The Democratic County Convention meets today, noon, at the court house, As the primaries settled the matter as far as candidates for county officers are concerned, and the vote for State officials has been settled according to the plan of organization, perhaps it will be just a love feast.

The Grand Jury went out yesterday to inspect the poor house, and other county property. It no doubt found everything in fine condition, Craven county has good cause to be proud of nee Miss Bertha Thomas, of Bir- its utilities and institutions. Bridges mingham, Ala., are guests of Mr. and and roads are demanding more attention now than anything else, and with the progress now being made, it is only a question of a few years when this county will have as good roads and bridges as any other in the east.

A few days ago it was reported that new-horn infant had been found on the premises of a citizen up town, carried it was said, and left by two negro girls. The infant was described as being a mulatto and was perfectly nude, lying in a basket. The identity of the mother was discovered, and the baby returned to her. Awaiting legal developments, nothing has been said about the incident so far, and the rumor is now given for what it is
