers.

No. 1 Wall street is considered the highest-priced property in the United States. Several years ago it sold for $700 a square foot and is assessed by the city at a little over $4 per square inch.

The transient hotel population is figured at 250,000 people a day. The hotel properties are valued at over $80,000,000.

DIARRHOEA
There is no need of anyone suffering long with this disease, for to effect a quick cure it is only necessary to take a few doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

In most cases one dose is sufficient. It never fails and can be used upon the most severe and dangerous cases. It is equally valuable for children and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year.

In the world's history no medicine has ever met with greater success.

Plenty More Like This in New Bern
Scores of New Bern people can tell you about Donan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsement?
Mrs. M. N. Hann, 48 George St., New Bern, N. C., says:
"I received more benefit from Donan's Kidney Pills than from any remedy I ever used, and it would be impossible for me to recommend them too highly. I suffered a great deal from headache and often on arising in the morning, would be so lame and sore that it was some time before I could get about with any degree of freedom. An annoyance from the kidney secretions also added to my affliction. When I heard Donan's Kidney Pills were recommended for such troubles, I at once procured a bottle. These pills were very effective. They banished the headache, corrected the kidney difficulty and improved my health. Other members of my family have also used Donan's Kidney Pills and can speak just as highly of them."

A SPANISH TRICK
The incident which moved England to Turn Drake Loos.
The relations between which Drake's aid into the south sea had for a time threatened with open rupture had greatly improved—at least in outward appearance—and in 1585, under special promises of immunity from molestation on religious or other grounds, Philip had invited to his ports a fleet of English corn ships in order to supply the deficiency of his own harvest. No sooner, however, had the English ships arrived than an embargo was laid upon them and their crews arrested.

One ship, the famous Primrose of London, managed to escape. While lying off Bilbao quietly discharging her cargo she had been visited by the commander of the Spanish fleet and his guard of honor. Suddenly calling upon her to surrender, the crew found their sails up on the masts and their guns all overhauled and made sail. Some of the discontented Spaniards on the shore had been seen clinging to the boat and were being pulled back by the English crew. These were immediately manacled and carried in triumph back to England, and among them was one who was afterwards known as the "Spanish Trick".

THERE WAS NO CHARGE.
All the Seats in That Particular Church Were Free.
At a certain church an aged usher, to save the exertion of continually marching up and down the aisle to conduct persons to their seats, used to take a stand in the center of the church and when any in-comers appeared beckon to them and then conduct them to a seat.

The ushers of the neighborhood knowing his peculiarity, used to pop their heads inside the church door and mimic his action by beckoning to him. Many times he tried to catch one and one Sunday morning nearly did so. But the boy rushed away from the church and ran into the arms of a policeman.

"What have you been up to?" demanded the policeman.
"Thought the boy 't'n caught," but he said, "Oh, sir, there's a disturbance at that church, and they have sent me to fetch a policeman."
"Very good," said the officer. "I'll step in and see about it."
So he opened the door at the west end of the church and, taking off his helmet, entered.

The moment the aged usher saw him he beckoned to him and motioned him to a seat next an old gentleman.

Immediately he was seated he touched the old gentleman and said, "Come quiet."
The old gentleman replied, "What do you mean?"
"Officer—you know what I mean, and I don't want no chat. Come quiet or I shall have to take yer by force."
Old Gentleman—I really don't understand you.
Officer—Look here! We don't want no more disturbance! You have been kicking up quite enough, and I'm going to have you out quick.
By this time the congregation were looking at the pair and wondering what was the matter, so the old gentleman said: "Very well, I have no more any disturbance, but to save any 't'will go with you."
So together, to the wonderment of the congregation, they marched up the aisle.

When they had passed out of the church the usher followed them, and the policeman, turning to him, said: "Now, then, you have to make your charge."
"Charge?" said the usher. "There ain't no charge. All the seats are free."—Detroit News-Tribune.
