The Final Cost

of any extravagance is not merely the dollars actually spent, but includes what those dollars might have done for you if properly utilized.

Every time you spend a dollar you lose also the interest on it for the balance of your life.

Every dollar you keep from wasting and deposit in your savings department will earn you 4 per cent for as many years as you leave it here.

Think of the "final cost" before you spend and your account here will grow.

A TREMENDOUS BIG STOCK IN FACT TWO BIG STOCKS COMBINED IN ONE

I have moved my Kinton branch store here, and have more goods on hand now than ever, and to get rid of same, will of course cut prices on everything. There is no red banner in front of my store, as I am not trying to stimulate business by any fake sale. You can save from 20 to 50 per cent on any article you buy at my store. It will pay you to buy your next winter suit or overcoat now at the prices we will sell at. I must get rid of my tremendous stock in a short time to make room for my Spring and Summer Goods and will sell at almost any price. Come and price our goods and be convinced. Yours to serve,

Sam Lippman.

GRUESOME FIND BY N. Y. POLICE

Body of Murdered Scandinavian Woman, Janitor is Suspect

New York Feb. 7.—Wedged in a narrow trench beneath the concrete and boards of a basement floor in an uptown apartment-house was found today the body of an unidentified woman who had first been hacked in the head with some sharp instrument like an ice pick and then strangled to death. The police believe she was the wife of a Scandinavian janitor known variously as Peterson and Tammen or Thompson.

The basement room was locked and bare of furniture, but on the walls near where the flooring had been ripped up and the trench dug, were bloody finger prints.

The owner of the apartment house knew little of the former janitor who vacated the apartment last Friday. Lived quietly in his subterranean quarters until he gave notice that he would move. An evil odor had first indicated to the tenants that something was wrong and, on their complaint, the landlord summoned the police. The odor grew worse when they broke into the lock room that had been the janitor's parlor and when they ripped open a loose plank a woman's bare knee came into view. The murderer, hampered in his work by steam pipes, had jammed the body forcibly into the trench over a hot pipe and then held it in place by nailing down the planks.

An expressman who had moved Peterson's and in the kitchen of his new quarters were found a bloody hatchet and in one of his trunks the marriage certificate of August 24 Jersey City, 1907.

The nameless, silent girl and a man called Pierre Loesel, who was arrested as he entered the flat where she lived have been detained. Peterson is still at large.

Midnight Doctors

are the most unwelcome visitors—even the Doctor himself curses the luck that compelled him to leave his comfortable bed. Suppose you try our method, and keep a big 35c. bottle of Perry Davis' Painkiller in the house, and let the Doctor stay in bed and enjoy himself.

County Teachers Meeting

Next Saturday morning at 11 o'clock the Craven County Teacher's Association will hold their monthly meeting in the Griffin Memorial Hall. Prof. E. C. Brooks, of Durham, N. C., who is well known in educational circles will deliver an interesting address. The Domestic Science department of the graded school will serve lunch. It is hoped that every teacher in the county will be present and participate in the exercises.

AUTO KILLS HER NOW UNDER GUARD

Not Till Mail Chauffeur Has Delivered Male Bags Does Police-man Dare Arrest Him.

New York Feb. 7.

For the first time in the history of that sub-station the United States mail was delivered last night at Tremont under the direction of a policeman. The chauffeur of the automobile mail wagon Edward Baum, of No. 451 West Fifty-sixth street, was under arrest, charged with homicide, but the State of New York couldn't get hold of him until the United States Government had finished with his services for the day.

About 6 o'clock last night Mrs. Margaret O'Connor, fifty-three years old, of No. 960 Park avenue, was struck and killed by Baum's auto at Third avenue and Eighty-fourth street. She was looking north as she crossed the avenue and did not see the mail wagon coming from the south. It knocked her several feet, and when she fell the wheels on the left side passed over her neck. The wagon was heavily laden with mail, and besides breaking her neck it crushed her head.

Patrolman Walsh of the East Eighty-eighth street police station, who saw the accident, blew his whistle for help. He was afraid the chauffeur, being on a mail wagon, would get away from him. Baum stopped his wagon, got off and helped Walsh carry Mrs. O'Connor to the sidewalk. Patrolman Henry Wagner, of the East Twenty-second street station, off duty and in plain clothes, heard the whistle and ran up. He took charge of Baum while Walsh called a Presbyterian Hospital ambulance. Dr. Harvey said the woman had been killed instantly. Her body was taken to the police station on the order of Coroner Holzhauser.

PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 50c.

A STATEMENT

Even with the utmost vigilance sneak articles will find their way into the columns of a newspaper. Such articles are ingeniously worded, and then adroitly worked into the newspaper of fact and through some error will get into print. Such an article appeared in these columns on the 8th, not by our Society Reporter, by an anonymous writer. Apparently innocent and a social item, it really had a malicious intent, and the purpose to injure and vilify several persons, and also to discredit the Journal. The article in question came through the mail, and in the rush of getting out the daily, and weekly editions of this paper, its actual significance was not realized until too late, and the writer had gained the purpose sought, to flagrantly and maliciously start a lie, and work mischief, to satisfy some personal grudge, or gain some individual revenge. Not for an instant does the Journal accept this trick as a joke, but stamps the article as a villainous and cowardly lie, and if possible, the writer will be sought out and punished.

Proprietor.
